Greg Bell Still Has Ideas Of Breaking Owen's Mark

By ED CORRIGAN PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Greg Bell is old (39), out of condition (too much study) and isn't even sure he can beat the Russians when he broad jumps against them this weekend in the big U.S. Soviet track meet.

"But with it all," he said Thursday, "I still haven't given up the idea of breaking Jesse Owens' world record."

It was on May 25, 1925—almost a quarter of a century ago—that Owens got off a 26 foot, 8 1/2 inch jump at the University of Michigan.

"I've won the Olympic championship (25-8 1/4), so there's nothing else to try for but Owens' record."

Bill Rigney Lists 4 Musts For Giants To Cop Pennant

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Manager Bill Rigney lists four musts for his league-leading San Francisco Giants to win the National League pennant.

Sitting in his hotel room here praying for the rain which has lidded the Giants since Tuesday to go away, the bespectacled Rigney counted off:

1. A typical hot hitting streak by Willie Mays.

Tony Kubeck Is Injured

NEW YORK (AP) — Yankee outfielder Tony Kubeck was injured and carried off the field Thursday after he had collided with shortstop Gil McDougald in the eighth inning of the first game of a doubleheader with Cleveland.

Kubeck was hurt but not unconscious in the hard collision. He and McDougald had gone after Rocky Colavito's high pop fly in left field.

2. Continued good pitching with the return to winning form of a sound Jack Sanford.

3. Get lucky against (Warren) Spahn and (Law) Burdette.

4. Good weather in order to stop stinging late season doubleheaders which could ruin his thin pitching staff.

Rigney says he has no illusions about the road ahead.

"No one club is going to run off and hide from the rest."

"The Braves, Pirates and Dodgers all are tough and they're all playing good ball now."

Had record breaker behind the Iron Curtain. His name is Igor Ter-ovanyan, and he got off a jump of 26-3 1/4 three months ago.

at 29, I'm an old man in this business. Since being in dental school I've been out of training, and, in fact, I've been working out for only a couple of weeks.

long layoff has hurt my jumping. Once a broad jumper, always one. The first time back after my long layoff, I went 25-3.
