Lahey, MIC Champion

Saint Mary's University basketballer, Bob Lahey, walked off with his second consecutive Maritime Intercollegiate scoring championship this week, finishing with a 123 point margin over his closest rival, Mike Harrison, six-foot-nine centre from Mount Allison.

The blond bomber broke the single-game Maritime scoring record on his way to the scoring crown, potting 60 points against Dalhousie late in January and 54 against St. Dunstan's last month. The record of 50 points in a single game was formerly held by Bill Mullane, another St. Mary's great of the mid-50's.

The all-star guard wound up with a total of 381 points in 12 games for a 31.8 average, highest in the nation. He was recently named the top intercollegiate basketball player in Canada by the Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic News, published in Toronto.

Lahey's performances were in vain as far as St. Mary's were concerned however. The Halifax club finished third in the circuit standings, behind champs Acadia and St. Francis Xavier, and were handed a humiliating 84-48 defeat in their final game against the Axemen.

St. Dunstan's University ended in a tie for fourth position, with four wins, eight losses, 774 points, and 857 points scored against them. Top SDU performers were Francouer, 197 points; Sirois, 153; Desserault, 122; and Ripley, 117 points.

Wanted: One Quarterback

In recent weeks Jim Trimble has made no secret of how desperate he is to obtain a quarterback with Canadian experience for his Montreal Alouettes.

Some observers may be puzzled that the vetern coach should advertise his team's deficiencies in such a blatant manner, but Trimble explains: "We're not kidding anybody. They all know how badly we need an experienced quarterback."

So far at least six quarterbacks with various credentials are scheduled to show up at the Als' training camp in Joliette, Que., late in June, but the man Trimble wants isn't among them yet.

He's out to get Winnipeg's No. 3 quarterback, Dick Thornton. He was turned down the first time because "they wanted too much."

Since then Trimble has made one trade with Toronto, in which he picked up some surplus Canadian talent, and "we're trying to make another minor deal." All of which would put Trimble in a better bargaining position when he goes west later this month for another talk with Winnipeg coach Bud Grant.

Off The Cuff

BATHURST JUVENILES are heavy favorites to coup the New Brunswick title and meet P.E.I.'s representative ...... HOWIE YOUNG is at it again. The L.A. Blades defenceman set the sports arena crowd roaring with laughter when he skated on the ice wearing a beatle wig in the Blades game against Vancouver Thursday night. But he brought down the house when he removed the wig and revealed a Mohawk haircut underneath. The Blades won 8-2 ...... FIDEL CASTRO, an avid baseball fan and a pretty good pitcher in his hay-day, is a fanatic on diet for athletes. He constantly gives Cuban ball players advice on what they should eat and he contributes to their training by sending them large quantities of milk and yogurt from his small dairy farm outside Havana ...... "Now we have to win Saturday night (tonight) against Chicago or the race for first place is all over." says TOE BLAKE, Montreal Canadiens coach. The game will be televised on the CBC network ...... We don't expect that FRANK HOWARD will walk out on the Dodgers, but there is a good chance that Joey Jay will not return to Milwaukee Braves ...... MONCTON GELDART'S meet Chatham Ironmen in Chatham Sunday in the fifth and deciding game of the New Brunswick championship Junior series. Reports out of Chatham indicate the Ironmen will be strengthened by "some stars from St. Thomas University." ...... If the WINDSOR MAPLE LEAFS make a successful bid for the Allan Cup it would be a terrific climax to many years hard work by a few officials in the Annapolis Valley town, perhaps Nova Scotia's greatest hockey community ...... The Charlottetown Legion Juveniles got more than they expected from Summerside's KINSMEN JUVENILES in Summerside last weekend, coming home with a 4-2 win in the total goal round. Today's encounter might be just as interesting.

Island Legion Is Second

CALGARY (CP) — Alberta moved within two victories of clinching the 1964 Royal Canadian Legion national curling championship Friday with a 13-9 victory over Saskatchewan in the seventh round of the competition.

Skipped by Dunc Grant of Calgary, Alberta increased its record to six wins and one loss. Bunched in second place with four wins and three losses each were Saskatchewan, Ontario, Prince Edward Island and British Columbia.

