LONDON, Sept. 21 - (Reuters) An unemployed bricklayer today was jailed for two years for attacking a Conservative member of Parliament with a knife. The bricklayer, Gordon Norris, 36, had income tax grievances. During an interview with Geoffrey Hutchinson, his member of Parliament, he pulled a knife from his sleeve and lunged at Hutchinson. Hutchinson received a slight cut on his shoulder.

Farewell Party At Montague

A very enjoyable evening was spent on Wednesday when members of the Y.F.S. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, and friends of Miss Anne MacEachern, Montague, tendered her a farewell party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reid, Montague.

The beginning of the evening was enjoyably spent when every one joined in a lively sing-song led by Rev. Mr. Young, with Mr. Carl Currie at the piano. Later in the evening Miss Victoria Walker read the address, while Mr. Charles Fraser presented Miss MacEachern with a beautiful travelling clock on behalf of the young People's Society in which Miss MacEachern took an active part.

Following this Mr. Malcolm MacKenzie read the address and Mr. Sam Reid presented Miss MacEachern with a very lovely fountain pen on behalf of the Sunday School of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in which she also took an active part.

Miss MacEachern then fittingly thanked everyone for the beautiful gifts she had received. Following this a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Malcolm MacKenzie and Mrs. Sam Reid, assisted by Misses Enola MacKenzie and Phyllis Reid. After lunch a short time was spent in social conversation after which Mr. Carl Currie led in prayer, and all joined in singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Montague Legion Auxiliary Meets

The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, Montague branch, was held in the Legion hall Monday evening Sept. 18th, with the vice-president, Mrs. Catherine Stewart, presiding.

The meeting opened in the regular form, followed by the roll call which was answered by sixteen members. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Lillian MacDonald, and approved as read.

The financial report was read by the treasurer, Mrs. Hattie MacKenzie, and it included a very encouraging statement in regard to the Legion banquet, at which the Auxiliary catered during the annual Legion convention, September 4th.

Plans were made for holding a social evening in the Legion hall, Monday, September 25th, and the necessary committees were appointed. A committee with Mrs. Hattie MacKenzie as convener, was appointed to purchase dishes, and other articles at their earliest convenience.

As there was no further business to be brought before the meeting, it was moved that the meeting be adjourned.
