2-WAY MIRRORS HAVE ODD USES

VANCOUVER (CP)—Pssst. Ever get the feeling you're being watched? No, no! don't turn around.

But that mirror over there . . .

The Sun, in a front-page story, says peek-a-boo Mirrors—of the type made notorious in London's current sex scandal—are hanging on walls in Vancouver.

Bookies and bootleggers, wary of police, have found them valuable for screening customers before opening up, the story says.

Office bosses have wall panels so they can keep an eye on the work habits of employees.

Supervisors in supermarket chains and department stores peer about for shoplifters through the glass that looks back.

And the Post Office security men watch for mail pilferers through the looking glass.

The special glass costs $12.50 a square foot compared with about $2.50 for ordinary mirrors.

The two-way mirror has a thin layer of silver particles on the one side, compared with much thicker layers on conventional types.

And therein lies the danger.

If the viewer's room is lighter than the room being viewed, the whole thing works in reverse.

Mennonites Leave West For Bolivia

WINNIPEG (CP)—A group of 41 Mennonites from prairie farms left here by plane Wednesday to start a new life in Bolivia away from modern civilization.

Men, women and children boarded a Trans-Canada Air Lines plane for the 10,000-mile flight to South America.

Members of the group, clad in black and grey garments, said they feared civilization threatened their simple way of life.

Sect members oppose military service, income tax and modern dress including bermuda shorts and short skirts.

They hope to settle in the Bolivian hills under a mandate from the republic's government and put their traditional love for the soil to use by raising corn, cotton and rice.

The Bolivian government has promised the pacificist group total exemption from military service and a five-year exemption from income tex.

They may establish their own schools to teach the Mennonite religion and other subjects including elementary Spanish and Bolivian history.

Senator Savoie Presents Case For Acadians

OTTAWA (CP) — So-called harmony between French-speaking Acadians and other New Brunswickers exists only because of Acadian submissiveness, Senator Calixte F. Savoie (Ind. — New Brunswick) said here.

Conflicts over biculturalism constitute the most serious threat to the unity of Canada, he said in the continuing throne speech debate. But French-speaking Canada extends outside Quebec province and its rights must be honored too.

Senator Savoie said that if ever a people had suffered for two centuries, it was the Acadians. French held no official status in New Brunswick.

At the same time, Quebec's treatment of the English minority there "teaches us democracy."

Senator Savoie said he hates the word tolerance but that sums up the attitude of non-French New Brunswickers to the Acadian.

The culture had barely been allowed to survive and was in the process of disappearing. The language "teemed with anglicisms."

Acadians wanted full recognition of their rights but within confederation. However, at present, within New Brunswick French was the chief language in some schools from Grade 1 to Grade 6 but that thereafter it was limited and final high school examinations must be written in English.

Senator Savoie said the royal commission on biculturalism will accomplish nothing unless its recommendations are acted on. He said he had a basis for being suspicious of royal commissions.

Indian Act Is Reviewed

OTTAWA (CP)—The government is reviewing the Indian Act "for possible amendment," the Commons learned here.

Without elaboration, this reply was given by John C. Munro (L—Hamilton East), parliamentary secretary to Citizenship Minister Favreau, to Frank Howard (NDP—Skeena).

Mr. Howard had asked what the government is doing about a series of recommendations by the joint Senate-Commons committee on Indian affairs.

New Methods Of Fishing Are Reported

OTTAWA (CP) — New-fangled fishing gear includes electric lights lowered in the sea and also the pumping up of fish through a hose funnel device, Senator C. C. Pratt (L—Newfoundland) has informed the senate.

He said fish are attracted to the hose inserted into the sea and then can be pumped up at the rate of a ton an hour.

"Is that cricket?" asked a colleague.

"Well, that's done," replied Senator Pratt, adding that he doesn't know how prevalent the custom is.

He said it will be essential for Canada, in imposing a 12-mile fishing limit by mid-May next year, to make sure stiff fines are provided for nations breaking the limit.

PAY BIG WAGE

Canada's forest industries pay nearly $1,200,000,000 in salaries to some 300,000 employees annually.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

QUIZ

You are South, not vulnerable against vulnerable opponents. The bidding has been:

South	West	North	East
1 NT	Pass	Pass	Dble.
Pass	Pass	2 ♦	Pass
Pass	2 ♥	Pass	Pass

What would you now bid with each of the following four hands?

1. ♠K9 ♥KJ109 ♦Q85 ♣AQJ
2. ♠KQ6 ♥A4 ♦J973 ♣AQJ
3. ♠KQ65 ♥A8 ♦QJ7 ♣KQJ
4. ♠AK4 ♥J1093 ♦QJ2 ♣AQ

1. Pass. You can't fight City Hall. North obviously has a bad hand. He passed the notrump bid; he rescued one notrump doubled; and he also passed West's two heart bid. He may have 2 or 3 high- card points, but that's the most you can expect. It would be wrong to double, or to bid two notrump or three diamonds. There is too much to be lost and too little to be gained.

2. Three diamonds. The same observations about North's hand apply here also, but with this setup there is a much firmer basis for continuing the bidding by raising diamonds.

The potential losers are two diamonds, a spade, a heart, and a club. It is unlikely that three diamonds can be defeated more than a trick, and East-West can probably make two hearts. Obviously, down one at three diamonds, whether doubled or not, is better than two hearts bid and made. Furthermore, partner might make three diamonds.

3. Three diamonds. Here also, it is better not to give up. True, partner may not have a face card, but, even so, it is hardly likely that he will be defeated more than one trick. He may have nothing more than five or six diamonds to the 10- 9 and still come home with eight tricks.

Of course, partner may also have a better hand and be able to produce nine tricks, but that is not the expectation when you bid three diamonds. The point is that the opponents can probably make two hearts, and you can't afford to let them do this when there is a chance of stopping them, without great risk by bidding three diamonds.

4. Pass. You have to stay put in this case because there is no way of safely contesting the bidding further. A raise in diamonds could lead to a two or three trick set, and that would be too prohibitive a cost if you were doubled.

The potential losers are a spade, two hearts, two diamonds, and one or two clubs. There is a limit to how far you can go in contesting a part score, and this hand — with 4-3-3-3 distribution — is past that limit. Besides, there is a reasonable chance of defeating two hearts.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
