

The Guardian, Charlotteville, Tues. July 9, 1963.

HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Donald Nicholson, the former Mrs. Dixon, Boston, is celebrating at Arylee Shore. She has as guests her mother, Mrs. Jim Dixon, Rose Valley, and her sister, Mrs. Carmal Woodside, Montreal, with her young son, Donald Dean. Mrs. Nicholson will be joined by her husband July 10.

Mrs. Margaret Parker, Charlotteville, entertained recently for Miss Gloria Stewart, on the occasion of her approaching marriage. Miss Stewart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Stewart.

Mrs. St. Clair Trainor returned from Newfoundland, where she attended the annual meeting of the Atlantic Council of Catholic Nurses held in St. John's, Nfld. She was accompanied by Mrs. W.P. MacMillan.

Mrs. George Campbell, Vancouver, B.C., recently arrived to spend a holiday with her mother, Mrs. Ann Vessey, 22 Green St., Charlotteville. Mrs. Campbell attended the Shaw-Scates Wedding Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. J.S. Tall, daughter, and son, Geoffrey, Toronto, Ont., are visiting Stanhope, guests of Allison Tall.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Woodruff entertained at their home on Westview Drive, North River Road, recently. Lunch was served by Mrs. Edward Lund.

Miss Elinor Kirby, administrator, North Eastern Baptist Hospital, Boston, Mass., accompanied by Miss George Brown, hostess.

Reception At Birch Hill Lodge Follows Summertime Nuptials

The double ring ceremony took place in Trinity United Church, Summerville, on Saturday, June 29, of Norma Rae Harris daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harris, Sherbrooke, and William Lindsay Seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Seaman of Springfield. Officiating was Rev. C.R. Webber, the soloist, Mrs. Cedric Seaman of Springfield sang The Wedding Prayer and The Lord's Prayer, accompanied by Mrs. Eric Shoen.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over tulle featuring fitted bodice, square neckline and lace and sequins trim. As jewelry she wore pearl earrings, a gift of the groom. Her hair, dressed in lily of the valley held a shoulder length veil. She carried a cascade of white shadoks and better time roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Charlotte Wright of Middlewood, wore a street length gown of blue nylon featuring a lace bodice and full length sleeves. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

The best man was Kenneth Moore of Kelvin Grove and the groom was attended by Norman Ramsay of Hamilton and Vernon Harris of Sherbrooke.

For the reception at Birch Hill Lodge the bride's mother received wearing a beige suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The new brides wore a blue line suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

For a honeymoon to various points in the Maritimes the bride chose a blue line suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The new brides wore a blue line suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

It is because he has borrowed money from me, which he possibly isn't able to repay just now? Or maybe doesn't want to? Or is he really interested in me? Or would he visit me at least once a week. I would sacrifice everything to be with him. Does he love me? Or is this just an illusion? And should I forget him? Please advise me. I give me your opinion of our relationship. I am so disturbed.

DEAR J.J.: It seems as plain as day to me that this young man doesn't love you, either romantically or in a fraternal spirit.

Actions speak louder than words, a proverb says. And his actions indicate that he feels actual distaste for your company—recently, at any rate, perhaps especially since he became your debtor.

His assiduous telephone calls suggest that he is cannily exploiting your doglike devotion to him, in terms of keeping you on the edge of a prospective source of additional financial help, in a pinch, while also keeping you on your toes, figuratively, so that you won't be able to get your head patented, figuratively, by any other man (indignantly, as a woman secured) for the return of your money.

I agree with you that if he were really interested in you as a person—with a sense of congeniality, affection, appreciation, admiration, respect, etc.—he wouldn't let weeks pass without writing to you. The fact that true love are brought into being, an assumed only by systematic

Send order to: Guardian Patriot Pattern Dept., 60 Front St. W., Toronto 1, Ontario. Send out 30 design ideas plus coupon for FREE pattern—any one you choose in our Spring Summer Pattern Catalog. Send 50 cents now.

MacPhee Couple Celebrates 25th Anniversary. Relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley MacPhee gathered at their home on Grandville Street, Summerville recently to offer congratulations and good wishes on the occasion of their twenty fifth wedding anniversary.

The guests were welcomed by Hester, Dorothy and Kathleen MacPhee daughters of the celebrants, acting as hostesses for the event.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. MacPhee were presented with gifts by their niece, Paula Cassey on behalf of family and friends. Mrs. George Dunne of Granville cut the ribbons and the names of the donors were read by Mrs. Sheldon Duncan of Charlotteville. The recipients expressed their thanks for the lovely gifts.

A vote of thanks was voted toward committees who handled the anniversary, and Hester, Dorothy and Kathleen MacPhee as hosts.

