

THE BYE-ELECTION.

First District of Queen's County.

HON. WILLIAM CAMPBELL UNANIMOUSLY NOMINATED.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting held here of the delegates of the Liberal-Conservative from the several polls in the First Electoral District of Queen's County, Mr. William Campbell, from New London, was unanimously nominated to contest the district in the interest of the Liberal Conservative Party at the coming election. Several spoke, showing up in a very clear manner the extravagance, blundering and deception of the present government.

Mr. William Campbell spoke hopefully and confidently that if the party would work actively in the short time allotted, he shall win a triumphant victory on the 31st inst. ANGUS LAMONT, Sec'y.

"This is no death,"
What seems so is transition,
This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life Elysian
Whose portal we call death."

Had Madame Bernhardt chosen to devote herself to literature, the Home Journal says, she would have been a great writer. Witness, for instance, the following letter for correction which she lately had occasion to send to the dramatic reporter of Le Figaro:

"London, July 2.

"My dear Friend:
"I learn from you that I am going to Germany. I learn from you that I have the honor to know the sculptor Begas, I learn from you that Emperor Wilken takes an interest in my dramatic performances, as you yourself have learned all this from a Berlin newspaper. Learn, then, from me that I am not going to Germany, that I do not know the sculptor Begas, and that I shall never have, on any occasion, the honor to be presented to his majesty the Emperor William, King of Prussia."
"Sarah Bernhardt."

OBITUARY.—The funeral took place yesterday of Eva, daughter of Mr Robert Drake, of West River. Miss Drake was in her twenty-second year and had been ill for nearly three years. Her death is regretted by very many friends. The death occurred yesterday at Pleasant Grove of Maria Ellen, beloved wife of Wm Crockett. She leaves many relatives and friends in town and country who sincerely mourn the loss they have sustained.

A COWARDLY ATTACK.—This is an example of the kind of treatment luckless strangers are apt to meet with at the hands of certain individuals in this city. On Saturday evening a Russian named Peter, who is employed by Peake Bros., & Co., was passing W. W. Clarke's office when he was suddenly attacked by a young man who struck him with his fists and twice kicked him in a most fiendish manner. The poor creature then attacked made an attempt to strike back at his assailant, but uttered inarticulate cries for help. A citizen—Mr. Henry Hughes—ran to his assistance to protect him, but the wretch who commenced the attack did not cease even then, trying to kick and strike his victim. Nor was this all. A friend of the assailant—an equal coward with himself—took off his coat to have a hand in beating the helpless sailor, but fortunately by this time enough people had arrived to stop the fight. The frequency of occurrence of such affairs is getting to be insufferable, and people living in that neighborhood earnestly hope that an example will sometime or other be made that will prevent such outrages in the future.

BAPTIST CONVENTION.—A special to the Guardian says that the Maritime Baptist Convention opened at Amherst, Saturday, at 10 o'clock. There were in attendance 500 delegates. The convention promises to be one of unusual interest. The meeting of the B. Y. P. U. and the Baptist Institute were held Thursday evening and Friday. P. E. Island is represented in the institute by Rev. C. W. Corey, of Charlottetown, as President, and Rev. D. Price of Tryon, as first vice-President. Papers of a high order were presented at the institute by Rev. A. C. Chute, of Halifax, Rev. D. Price, of Tryon, Rev. W. N. Hutchins, of Canning, and Rev. W. Crisp, of Sussex. The institute proposes to establish a minor school of theology. Dr. Chivers' presence at the B. Y. P. U. meetings added great inspiration to the occasion. Judge Emerson, of Sackville, was elected president. I. J. Yeo, of Charlottetown, is transportation leader for P. E. I. and R. E. Jenkins, associational secretary. The Maritime Convention appointed Rev. J. C. Spurr, of Alexandria, P. E. I., president. Arthur Simpson, Cavendish, and Rev. E. J. Grant, of Summerside, represent the Island on the nominating committee. Rev. H. Carter is first vice-president of the B. Y. P. U.
