MR. AND MRS. RAY LeBERT MACHON

Double Ring Ceremony Unites A Happy Couple

A very beautiful wedding took place at the Murray Harbour North Presbyterian Manse on November 29th, 1958, when Joyce Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ibert McLeod, Murray Harbour North, P.E.I. became the bride of Ray LeBERT, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Machon, Montague, P.E.I.

The Rev. Carl M. Currie performed the double ring ceremony. The bride was dressed in a beautiful floor length gown of white tulle and net over satin with long sleeves coming to a point at the hands. Her finger tip veil of lace illusion fell from a sequin trimmed pill box style tiara and she carried a cascade bouquet of Sweetheart roses and rose buds with white satin streamers.

Miss Myrtle McLeod, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a shrimp ballerina length gown of nylon net over tulle with matching bolero and slits. Her headdress was a white tulle bandeau and white accessories. She carried a bouquet of yellow, white and mauve mums with white satin streamers.

Mr. Fred Landrigan, friend of the groom, was best man. Mrs. McLeod chose for her daughter's wedding a blue suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of white mums.

The groom's mother wore a grey suit with navy accessories and wore a corsage of white mums. A wedding reception was held at the Bison restaurant, Montague, for 48 guests. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The room was beautifully decorated with a Christmas tree and white wedding bells and streamers.

The happy couple left on a motor trip through the Maritime provinces. For travelling the bride chose a blue dress and black coat with white fur collar and black and white accessories. She wore a corsage of white mums. Mrs. Roy McLeod was in charge of the guest book. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carver, Saint John, N.B. Mr. Leith Graham, H.M.C.S. Crusader, Halifax, N.S.

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of the bride's parents on December 5th when she received a number of lovely gifts. The gifts were opened by Miss Myrtle McLeod and Miss Betty McLure and the verses were read by Mrs. Weir McLure. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies.—Photo by J.C. Cudmore.

Miss Madelyn Clarkin Heard At West Royalty W.I.

Beautiful and instructive slides of European countries shown by Miss Madelyn Clarkin, made the December meeting of West Royalty Women's Institute one of the most interesting meetings of the year. The exchange of Christmas cards, regular business and correspondence filled the remainder of the evening. Plans for a community party were discussed but not finalized.

As the next regular night of meeting fell on New Year's Day it was decided to meet on Jan. 8 at the home of Mrs. Irwin Millar with Adah England, Margaret Hurry, Enid Hurry and Margaret Hurry as lunch committee.

New Year Message—Know, Do And Love God's Will

"A Happy New Year!" the words continue to be heard these days. They come to lips, to fall lightly, sincerely, in the hope of promise of "the untrod way" of the new days ahead.

Whether the expected calf would arrive in time to belong to the Old Year, or would it be a first babe of the new? Well, in any case, he nodded smiling, "it will be good to see."

And what of the New Year's message? "I asked the New Year for some message sweet, Some rule of life with which to guide my feet. I asked and paused, he answered soft and low: 'God's will to know.'"

Will knowledge then suffice, New Year? I cried; And ere the question into silence died. The answer came, "nay, but remember too, God's will to do."

One more I asked, "is there more to tell?" And once again the answer sweetly fell. "Yes! this thing every either thing above: God's will to love."

Mr. and Mrs. T. Roy Cudmore are entertaining at a supper party this Saturday evening at their home, Pownall Street.

Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Rix entertained last Saturday evening at a dinner party held at their home, Goodwill Avenue.

Mrs. E.S. Chandler entertained at her home, North River Road, at a neighborhood tea on Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Welner, Junior, entertained friends from eight until ten at their home, Ambrose Street, prior to the New Year's eve dance at the Charlottetown Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Fielding, West Street, spent Christmas in Amherst with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fielding.

Mrs. Albert Nolan, Bonnahinley Apartments, Longworth Avenue, has returned from Moncton where she attended the wedding of her sister, Miss Lydia Kijte and Mr. Hervey Boyd at Saint Augustine's Church on December 29th.

Miss Patsy Shaw and Miss Wayne MacDonald were hostess at a pre New Year's party at the MacDonald residence, Fitzroy Street. The Christmas decorations were most artistic and had been made by the young hostesses.

The party certainly was a "Young and Gay" as the majority of the guests were home from various colleges on holidays. Later they went on to the dance at the Queen Charlotte High School.

Miss Patricia MacDonald, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wendell MacDonald, Charlottetown, and Miss Alice MacCallum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard MacCallum, Brackley, who have been spending the holidays with their parents, have returned to Acadia University.

Mr. and Mrs. Leith Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Douglas, who spent Christmas with their parents, have arrived safely in Ithaca, New York.

Miss Freda Richards, employee of the Bell Telephone Co., St. Thomas, Ontario, arrived by plane to spend the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F.A. Richards, Mt. Mellick.

Miss Patricia Clark, North Bedouque, spent the New Year's holiday in Halifax.

Miss Gayle MacWilliams who is with the Civil Service in Ottawa, returned to Ottawa Saturday, December 27, after spending Christmas week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd MacWilliams, Carleton Siding, and grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacWilliams, Cape Traverse. She was accompanied by Miss Janet Dalziel of Charlottetown, who is with the Rankine Hardware Co.

Miss Lois Muttart also spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Muttart, Albany,