It was decided to ask Buddy MacKinnon and Jack Peters to place the sign post.

Mrs. Arthur Wheatley invited members to her home for September meeting: lunch committee: Ken Warren, Mrs. Major Moore, Mrs. Russell Wheatley, Mrs. Lawrence Wolcott, Mrs. Norman MacKinnon, Mrs. K. Kison and Mrs. Fulton Warren. Roll call will be answered with exchange of flower slips.

A program conducted by Mrs. Elliot Wright and Mrs. Earl Youker was enjoyed.

Meeting adjourned and lunch was served by hostess and a committee in charge.

at the home of the bride, The tables were tastefully decorated with pink and white mums, flanked by pink tapers.

The hostess table was centered with the three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was decorated with pink roses and white bells.

The mother of the bride wore a broadcote blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother was attired in blue with a lace bolero and a corsage of white carnations.

For travelling the bride wore a brown and beige suit, with beige hat and accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was tendered several showers. She received many useful and lovely gifts.

The young couple will reside in Charlotteville where the bride is employed with the Motor Vehicle Branch, and the groom is employed with the Canadian Coast Guard ship "Wolfe".

Miss Doris LeClair from the W. I. Branch spoke about the embroidered sampler contest.

The nursing home was presented by Mirell W. I.

Mrs. F. L. MacMillan spoke on the nursing handicraft exhibits were then explained by members from Goose River and St. Peter's W. I.

Mrs. Joseph Rooney brought greetings from the provincial executive and spoke on the 50th anniversary of women's institutes on P.E.I. This was followed by group singing.

Miss Carrie Thompson gave an informative talk on remedial teaching.

A short business period followed. Mrs. Shirley Sutherland invited the members to Greenwich for next year's convention. The meeting closed with the Queen A buffet lunch was served and Mrs. R. L. Burge cut the anniversary cake.

SOUTH MILTON W. I. Mrs. W. H. Horne was hostess to the June meeting of South Milton W. I.

The meeting opened with the Ode and Creed followed by roll call. The good thoughts for the meeting was given by Mrs. George MacLeod.

Business connected with the district convention was attended to.

Mrs. Poole and Mrs. Piercy were appointed delegates to the provincial W. I. convention.

The collection for the retarded children's fund amounted to $19.72.

Money was voted for the annual treat for school closing.

Mrs. Neil MacNeill on behalf of the district, and Mrs. George MacLeod, who is soon to leave our district, and presented

MacPhee Couple Celebrates 25th Anniversary

Relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley MacPhee gathered at their home on Grandville Street, Summerville recently to offer congratulations and good wishes on the occasion of their twenty fifth wedding anniversary.

The guests were welcomed by Hester, Dorothy and Kathleen MacPhee daughters of the celebrants, acting as hostesses for the event.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. MacPhee were presented with gifts by their niece, Paula Cassey on behalf of family and friends. Mrs. George Dunne of Granville cut the ribbons and the names of the donors were read by Mrs. Sheldon Duncan of Charlotteville. The recipients expressed their thanks for the lovely gifts.

A vote of thanks was voted toward committees who handled the anniversary, and Hester, Dorothy and Kathleen MacPhee as hosts.

It was decided to ask Buddy MacKinnon and Jack Peters to place the sign post.

Mrs. Arthur Wheatley invited members to her home for September meeting: lunch committee: Ken Warren, Mrs. Major Moore, Mrs. Russell Wheatley, Mrs. Lawrence Wolcott, Mrs. Norman MacKinnon, Mrs. K. Kison and Mrs. Fulton Warren. Roll call will be answered with exchange of flower slips.

A program conducted by Mrs. Elliot Wright and Mrs. Earl Youker was enjoyed.

Meeting adjourned and lunch was served by hostess and a committee in charge.

at the home of the bride, The tables were tastefully decorated with pink and white mums, flanked by pink tapers.

The hostess table was centered with the three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was decorated with pink roses and white bells.

The mother of the bride wore a broadcote blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother was attired in blue with a lace bolero and a corsage of white carnations.

For travelling the bride wore a brown and beige suit, with beige hat and accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was tendered several showers. She received many useful and lovely gifts.

The young couple will reside in Charlotteville where the bride is employed with the Motor Vehicle Branch, and the groom is employed with the Canadian Coast Guard ship "Wolfe".

Miss Doris LeClair from the W. I. Branch spoke about the embroidered sampler contest.

The nursing home was presented by Mirell W. I.

Mrs. F. L. MacMillan spoke on the nursing handicraft exhibits were then explained by members from Goose River and St. Peter's W. I.

