

HON. PAUL Martin, federal minister of external affairs, spoke in O'Leary last night following a reception at the Legion Home in Summerside yesterday afternoon. On his arrival at the Legion Home, Mrs. Alden P. Mulligan, President of the P.E.I. Liberal Women's Association, pinned a rose on his lapel. Mr. Martin spoke briefly to the large audience at the reception and said that the "nation is dedicated to the cause of peace". He also spoke on behalf of Liberal candidate J. Watson MacNaught, whom he accompanied to the reception.

Causeway Will Be Monument To MacNaught, Martin Says

O'LEARY — This election is taking place at one of the most prosperous periods in Canada's history, the Hon. Paul Martin, minister of external affairs, stated at a Liberal meeting in O'Leary last night in support of Prince County candidate J. Watson MacNaught.

The gross national product, the wealth of the country, has now reached the amazing figure of $61,000,000,000, up 9 per cent in the last 12 months and there is less unemployment than in any previous period, Mr. Martin continued.

Two million spent on the runways at the Summerside RCAF Station, he said has helped lower this province's unemployment level to its lowest point.

"You are going to have a causeway," Mr. Martin continued, "which should stand as a living monument to the efforts in Ottawa of Mr. MacNaught. The causeway, a major engineering achievement, will do more to stimulate the economic growth of Prince Edward Island than anything else since Confederation, the minister predicted.

The Atlantic Development Board, providing for primary expenditures, all weather highways, a major development in Georgetown, an Irish moss plant in Miramichi, one million for roads to fishing communities, paid entirely by the federal government, crop insurance by 1967, were some of the achievements of the present Liberal government described by Mr. Martin to an audience of approximately 400 in the O'Leary Regional High School auditorium.

"P.E.I. led all other provinces in use of the student loan and established by the Liberal government," Mr. Martin said. "It was a Liberal government that raised the old age pension to $75 and lowered the age limit to 65 and in co-operation with the provinces, necessary cases will receive up to $100, and even higher."

The overriding reason for this election is to obtain a majority government for Canada, and I believe we will have a majority Liberal government after Nov. 6," Mr. Martin predicted.

"We must bring about an end to war as an instrument of foreign policy," the minister said, in a brief reference to foreign affairs. "We have sought to improve our relations with the United States, Great Britain and other countries. Canada's armed forces are not waging war but are engaged in peace-keeping operations throughout the world for the United Nations and I am very proud of that fact," Mr. Martin said.

"Mr. Martin is a world figure and one of the ablest orators in Canada, Mr. MacNaught said in the course of his introduction of the guest speaker. "A former secretary of state, minister of health and welfare and now secretary of state for foreign affairs."

The Conservative's promise of $100 a month for pensioners, later changed to aged 65 is not a carefully worked out policy of the Conservative party but thought up between trains by Mr. Diefenbaker," Mr. MacNaught said, "when asked where he would get the money the Conservative Leader said he would take it out of the Canada pension plan. Contributions to this plan are made for a specific purpose and cannot be used for any other. Quebec is not in the plan and therefore does not make contributions and should not share in contributions made by the other provinces."

Other speakers were Mrs. Alden Mulligan, president of the P.E.I. Liberal Women's Association; Robert Campbell, M.L.A., and Prosper A. Arsenault, seated on the platform were Frank Jardine, M.L.A.; Alec Campbell, M.L.A.; Russell Perry, president of the West Prince Liberal Association; and Raynald MacNeill, Chairman of the meeting was Harry MacWilliams. Lunch was served by the Tignish Liberal Women's Association.

Region Vice-President of CN. This is the big news for P.E.I. in the new CN timetables which come into effect Sunday as clocks return to Standard Time. Due to the revised bus schedule, Islanders will be able to travel westwards on both the Ocean Limited and Scotian from Amherst, taking up to three hours and 10 minutes less to make the journey to Montreal than was possible last winter. There will also be the usual train connection with the Ocean Limited between Charlottetown and Moncton.

TRANSFERR TO FRANCE BELLEVILLE, Ont. (CP)—Air Commodore R. J. Lane, commanding officer at Air Transport Command, at nearby Trenton, will be transferred early next year to No. 1 Air Division at Metz, France, it was announced Tuesday. Air Commodore Lane will be succeeded by the former commanding officer at Trenton, Air Commodore G. G. Diamond, 50, of Vancouver.

