Island has unique charm

Prince Edward Island is one of the truly delightful spots in Maritime Canada. It has a charm of its own that lures visitors from all parts of the United States and Canada for longer stays. Outstanding attraction of this lovely little Island is its excellent beaches where the water averages 68-70 degrees Fahrenheit. There is golf, tennis, boating, trout fishing, hunting, horse-riding, beautiful scenery for the artist and the camera enthusiast and many other diversions. Prince Edward Island has often been referred to as the Kentucky of Canada. If a man horse racing is an island specialty.
