He is the youngest son of the late Justice Haliburton, the famous "Sam Slick." After trying law he entered the commissariat and served in it in Montreal and various parts of Ontario. He rose to be assistant director of supplies and transports at the War Office, evincing administrative powers of a high order. His services in connection with the Ashanti and Zulu campaigns won him a C. B., which afterwards became a K. C. B. ### William II's Toad Talisman.

The house of Hohenzollern possesses a family talisman. Since the time of the Elector John Cicero, who flourished toward the end of the fifteenth century, each ruler has, when possible before dissolution, handed to his successor a sealed packet. This contains a ring in which is set a black stone said to have been dropped by a huge toad on the coverlet of a princess of the family just as she had given birth to a son. Frederick the Great found the ring in an envelope, which also inclosed a memorandum written by Frederick I, stating its value and its mode of transmission. Schneider, the librarian of William I, declares that he saw the packet handed by Geiling, the treasurer, to his royal master on accession, and further asserts that he read his account of the talisman to the emperor, who fully confirmed it.—St. James Gazette.

Not Much to Be Proud Of.

Clara—I wonder how Mrs. Youngling can have the face to always keep boasting about her family.

Gladys—Why? I thought she pretended that her ancestors were good people.

Clara—So she does, and yet she admits that one of them came over with William the Conqueror. I've just been reading about that crowd, and, goodness, but they were a hard lot!—Chicago News.

MOTORMAN O'REILLY CASE.

He was Cured of Diabetes by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Everything else Failed.

TORONTO, May 30.—(By Telegraph.) With reference to his experience with Dodd's Kidney Pills, and Diabetes, Mr. T. H. O'Reilly, Toronto Street Railway motorman No. 624, writes corroborating the report of his cures.

Mr O'Reilly says:—"For three years I suffered horribly, in spite of all the medicines I tried. Not one of them gave the same relief. I endured the torture of scalding pains while urinating, and all the other agonies of diabetes.

"Finally I was induced to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial. The very first dose did me good and I got better and better with each succeeding dose. Three boxes worked a thorough and complete cure."

DOES THE EMPLOYMENT OF LABOR

BENEFIT A COMMUNITY?

OF COURSE IT DOES

D. A. Bruce employs more people manufacturing custom and readymade clothing than all the staff of the largest dry goods house in the province (possibly twice as many). He is prepared to give employment to three times the number if a more liberal patronage is extended in the purchase of home made clothing. He is confident he gives better value than any importing clothier, who merely acts as a middle man between the foreign manufacturer and local consumer, taking his money and sending it abroad to pay for foreign labor. The product of the local manufacturer should have preference --it's the best.
