ATHENS (AP)—Twenty per cent of the population of Athens and Piraeus is suffering from influenza, the minister of health, Andreas Kokkalis, announced Wednesday. The total population of the two Greek cities is about 2,000,000. The minister said the cases of influenza were mild.

Quebec In Quebec

QUEBEC (CP)—Top Quebec lawyers questioned Jacques Parizeau for almost three hours Monday at a royal commission into the Coffin case, but they failed to get any answers.

At the request of one of the lawyers, who has another case this week, the one-man royal commission inquiry was adjourned by Judge Roger Boissard of Montreal until next Monday.

It got off to a lively start. The case was filled with a battery of lawyers that even Judge Boissard admitted was "imposing."

Several prominent lawyers were present, among them the Donald Coffin, brother of Wilbert Coffin.

Hebert, 41-year-old Montreal publisher whose book "Accused: The Assassins of Coffin" accused Coffin's assassin of the murder. The inquiry was questioned mainly about his source material.

WASN'T AT TRIAL

He testified he had read only parts of the stenographic notes taken during the Coffin trial. He hadn't attended the trial or other stages of the case, and was interested in it after reading various accounts of it in the press.

Hebert said the material was the principal source for the interview in the book.

He said he had interviewed witnesses and detectives, read documents and other material.

Wilbert Coffin, 41-year-old Grand Rapids, Minn., was charged in 1968 for the slaying of Richard Lindsay, 17, of Hollidaysburg, Pa.

Lindsay's body and those of his father Eugene and a friend, Frederick Clark, 20, were found in the Gaspe woods in 1963.

A SCAPEGOAT

Hebert maintained in his book that Coffin was the victim of a search for someone to blame the crime on. The search was conducted by the United States pressure on the Quebec government.

Raymond Daus, Hebert's lawyer, asked why he had not paid closer attention to stenographic notes from the trial source material.

Hebert replied that he was

Concessions Are Urged On Canadians

OTTAWA (CP)—English-speaking Canadians have to make concessions to the French Canadian minority in order to maintain national unity, said commentator Anne Francis today.

In the last report, when the chips are down, the road to Canadian unity can only be paved with concessions, Ms. Francis said in an address to the Women's Canadian Club.

"Most of these concessions will have to come from us, the English-speaking majority."

The answer to the problems of Canada's dual culture was to extend more rights to French Canadians in every province.

"If we take away any rights from the English-speaking Canadians, we will find a cracking Confederation. We must put the emphasis on extending the rights of one group while maintaining the rights of the other."

The women broadcaster urged her audience of 300—which included Olive Diefenbaker, wife of the opposition leader—to put themselves in the place of French-Canadians who preserved their culture and language against tremendous odds. The time now has come for us to make concessions in an effort to understand and sympathize with their point of view.

Francis made the point that a bridge instead of a barrier between us.

1. There would be no difficulty making nine tricks if the spades were divided 2-2. The normal expectancy. In such a case you would make eight or four notrump, depending on whether or not you lost a trick to the queen.

However, the spades are divided 4-1—this occurs in 28 deals out of 100—and some provision should be made to cover this possibility. There is a sure way to guard against a 4-1 division and parrying a 4-1 division is the normal expectancy. It should be played in this hand.

Win the diamond trick by playing a low spade to the ace. Assuming that both opponents follow low, return a low

New Pulp Mill Seen For Issue

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—When the Newfoundland legislature opens March 4, the long-proposed pulp mill is expected to head the list of a number of topics promising a long and lively session.

Although other projects such as hydro-electric plants to be built at Bay d'Espoir and Hamilton Falls will come in for a share of debate, the third mill, besides being a pet project of Premier Joseph E. Smallwood, will be a prime target for the seven-member Conservative opposition in the 42-seat House.

The Conservatives have served notice they will oppose any move by the government to support the project by guaranteeing a bond issue of more than half the total price of the project.

Special Fund On Alcohol Suggested

TORONTO (CP)—Donald C. MacDonald has proposed that brewers and distillers should put $1 into an alcohol adhesion fund for every $1 they spend advertising their products.

Mr. MacDonald, leader of the New Democratic Party, put the suggestion before the chairman of the Liquor Control Board of Ontario, G. Harry Sheppard, at a meeting of the legislature's committee on government commissions.

Mr. Sheppard said it was a different suggestion from any he'd heard before and he would give it some consideration.

The NDP leader said that by having to match advertising costs in a fund to combat alcohol addiction, the producers of spirits would be much less inclined to advertise.

Money would also be provided for alcoholism research and prevention, he said.

Mr. Sheppard told the committee the LCBO is attempting to keep the whole matter of liquor advertising in good taste.
