P.E.I. Pony Association" was chosen for those present. The next meeting will be held at the YMCA Dec. 2 at 7:30 p.m. when further details will be discussed.

The aims of the organization include pony show racing and racing under saddle for children. These events are to be grouped as to size of ponies and the age of their drivers.

The meeting was under the chairmanship of E. Frank Acharn, and Mrs. Ida Yeo acted as secretary.

Officers elected were: president, Ralph MacGuigan; Charlottetown, vice president, Shirley Burke, Charlottetown; secretary, J. W. I. Waits, Waverley; directors: Pope Thorne, West Valley; Tommy Burke, Charlottetown; Gordon Cooper, Southport; Stanley Mayhew, Kingsport; Ivan Turley, Waverley; Nadine MacLachlan, Charlottetown; Judy Cole, Milton; Richard MacGuigan, Parkdale.

CAR RECORD EXPECTED British car manufacturers predict that 1964 will be a record production year with the number of units approaching 2,000,000.

Genève appears to be a highly volatile character whose latest oratory often has seemed aimed at inspiring his listeners to savagery against all white men.

Genève calls his forces the People's Liberation Army, which is what China calls its armed forces. The regular soldiers have seemed fairly well disciplined but the many irregulars often were wildly unrepentant. Sometimes the authorities had to disarm them.

Genève, who uses the Communist title "comrade" is chairman of what is called the "Lumumba Congo pro-National Movement," after Patrice Lumumba, the pro-Communist Congo leader, murdered in 1961. He is also chairman of the "Congoese Committee for National Liberation."

Genève's army leader had been Gen. Nicholas Olenza. He was reported killed in fighting recently, but the rebel denied it and produced his voice on a radio broadcast.

When Genève set up his government in September, his aides included such men as Gaston