In other games Friday, Prince Edward Island swamped Nova Scotia 17-6, British Columbia downed Manitoba 9-6, Newfoundland nipped Ontario 9-8 and New Brunswick tripped Quebec 11-6.

Ontario skip Rudy Steski of North Bay missed a chance to move into sole possession of second place when he missed his last rock on the 12th end to give Newfoundland's John Pike the two points he needed to force an extra end.

Pike won with a perfect draw on extra end. Steski's attempted takeout slid harmlessly through the house.

Dr. Ralph DeWare of Moncton, N.B., had little trouble in defeating Brock Stackhouse of Otterburn Park, Que., who has won only one game.

Danny O'Rourke of Chrlottetown chalked up the highest score of the day, defeating Frank Hoar of Truro, N.S., 17-6.

In the eighth draw Friday night: Newfoundland met Saskatchewan, Nova Scotia met Ontario, Alberta met New Brunswick, Quebec met British Columbia and Manitoba met Prince Edward Island.

CALGARY (CP) — Standings in the Royal Canadian Legion national curling finals after seven draws:

YOU DON'T LIKE THE WIG? HOW ABOUT THIS . .

When Howie Young of the Los Angeles Blades showed up for a game against Vancouver in the Beatle wig, left, referee Willie Papp, who was tipped in advance, made Howie take it off. He did — revealing his new Mohawk haircut, at right. "I did it just for kicks," said Howie, adding the haircut cost him $5 in a barbershop.

Hockey Battle Of Century Shapes For Wednesday

The hockey battle of the century (or something similar to hockey) will take place at the Charlottetown Forum this Wednesday night.

A team especially imported from England, and all kinds of places like that, the "Beatle-Beats" will challenge the pride and brawn of Prince Edward Island's hockey kingdom, the Confederates, to a half-hour of spills and laughs in aid of the provinces crippled children.

The half-hour brawl, and it just might end up being that, will be one of several feature events at the Forum Wednesday night on the program, the "Rotary, Easter-Seal Hockey Night."

Also on the program will be a P.E.I. Pee Wee All-Star game, a broom ball game among Charlottetown Rotarians, the presentations of some special awards, and an appearance by Roddie Newton of Kentville, Nova Scotia, one of the Maritime's best Pee Wee performers and a standout at the Quebec Pee Wee tournament.

The special guest for the big night will be 1964 Timmy, who will drop the first puck to get the night officially underway.

STARRY LINE-UP

Leading the foreign-type, Beatles congregation in the encounter will be former hockeyists Perc Simmonds, goal, Farmer Josey, Joe Coyle, and a new-comer, with reportedly unlimited talents, Babs FitzGerald on defence. Up front will be Ivan Doherty, Andie Weatherbie and others.

The Beatles, by the way, will be sporting their well known haircuts, and will be dressed in uniforms described as being "out of this world" by reporters in other countries.

Pacing the attack of the bearded, top-hat wearing Confederates will be Myron Bell, Gordon Tweedy, Billy Mulligan, Sandy Frizzle, Don Hntchinson, Winston Judson, and other international favorites.

LOCAL REFEREES

Referees, rather policemen, for the international battle, will be Jack Kane and Brian Lewis.

When the old-timers leave the ice Wednesday night, two sharp looking squads of youngsters will take over for a humdinger of a battle. Charlottetown's nationally known Centennial Pee Wees will host an all-star congregation from Summerside and RCAF Summerside that should provide some of the best younger-aged hockey ever seen in this province.

Sponsored by the Charlottetown Rotary Club, the entire proceeds will go toward crippled children's work in the immediate area, and especially to carry on the Crippled Children's Summer Camp at Belvedere Cove.

S'side Combines Defeat Charlottetown Hawks 6-5

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

Warren's Texaco Combines kept their intermediate "A" hockey championship hopes alive last night at Civic Stadium by edging Johnny's Hawks 6-5. Each team has another game with the RCAF Eagles, and if both win or lose, they will have to play a home-and-home series with total goals to count for the Island crown.