Mrs. Joseph Rooney brought greetings from the provincial executive and spoke on the 50th anniversary of women's institutes on P.E.I. This was followed by group singing.

Miss Carrie Thompson gave an informative talk on remedial teaching.

A short business period followed. Mrs. Shirley Sutherland invited the members to Greenwich for next year's convention. The meeting closed with the Queen A buffet lunch was served and Mrs. R. L. Burge cut the anniversary cake.

SOUTH MILTON W. I. Mrs. W. H. Horne was hostess to the June meeting of South Milton W. I.

The meeting opened with the Ode and Creed followed by roll call. The good thoughts for the meeting was given by Mrs. George MacLeod.

Business connected with the district convention was attended to.

Mrs. Poole and Mrs. Piercy were appointed delegates to the provincial W. I. convention.

The collection for the retarded children's fund amounted to $19.72.

Money was voted for the annual treat for school closing.

Mrs. Neil MacNeill on behalf of the district, and Mrs. George MacLeod, who is soon to leave our district, and presented

ELLEN'S DIARY

"The Day Thou gavest" is end of the fragment of verse comes to mind, as here in the quiet of our study-of-sorts, we sit down to write. No fine of fice-chair do we have at our desk, but a light cane-bottomed one that was among the first furnishings of this house. Close by it, and also much favored is an old-fashioned alloy rocker, once the pride of a parlor. It is a restful seat in which to write. And ever since Granddaughter, a little girl first "wondered where you were" and smilingly "found you here" we have had occasion to take one or another across the lane, in their turn, our knee at some time or other, to listen to their troubles, and by its magic, rock away their ills.

Past the window above the desk, stowed not with tidy files, served up in a neat little collection of prized souvenirs—letters and the like pertaining to the life of

STOLE HIS CUFFS OTTAWA (CP) — An embarrassed Ottawa area detective is looking for thieves who stole his service revolver and handcuffs. Detective Len DeGrandpre told the revolver and handcuffs when thieves ransacked his home in Gloucester township Sunday. "If I ever catch them, I'll be using the handcuffs on them," he said.

This morning had carried us through showers to the Island's Belfast, a considerable distance from this farm, it is one however, which in his youth and to visit his folks of the name there, James has more than once driven by horse and wagon. We went to be numbered with that forgoing of women, which is the Annual Presbyterial, assembled there today. It is, as

There was the break for lunch which privileged one to meet others, friend and stranger. To learn the pretty much, I stand over, wokening live lips akin to our own, with the like interests of home and family, of Church and community that are ours.

"And who's been to our house?" we inquired of Peter, in a Mama Bear's voice when we returned home. He grinned. "I was!" he replied. "And who propped open the kitchen (screen) door?" "How could I bring in sticks for you to light your fire with when you came home, if I didn't prop open that door?" he reasoned soberly. "Bliss!" we said.

Morning showers. Some afternoon sun. A fine old church in a beautiful setting. An interested gathering of women. And kindling sticks on the over door, put there not without some planning on the part of the two-pastor, to welcome us home. This was our day.

Until tomorrow — Diary — Good-night.

Ragged Spruces Are Tall In The Bright Moonlight

"The Day Thou gavest" is end of the fragment of verse comes to mind, as here in the quiet of our study-of-sorts, we sit down to write. No fine of fice-chair do we have at our desk, but a light cane-bottomed one that was among the first furnishings of this house. Close by it, and also much favored is an old-fashioned alloy rocker, once the pride of a parlor. It is a restful seat in which to write. And ever since Granddaughter, a little girl first "wondered where you were" and smilingly "found you here" we have had occasion to take one or another across the lane, in their turn, our knee at some time or other, to listen to their troubles, and by its magic, rock away their ills.

Past the window above the desk, stowed not with tidy files, served up in a neat little collection of prized souvenirs—letters and the like pertaining to the life of

STOLE HIS CUFFS OTTAWA (CP) — An embarrassed Ottawa area detective is looking for thieves who stole his service revolver and handcuffs. Detective Len DeGrandpre told the revolver and handcuffs when thieves ransacked his home in Gloucester township Sunday. "If I ever catch them, I'll be using the handcuffs on them," he said.

This morning had carried us through showers to the Island's Belfast, a considerable distance from this farm, it is one however, which in his youth and to visit his folks of the name there, James has more than once driven by horse and wagon. We went to be numbered with that forgoing of women, which is the Annual Presbyterial, assembled there today. It is, as

There was the break for lunch which privileged one to meet others, friend and stranger. To learn the pretty much, I stand over, wokening live lips akin to our own, with the like interests of home and family, of Church and community that are ours.

