UPEI Students to Rally Against GST

Quotes

"The strain of under-funding on students has translated into sky-rocketing debt loads. As default rates rise, the Government's response is to tack on a 3% administrative fee."

Jane Arnold

Chair Canadian Federation of Students

January 1990

"We (Department of Employment and Immigration) estimate that two-thirds of all jobs created in Canada during this decade will require more than 12 years of education and training. Many of these jobs will demand at least five years of education and training beyond high school."

Rally!! Rally!! Rally!! Rally!! Rally!! Rally!! Rally!! Rally!!
Buses leaving at 12:10 and 12:25 PM
Bring a friend, bring your mom
Bring your little sister and brother
Bring your neighbour to Province House Friday, April 6th.

Barbara MacDougall
 Minister of Employment and Immigration

February 9, 1990

"The government-

ment actions against funding for education indicate a philosophy dedicated to the dismantling of the national post-secondary education system. In its place, the government wants to see a return to full funding for education by the provinces, corporations and higher tuition fees."

Chris Axworthy, MP

NDP Critic for Post Secondary Education

March 14, 1990

"This rally will show that students are willing to take a stand against the deterioration of the quality of our educational system in Canada and to gain support of Islanders for adequate and proper funding to our educational institutions."

Lisa Murphy
 President UPEI Student Union
 March 1990

It's your education!!!!
Show you care - be at the rally !!!

Buses will be leaving UPEI at 12:10 and 12:25 to take students to Province House.
