In the Looking Glass.
It is really not a father's fault that his little daughter supposes him to know everything. Children are born to have faith. But one Chicago parent should have expected trouble when, says The Tribune, his child began:
"Papa, you took the scientific course in college, didn't you?"
"Yes, dear, I spent two years on science."
"When you look in a mirror, the left side of your face appears to be the right side, and the right side seems to be the left. The looking glass reverses it, doesn't it?"
"Yes."
"Then why doesn't it reverse the top and bottom of your face the same way?"
"Why—er—ah!"

"Next Sawbath, No Sawbath."
Ecclesiastical Curiosities, edited by Mr. William Andrews, contains a paper on "Curious Announcements In Church," from which the following are extracts:
"Next Sawbath," said a worthy Scotch headie, "we shall have no Sawbath, for the minister's house is having spring cleaning, and as the weather is very bad the minister's wife wants the kirk to dry things in."
"Next Sunday," declared the unconsciously amusing Welshman, "there'll be no Sunday, as we're going to whitewash the church with yellow ochre."

No More War

Swords will be beaten into plough shares later on; but our armers do not need to wait till the "Peace Conference" is over, before buying their plough shares, as they can do so at once, by calling at the Masonic Temple Store, where any share, or other plough extras can be had for less money, and better than any imported. Prove this at once, by trying hem.

ALL ABOARD! 1000 PASSENGERS FOR MORELL TEA.

The Century Jubilee Tea
— TO BE HELD —
AT MORELL,
— ON —
TUESDAY JULY 4th, 1899.
Will be the crowning social event of this closing year of the 19th Century

Here we are again, with the old name — The Great Jubilee Tea. Is it not like meeting an old friend with whom you once spent a pleasant and enjoyable day? Somebody has asked, what's in a name, we will not venture to answer that question as it regards names in general, but will merely submit that this particular name, JUBILEE TEA inasmuch as it designates the great social gathering held at Morell is a guarantee of the highest excellence in all that pertains to tea-parties. In confirmation of this assurance we confidently appeal to the many thousands of persons from all over the province, who attend our first great Jubilee Tea in 1895.

It is because of the reputation for excellence acquired by our great Jubilee Teas, that we have retained the old name, and we will spare no efforts to make the present tea the peer in every respect of its namesakes, which have gone before it.

The Tea will be held on beautiful and spacious grounds adjoining Lot 40 Station about 1 mile from the village of Morell, and within easy reach of "Stookley" the historic site of the old Acadian town of St. Pierre where social gatherings were held in the olden days, before our grandfathers were born. If you wish therefore to have the pleasure of attending the first, largest and best tea of the season, arrange to be present at the CENTURY JUBILEE TEA to be held at Morell on July 4th. Should this day be unfavorable the tea will be held the first day following.

Trains will run in connection with the tea on standard time as follows:
