

While much of the interest aroused in the active militia in Charlottetown as far back as the '90s stemmed from the spectacular shooting by the Artillery Companies, which brought fame to the Province in Dominion-wide competition, other branches of the service were equally successful in their own field.

This was particularly true of the Charlottetown Engineer Company which invariably received the stamp of official approval on their time of annual inspection which followed a winter of conscientious training under competent instructors at the Drill Shed.

Mrs. Colin MacKenzie Re-elected President

The annual Meeting of the M.W. Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Jack MacKenzie with 13 members present.

Meeting opened with the president presiding. Institute ode was sung followed by the Creed. Roll call was answered by each member paying 10 cents, making a sum of $2.40.

Minutes of last annual meeting and last month's meeting were read and approved.

The president gave a short address and thanked all the members who helped her in any way to make the year a successful one. The financial report for the year was given by the secretary. It showed a good increase in funds.

Election of officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Colin MacKenzie, re-elected; vice president, Mrs. Jack MacKenzie, re-elected; secretary, Mrs. Nelson MacDonald, re-elected; Sick, Mrs. Campbell MacLeod, Mrs. Preston Gillis, Mrs. Percy MacKenzie, re-elected; School, Mrs. William MacRae and Mrs. Archie Campbell, re-elected; Auditors, Mrs. Murdoch MacPhee, Mrs. Albert Pauley, re-elected.

It was moved and seconded that a vote of thanks be extended to Mrs. Percy MacKenzie for making and donating a quilt, and won by Mrs. Pete Brad. A card of thanks was to be sent to Miss Florrie MacKenzie, for a good donation at our supper. Mrs. Colin MacKenzie had a ticket article won by Miss Faye Clow.

Next meeting to be held at Mrs. Colin MacKenzie, ticket article by Mrs. Nelson MacDonald, Lunch Committee, Mrs. Omer Ferguson and Mrs. Earl Clow, Mrs. J. J. Gillis and Mrs. P. J. Emery. Meeting closed by the queen after which lunch was served.

Parkdale W. I. Has Leadership Course

A leadership course for Women's Institute officers was held in Parkdale Hall on Nov. 29.

Mrs. David Mutch was appointed chairwoman for the meeting. It was moved and seconded that 50 cents per institute would be paid to Parkdale for the use of their hall. Following this each lady present stood and introduced herself.

Miss Teresa MacLeod, supervisor, was welcomed to P. E. I., and all institutes were requested to co-operate with her in her work wherever possible. Miss MacLeod outlined some discussion techniques. She mentioned the Panel discussion, Symposium, Lecture method and Group Discussion. The latter method was demonstrated when questions regarding Farm Forum were discussed.

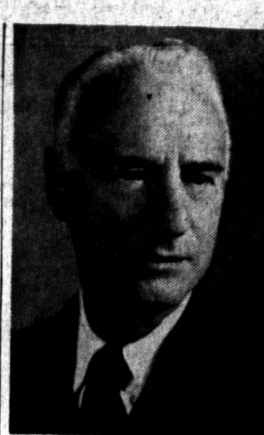

She also mentioned that the deadline for Program Planning competition is January 31. Three prizes will be given for artistic appearance, how well the programs can be used, and how seasonable they are. Two copies of the program are to be sent to the Women's Institute Office — one to be judged, and one copy to be passed on to other institutes.

The history of the F. W. I. C. and A. C. W. W. was given by Mrs. Murdoch MacGowan.

Following a short sing-song a report of the Program on Education Study was given by Mrs. Alison MacMillan. Mrs. Doyle congratulated the 100 institutes who sent in helpful replies on Education.

Mrs. Julian Herring advised all presidents to read the Women's Institute Handbook, and to pay particular attention to the yellow activities talk program. She requested all institutes to write her, telling of interesting items for Roll Call, and ideas for raising funds, so that these ideas may be passed on to other institutes.

Following a short recreation period there was a demonstration —

W. I. Leaders Speak At Leadership Course

A Leadership Course for W.I. officers were held in Crapaud Hall, Tuesday, Nov. 27, with nine in attendance. Mrs. Frank MacLeod, was chairman for the afternoon. Miss MacLeod, the new Supervisor, gave a talk on the different Discussion Techniques, namely, Panel, Symposium, Lecture and Group Discussion. The latter was carried out by a discussion on Farm Forum. This was followed by a sing song.

Mrs. Herring gave an address on Parliamentary Procedure for conducting meetings. She stressed that it was an honour to be elected President; the president should have the meetings planned ahead and it should be a three part programme — business, educational and social. She also advised having Local Conventions to correspond with Provincial Conventions from whom they could receive help.

Older Residents Are Honored By The W. I.

An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCallum, Brackley Point, on Thursday evening, Nov. 22nd, when the older residents of the district were honored at a dinner given by the women's Institute.

Those present were: Mrs. Robert Shaw, Mrs. J. A. McCallum, Mrs. Lewis McCallum, Mrs. Colin McLure, Miss Lucy McLure, Mrs. Alexander Seaman, Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes, Mr. Cleve Robinson, Mr. Herbert Stewart. It was noted that several invited were unable to attend.

When all were seated at the table pictures were taken in color film by Mrs. Gordon Shaw.

After the delicious meal had been partaken of the Institute members circled round the table and drank a toast to their seated guests. This was proposed by the president Mrs. Fred Hughes. In responding, Mrs. Colin McLure beautifully thanked the members for their kindness. She expressed the hope that in the years to come they would find pleasure and happiness in carrying on their good work for home and country.

The roses which had adorned each place-card on the table were pinned on each guest before leaving the dining-room. Old and young then gathered round the fire-side in the spacious living room where pleasant social intercourse wiled away the remaining hours of the evening.

Thanks was expressed to Mr. and Mrs. McCallum for the use of their home for this occasion.

Mrs. Arthur MacLean Is Elected President

The annual meeting of the Glen Valley Women's Institute was held on Nov. 7th at the home of Mrs. Alton MacLean. The president Mrs. John Nicholson presided. Meeting opened with Ode, followed by the Creed in unison. Roll call was answered by ten members. There was one visitor present.

Minutes of last regular and last annual meetings were read and adopted. The president thanked all who helped make the meetings a success during the year. The treasurer gave her report showing a successful year's work.

Committees gave their reports and new ones were appointed—School, Miss Audrey Cameron; Sick, Mrs. Alton MacLean and Mrs. Cyrus Martin; programme, Miss Audrey Cameron and Mrs. Arthur MacLean.

Correspondence was read and discussed. It was moved and seconded that all bills be paid. Mrs. John Nicholson and Mrs. Arthur MacLean were awarded prizes for perfect attendance.

The following officers were appointed for the coming year: President, Mrs. Arthur MacLean; vice-president, Mrs. Allan MacDowell; secretary, Mrs. John Nicholson; treasurer, Mrs. Alton MacLean; auditors, Mrs. Ivan Frizzell and Mrs. Cyrus Martin; directors, Miss Audrey Cameron, Mrs. Norman MacDonald and Mrs. Vernon Gillis; conveners, Mrs. Sterling MacLean, Mrs. Roy Frizzell and Mrs. Hensley Higgins. Press secretary, Mrs. Elton Hicks.

Mrs. John Nicholson invited members for next meeting. Roll call is to be answered with exchange of Christmas gifts.

Meeting closed with the National Anthem. Lunch was served by hostess, assisted by Mrs. John Nicholson. A social hour was enjoyed by all.
