AUGUST 4, 1896.

DEATH IN THE MIDST OF LIFE.

Few events have caused a more profound shock in this community or created a feeling of deeper sympathy than the instantaneous death of George Peake, Esquire.

Mr. Peake was highly esteemed as an honorable, generous and kindly gentleman. Formerly a member of one of our most prominent shipping firms, he has in recent years lived in retirement.

MR. DAVIES' DUAL POSITION.

THE HON. LOUIS HENRY DAVIES, Minister of Marine and Fisheries and acting Minister of Railways and Canals, left this Province yesterday morning to resume at Ottawa the duties of the office of Minister of Marine.

On the evening of that eventful day Mr. Davies, in his capacity as acting Minister of Railways, called his faithful followers and informed them that the time had arrived when he was in a position to do something for them, and with that end in view he invited them to form a committee to advise him as to what the loss of a fisher should be.

Mr. Davies' methods and capabilities have been carefully gauged by the Peterborough Review, and the conclusion is stated as follows: "Let it be remembered that Mr. Laurier is still in the talking stage, and has not yet begun to carry out the policies which he presents in such smooth and gaily-colored sentences."

Mr. Laurier's methods and capabilities have been carefully gauged by the Peterborough Review, and the conclusion is stated as follows: "Let it be remembered that Mr. Laurier is still in the talking stage, and has not yet begun to carry out the policies which he presents in such smooth and gaily-colored sentences."

P. E. ISLAND CHEESE.

News comes from the different dairy districts of the Island of the June make of cheese being disposed of and sent forward to the Old Country markets, the price being about seven cents per pound.

WHERE IS MR. BLAIR?

What has become of the Hon. Mr. Blair, late Premier of the Province of New Brunswick, and who some time ago was called upon by Mr. Laurier to become a member of the Cabinet of Premiers?

THE SCOTT ACT.

WHILST the Scott Act is being most shamefully disregarded in Charlottetown, Summerside and other parts of the Province, it may not be out of place to ask where are the paid prosecutors and what are they doing?

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

According to an exchange the platform from which Hon. Messrs. Tarte and Fisher spoke last week, the election platform was placed upon it. There seemed to have been weak planks in the platform, as well as in the metaphorical platform on which they stand politically.

It was in accordance with the eternal fitness of things that the $3,000 deposited in the election fund should be placed in the hands of Messrs. Hackett, McDonald and Martin, should be in the hands of the Merchants' Bank of Prince Edward Island, of which Hon. L. J. Davies is President and Mr. Attorney General Peters is a leading director.
