

National Officials Red Cross Due

Miss Ann Malcolm, RN, of Toronto, assistant national director of Red Cross Nursing and First Aid services, and C. R. Blackstock, national director of Red Cross water safety, are due to arrive in Charlottetown this morning. While in this province they will, along with Ralph Wendeborn, national director of Junior Red Cross, hold conferences with Gordon MacDonald, president of the P.E.I. Red Cross, Miss I. Arsenault, the commissioner, and the chairmen and directors of the Red Cross services with which they are associated.

Mr. Wendeborn, who arrived on Friday and was the keynote speaker at the high school Red Cross conference held Saturday at the Basilica Recreation Centre, will also be the featured speaker at the semi-annual meeting of the P.E.I. Red Cross which is to be held at St. Mary's hall in Summerside tomorrow.

C.R. BLACKSTOCK

Members of the provincial Red Cross water safety committee will have the opportunity to meet with Mr. Blackstock Monday evening to make plans for an even more extensive and coordinated water safety program for next year when it is estimated that this year's all-time high records of enrollment will be exceeded. Mr. Blackstock will also be featured as one of the speakers at the Red Cross meeting in Summerside Tuesday evening when the theme will be "Your Red Cross Looks to the Future".

Funds for the carrying out of all Red Cross programs in this province are provided by the United Appeal which is now in progress.

Major Track Event Is Planned For 'Side

David M. Boswell, president of the provincial branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, has announced that Summerside's new $41,000 recreation complex will be the site of the Eastern Canadian "Agassias" track and field championships next July.

The site of the championships next summer is a joint effort of the United High School and Vocational School in Summerside. Work is now going on at 4.18 a.m. on a new track and field centre.

Mr. Boswell pointed out that the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union of Canada sanctions four invitation events for any national or provincial level.

The Island division of the AAU of C is represented at Dominion meeting this week in Winnipeg by Charles Ballem, chairman of the provincial AAU of C track committee.

Participants in the championships next summer will include male and female athletes from junior age down, in addition to those receiving invitations for the four special events.

John Collins of Sturgeon was also fined $10 and costs for days for failing to stop at a red traffic light.

The case of Russel McIntyre of Savage Harbor on a charge of assaulting John Carmichael was adjourned to Nov. 16 as the accused's counsel was not present.

Retiring Directors Honored By Central Farmers Co-op

Retiring directors were each presented with a gift at the annual banquet of the board of directors of the Central Farmers Co-operative held Saturday night at the Queen Hotel. L.D. Mackay, local manager of the Royal Bank of Canada and Mrs. Mackay were special guests for the occasion.

The retiring directors, Wilfred Driscoll, Jack Rodd and Austin Kennedy were presented with their gifts by William Ball, store manager of Central Farmers Co-op.

The newly-elected directors are: Claude Wood, F.W. Hogan and Matthew Hagen. The banquet was followed by a social discussion entitled "Advantages of Co-operatives in the Province." The chairman of the meeting, Malcolm MacKenzie, presented the co-operative.

Couple Honored At Alberton By Churches Before Leaving

ALBERTON — Mr. and Mrs. Dickard expressing Douglas Dickard, who have been regret at their pending departure from Alberton for the past three years, last Wednesday for their new home in Lancaster, N.S.

During their brief time in the community, Mr. and Mrs. Dickard established many friendships and Mr. Dickard made a contribution to his musical talents. He was a member of the Presbyterian choir and on occasion served as organist, soloist and also in the United Church.

On Wednesday evening members of the Presbyterian congregation assembled to honor them. A pleasant social dinner consisted of games, contests and singing. Rev. Peter Darrch addressed.

Three Injured In Collision MORE THAN

ALBERTON — Three persons were taken to the Western Hospital in Alberton last evening following a collision on the highway at St. Elvards bus no one was killed seriously injured.

The collision was between a half-ton truck and a 1958 car. Austin Brooks and Melville Costain of St. Elvards were occupants of the car and the truck was driven by Chester Shea of St. Louis.

Both vehicles were extensively damaged in the accident which was investigated by Alberton detachment of the RCMP.

SWAP Games Are Played

At the local YMCA last Saturday regular games were played in the SWAP league. Both games were close and strongly contested.

In the opener of the double-header undefeated Phalanx barely managed to overcome the winless Phinias team. At the first whistle the scoreboard read Phalanx 2, Phinias 2.

Robert MacNutt led the Phalanx club to victory with 10 points. Dennis Taylor, who hit a home run for the first time in 8 for the game team. However, it was a Phinias player, Gary Gulderson, who hit a high man of the game by virtue of his 16 points.

The second contest saw Centennial post a 30-22 win over Alpha. This victory validated Centennial over Alpha into second place.

Ronnie Diamond led the winners attack as he accumulated 16 points. This keeps Diamond out in front of the scoring race with 63 points in four games. High man for Alpha was Don Baker with 8 points.

Referees for the first game were Ralph Beaton and Bill Jarvie. Roy Deiron and Art Strong took over the whistles for the final contest.

Football Game Goes Next Week

The first annual Spud Bowl Canadian football game will be held at Queen Elizabeth Park in Summerside on Saturday, November 16. The 415 Squadron Swards will meet the Summerside High School team at 1:30 p.m. Spoken for both teams are that this will be Canadian football at its best.

All ballfests there will be a silver collection, with the proceeds going to the P.E.I. United Appeal Fund.

Police Recover Hit-And-Run Car

SUMMERSIDE — Town police reported Saturday that a car which had been involved in three consecutive hit-and-run incidents Friday night, causing some $500 damage, had been located outside of Summerside. It was damaged extensively.

Eldon Casey, Summerside, owner of the 1950 model car, told police the vehicle had been stolen from his residence prior to the triple hit-and-run incident on Central Street.

The car is reported to have barreled its way down Central Street at 8:30 p.m. at an estimated speed of 90 m.p.h., striking the front of a 1964 model car at the corner of First and Central Streets.

The vehicle arrested, striking the side of an early 1950 model and then a late model half-ton truck.

Police obtained their lead on the hit-and-run vehicle from a bystander who saw the license plate number.