"And who's been to our house?" we inquired of Peter, in a Mama Bear's voice when we returned home. He grinned. "I was!" he replied. "And who propped open the kitchen (screen) door?" "How could I bring in sticks for you to light your fire with when you came home, if I didn't prop open that door?" he reasoned soberly. "Bliss!" we said.

Morning showers. Some afternoon sun. A fine old church in a beautiful setting. An interested gathering of women. And kindling sticks on the over door, put there not without some planning on the part of the two-pastor, to welcome us home. This was our day.

Until tomorrow — Diary — Good-night.

Crockett & Storey Ltd. Dedicated to Home Improvement

Kent St. Charlotteville

$7.95

JACKSONS

WITH 2 HOSTESS CHAIRS by Kroehler with Frieze Covers

Constructed and upholstered with durable covers to assure years of service and comfort. Coil springs in seat... new clean heavy hardwood frame throughout... factory tested frieze covers... and in handsome decorator colors—Brown, Beige, Turquoise, Persimmon, Green, Gold...

Total Value $67.85

2 Hostess Chairs 1 Hair Dryer FREE

WITH SWIVEL ROCKER and Matching OTTOMAN covered re-inforced fabrilite leatherette all foam cushioning over no-sag neatly tailored it rocks it swivels it tilts it has a large matching ottoman it is delightfully comfortable it does not take up much space

Total Value $97.90

1 Swivel Rocker 1 Matching Ottoman 1 Hair Dryer FREE

WITH 5 Piece KITCHEN SET

All Bronzstone colored frames Arborite topped table Table size 30 x 48 Reinforced covering on chairs to resist tearing or splitting Chair colors combination Beige/Brown Sturdily constructed Smartly styled

Total Value $82.45

5 pc. Kitchen Set 1 Hair Dryer FREE

THE FASHONETTE BEAUTY SALON

Open Every Day Cold Waves Bleaching Tinting Shampoo

Phone 4-9752 257 Grafton St.

MARY HAWORTH Girl Loses Boy's Interest As He Becomes Her Debtor

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am very much interested in a young man who says he is interested in me. We have been corresponding for eight months. He telephones me practically every day but seldom has time to see me, especially recently.

It is because he has borrowed money from me, which he possibly isn't able to repay just now? Or maybe doesn't want to? Or is he really interested in me? Or would he visit me at least once a week.

I would sacrifice everything to be with him. Does he love me? Or is this just an illusion? And should I forget him? Please advise me. I give me your opinion of our relationship. I am so disturbed.

DEAR J.J.: It seems as plain as day to me that this young man doesn't love you, either romantically or in a fraternal spirit.

Actions speak louder than words, a proverb says. And his actions indicate that he feels actual distaste for your company—recently, at any rate, perhaps especially since he became your debtor.

His assiduous telephone calls suggest that he is cannily exploiting your doglike devotion to him, in terms of keeping you on the edge of a prospective source of additional financial help, in a pinch, while also keeping you on your toes, figuratively, so that you won't be able to get your head patented, figuratively, by any other man (indignantly, as a woman secured) for the return of your money.

I agree with you that if he were really interested in you as a person—with a sense of congeniality, affection, appreciation, admiration, respect, etc.—he wouldn't let weeks pass without writing to you. The fact that true love are brought into being, an assumed only by systematic

MR. AND MRS. LEWIS WARD Double Ring Ceremony Held At Holy Redeemer Church

A pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride, The tables were tastefully decorated with pink and white mums, flanked by pink tapers.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS Institutes' Anniversary Subject At Convention

The North Kings No. 1 District Convention was held at the Holy Name Hall in June with Cable Head East W. I. holding the delegates.

The meeting opened with the Ode and Creed followed by roll call. The good thoughts for the meeting was given by Mrs. George MacLeod.

Business connected with the district convention was attended to.

Mrs. Poole and Mrs. Piercy were appointed delegates to the provincial W. I. convention.

The collection for the retarded children's fund amounted to $19.72.

Money was voted for the annual treat for school closing.

Mrs. Neil MacNeill on behalf of the district, and Mrs. George MacLeod, who is soon to leave our district, and presented at the home of the bride, The tables were tastefully decorated with pink and white mums, flanked by pink tapers.

The hostess table was centered with the three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was decorated with pink roses and white bells.

The mother of the bride wore a broadcote blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother was attired in blue with a lace bolero and a corsage of white carnations.

For travelling the bride wore a brown and beige suit, with beige hat and accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was tendered several showers. She received many useful and lovely gifts.

MOON BLANKS SUN

A solar eclipse occurs when the moon passes directly between the earth and sun and the eclipse is visible only along a 65-mile corridor.

134 Kent Street Dedicated to Home Improvement Phone 894-5559