THE MAIL arrived in Charlottetown at half past twelve to day. It came by the capes, the order for the transfer to the Stanley having been countermanded.

GOOD FRIDAY was generally observed as a holiday. The usual services were held in the churches, and all were well attended. There was a slight fall of snow during the day.

TELEPHONES.—The telephone office will be open tomorrow and every Sunday till further notice from 8.45 to 10.45 a. m, from 1.30 to 3.30 p. m., and from 9 to 10 p. m.

ST. DUNSTAN'S CATHEDRAL.—The services to morrow will be at the usual hours. At the half past ten service, the choir will render Van Brees celebrated mass, assisted by Vinnicombe's full orchestra. The musical portion of the service will be under the direction of Mr Blanchard. At the evening service special music will also be rendered.

BADLY SCALDED.—The Pictou Standard says: A little child of Angus McDougall, who lives in Mr. C. W. Ives' building, was burned very severely yesterday. While playing with another child she backed against a pail containing hot water and sat down in it. Before her clothes could be removed she was scalded considerably.

LOVE FEAST IN GRACE CHURCH.—The Good Friday love feast in Grace Church last night was well attended and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The pastor presided, and the Rev. A. D. McLeod delivered a very appropriate and practical address from John iii, 1-4. Several related their religious experience and pointed out the Divine method in leading them into a Christian life. The service closed by heartily singing "Blest be the tie that binds."

THE Easter services in Grace Church will be unusally interesting. The choir has prepared some entirely new, and choice music for both services. At the close of the evening regular service a Missionary Rally under the auspices of the W. M. S. will be held. The addresses will be delivered by the Rev D. Sutherland and the Rev. G M Campbell. The pastor will preside and a collection will be taken up in behalf of the W. M. S. Besides this a special programme is prepared for the Epworth League at 3.30.

Souris Notes.

Our rushing contractor, Mr. Ambrose Hughes, has already laid the foundation of Mr. L. E. Shaw's dwelling house, and the work is progressing nicely under the Inspectorship of Mr. Allan Boisner. We are indebted to Mr. Hughes for the latest discovery in the building line namely the combination fence and foundation posts, which he has placed in position under Mr. Shaw's House. Intending builders would profit by inspecting Mr. Hughes' design as it is a considerable saving on both stone and lumber.

The harbor is free from ice, and some good catches of lobsters are reported. All the factories are running in full blast and a good season's work is expected.

RASTUS.

The Canada Life.

Commenting upon the last annual report of this great Canadian insurance company the Hamilton Times says: The magnitude of the figures involved in the record commands attention. With new business of over five millions accepted during the year 1897, with total insurance of more than seventy-two millions in force, with the year's income very close to three million dollars, with assets of over eighteen millions and a half, after paying more than one million and a quarter on policy holders' account, the Canada Life shows a net surplus of more than a million and a half dollars over all liabilities, including the necessary reserve for all the Company's policies.

Results like these are not due to accident or luck. They betoken as much care in the reception of all unsuitable risks on lives as is exercised in connection with the investment of the Company's funds. Everything is done on strict business principles, as exempt from carelessness as from favoritism. Unless a man can show a good family record and a body that will stand strict medical inspection, he simply cannot get into the Canada Life and must look elsewhere for insurance. Once inside the charmed circle, his investment is absolutely safe, and he or his heirs will obtain full value with liberal profits for all the money he pays to the Company.