Nothing else about you is at once so versatile and so distinctively yours. It reveals much to a job interviewer or a psychologist. In November Reader's Digest read how your "voice box" functions, its split-second operation controlled by your brain... and about the new voice-operated door lock: it opens only if you say "Open, Sesame!"

PERFORM FRIDAY On Thursday, the company will travel by bus to Charlottetown and the windup date to the tour Friday and Saturday. "As You Like It" will be presented opening night and Tunnel of Love on Saturday.

CONFEDERATION CENTRE THEATRE box office advises that excellent seats are still available, though demand has been brisk this week and is increasing daily. Series ticket sales for Autumn Showcase '65 have been particularly encouraging, the box office reports. Apparently discount prices for series tickets and the guaranteeing of good seats are proving attractive selling points.

UNICEF Callers Come Saturday

Some of the witches and goblins on your doorstep Oct. 30 will be concerned with more than just filling a bag of goodies. Carrying a black and orange UNICEF carton, they will be asking for your contributions of pennies, nickels and dimes for children in developing countries. UNICEF is the United Nations Children's Fund, an arm of the UN expressly dedicated to promoting the health, welfare and nutrition of the world's children. The pennies collected are used, along with voluntary contributions from governments, to control and wipe out diseases such as tuberculosis, malaria, leprosy and trachoma. This means setting up public health services.

A country's agricultural methods are studied, improved and added to, with the purpose of bringing a satisfactory standard of nutrition to the entire country. Food processing plants are built and the standards of living are raised so that other services can be paid for. UNICEF money collected at Hallowe'en goes to the International UNICEF budget. Hallowe'en is not only a night for fun and frolic but also an occasion for sharing Canadian good fortune with those who have so little. International UNICEF works for the development of "the whole child," his health, welfare and education, particularly in less developed countries.

Students Plan Public Forum

The problems facing higher education in Canada today will be discussed by five speakers of a Saint Dunstan's University-Prince of Wales College public forum scheduled for Saint Dunstan's gymnasium at three o'clock this afternoon.

The announcement was made last night by Thomas MacMillan, chairman of the Canadian Union of Students at SDU. Guest speakers include Rev. E.J. Roche, head of the mathematics department at SDU; Dr. J.A. MacMillan, member of the Royal Commission on higher education for the province; Dr. B. O'Grady, head of the English department at SDU, and Dr. George Dewar, minister of education. A fifth speaker whose name was not confirmed last night is expected to be a member of the PWC faculty.

This program is a project of Saint Dunstan's University Students' Union as a member of the Canadian Union of Students in co-operation with Prince of Wales College.

This joint program is being carried out in co-operation with other universities in Canada which are today observing National Student Day.

Charles Praught, centre, and Dr. R.D. Drysdale, right, were members of a panel which discussed problems of diabetes and hopes for the future at last night's meeting of the Charlottetown branch of the Canadian Diabetic Association. President Stewart Ives is at left. Dr. K. Ross Parker, the other panelist, was not present at the time the picture was taken.

The accused was not fined due to the dislocation of a speed sign in the Vernon River area. The following were each fined $10 and costs or four days: Frances Joseph Dennis, Charlottetown, inefficient eye light; E. Augustin Redmond, Lake Verde stop sign; Albert Allison Sturdy, Charlottetown, inefficient equipment; Douglas Dawson Kitson, Charlottetown, speeding.

Dealing with children's cases Dr. Parker noted that in his cases the co-operation and the care exhibited by the mother and father — he put the father second in importance — are important, as well as that of the child.

The diabetic child, Dr. Parker suggests, should be made to realize that he is a person with a problem, but one with certain limitations. But a child can expect a normally healthy adulthood if the condition is properly controlled in the period of youth, he told the theatre which was filled to capacity. The children affected can live a normal life within their limitations, Dr. Parker had explained. TAUGHT EARLY Turning to preventive measures, the doctor urged that is a family with a diabetic history, the children should be checked periodically for diabetes. Constant vigilance should be exercised and the affected child should be taught early to live a carefully regulated life. And this is the responsibility of the parents, it was explained.

END PLANE SEARCH WINNEPEG (CP)—The RCAF has called off a search for a float-equipped Norseman aircraft which disappeared in northern Manitoba 11 days ago. The Norseman carried only the pilot, Fred Green, 33, of Chamby, Que. The Norseman disappeared on a 30-mile flight from Angling Lake to Savage Island about 300 miles north of Winnipeg.