Last night's verdict was as close as it could be, as the Hawks, with a man in the penalty box, and their goaler on the sidelines, hit the post in the last minue of play. The combines used Coke Grady in the nets, and he played a fairly good game, though not worked as hard as Butch Ward in the visitor's cage.

It took the Hawks only 11 seconds to open the scoring, Noonan getting a lateral shot that slid between Grady and the right post. C. Gaudet capitalized on a pass out from behind the net a minute after the half way mark, and two minutes later Ronnie Gallant squeezed a 15 - foot shot between Ward and the goal post. The Combines made it 4-1 with two quick goals a minute and a half apart, and the Hawks closed the scoring for the period 22 seconds later.

Hawks scored the only goal of the second frame, McCormack notching his second after being set up by Willie Dunn.

G. Deighan made it 5-3 in the final frame, and a minute later the veteran Allie Carver scored from close in to make it 5-4. R. Gallant got a breakaway at 5.53 and neatly deked the goaler to give his team a two-goal advantage once more. The Combines held the Hawks off for nine minutes before C. Gillis put the visitors back in the game with at point blank range at 14.44. The Hawks tried hard but couldn't get the equalizer in the remaining minutes of play.

Glen Matthews was referee, Bob Sloan and Joe Coyle the linesmen.

Baun Ponders Political Move

TORONTO (CP)—After seeing the two worlds of Leonard (Red) Kelly, Bobby Baun says he will wait until he is finished playing hockey before he seeks a political career.

Rumors circulated in Ottawa Thursday when Baun, a bruising defenceman with Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey Leagueu, accompanied his teammate, Kelly, who is also a Liberal member of Parliament, to the capital.

Baun, a confessed Liberal, also met with Keith Davey, national Liberal organizer, he said in an interview Friday.

However, it turned out that Baun and Davey were old friends, having worked together at a radio station, and his visit was strictly social, he said.

Baun was asked by the Liberal party to run in the last provincial election in the Toronto-Beaches riding, but he turned it down.

However, he said Friday he would seriously consider a political carrer after his hockey days are over.

Clay Confident In Examination

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — After a three-hour written examination, Cassius Clay emerged from an army centre Friday and announced: "I did all right, I guess."

The heavyweight champion will learn the outcome in about four weeks. "I'll know when they call me."

The army ordered him to take the examination again after his first test in Florida last January was inconclusive.

This one, said Clay, "was a little tougher, more to it. But I'm sure I did okay."

Maj. Tom Farrington, public information officer, said that if Clay passed the examination, it would not preclude his enlistment in a reserve unit for six months.

Legionaires, Kinsmen Meet At Forum Tonight

Buck Whitlock's Legionaires host Summerside Kinsmen Juveniles tonight at the Forum in the second game of a two-game total goal series. The Legionaires, sponsored by the local branch of the Canadian Legion, won the first game last Saturday in Summerside 4-2.

Despite the win, Legion coach Buck Whitlock felt that his team could have done much better. "We just weren't skating," he said, "our shooting and passing left a lot to be desired, although the ice was desperate. We won't be playing straight time as in Summerside, and we've had more practice before this game, so I think we should do all right. We missed an awful lot of chances which I hope we won't tonight."

Whitlock indicated that there would be a player adjustment for this game. Angus Houston will centre Billy Weatherbie at left and Jamie Kennedy at right on the first line. Allan Flood, who is eligible to play only three playoff games, will sit out this encounter. On the second line, Jackie MacEachern is at centre btewteen Jerry Kane at left and John Irwin on right.

PLAYOFF ADDITIONS

Among the additions for the playoffs are George MacMillan, Dennis DeCarufel, and Mike Kelly from St. Dunstan's University, and Joey Brown from Prince of Wales. Buck said that he would experiment with Kelly centering Brown and DeCarufel, with George MacMillan paired with Kenny Scott on defense. The other reamguard line has Kevin Smith teamed with Wayne MacDougall. Howie Murchison will be the fifth defenseman.

In goal, the Legionaires have Carl McQuaid, perennially the top goalie in Charlottetown Junior circles.

If the Legionaires get by Summerside tonight, they will play a sudden death game against the New Brunswick champion. The winner will play the Nova Scotia champs for the Maritime championship, probably in late March.

Tonight's game starts at 7:15.
