Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dingwell, New Glasgow, have had the following guests during the past few days: Mr. and Mrs. M. MacDonald and daughter, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. D. Brenton, St. John, N. B.; Mr. James Dingwell, East Point; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barrett of Sackville, N. B., and Mr. and Mrs. M. Maxwell, Sackville, N. B.

In loving memory of our dear Mother,
MRS. MICHAEL McCaughey, who died August 16th, 1941.

A precious one from us is gone,
 A voice we loved is stilled;
 A place is vacant in our home,
 Which never can be filled.

No one knows the silent heartaches
 Only we who lost can tell,
 Of the grief that comes in silence,
 For the one we loved so well.

Days of sadness still come o'er us,
 Tears of silence often flow,
 But her memory keeps her near us,
 Though she died ten years ago.

Sadly Missed by Sons and Daughters.

The first step is to report to your doctor. Any sore which will not heal, of the skin or of the mouth.

Of all forms of cancer the most easily cured is cancer of the skin.

Early treatment enhances the effectiveness of surgery and radiotherapy.
