Small Garden Planning For The Sun

Space Problems

SOLVED BY AIDING VEGETABLE TO GROW IN AIR.

Economy of space becomes more and more of a pressing problem as gardening interest and enthusiasm increase. A gardener each year becomes more ambitious to grow more crops. For this reason we find more and more frequently that cucumbers are given a chance to grow in their natural manner as climbing vines and tomatoes are trained upright to single stems.

Pole beans are growing in popularity because of the smaller space and much greater yield to be had from a hill of pole beans. The latter has the advantage of coming into crop earlier. Even the dwarf peas, given the support of a narrow length of chicken wire to support their climbing nature, are found to do better and to give more ample space for companion crops to be planted between the rows and come on after the peas have gone their way.

Dwarf peas, allowed to sprawl over the ground, will cover 2 to 3 feet of space. Six inches with a wire support will be their ample ground area. Tomatoes may then be planted between the rows or later root crops, which the peas are allowed to ramble all over, would seize upon their tendrils and soon convert into a tangle.

It is advisable to save room for superior quality crops to grow in or trailing, vegetables in an upright position. Poles and wire can be obtained very reasonably and once obtained, if given ordinary care, can be used for several seasons.

Cucumbers and pole beans may be grown as sunny porch vines as a novelty and for utility, having the crop where it can be picked from the back porch. The fine quality greenhouse cucumbers are grown on strings running vertically from the soil to the roof. They grow equally well trained the same way out of doors.

Be on the lookout for trellis materials and plenty of stout string.

Tourist Travel To Jamaica

MONTREAL, April 28—Returning here after an absence of about two years at his post in the Caribbean, Thomas Cree, district manager of the Canadian National Steamships at Kingston, Jamaica, is now in the city on a business trip and visit, accompanied by Mrs. Cree. He stated that he is particularly happy as a result of the considerable increase in the passenger traffic business handled by the Canadian National Steamships between Canada and Jamaica. Mr. Cree also stated that the banana production is rapidly getting back to normal after the storms last fall which affected so many of the crops and this year will see the usual quantity of fine bananas coming up to Canada, which is a large consumer of this product.

Jamaica is becoming increasingly popular for summer and winter vacationists, many of whom have made the trip several times on the "Lady" cruise liners," stated Mr. Cree. "More and more people each year include Jamaica in their holiday plans, due to the recommendations passed around by satisfied passengers and the many enjoyable facilities found on the Island. I believe if more Canadians knew the beauty of Jamaica and its wonderful climate, and realized the opportunity it offers for a complete vacation, more of them would make an annual trip there. Jamaica has about all the attractions the modern tourist can desire. There are dude ranches, horseback riding on beautiful trails, mineral baths, motoring on splendid roads among the mountains, fresh and sea-water bathing, golfing, fishing and a variety of gorgeous scenery which is unexcelled anywhere.

"As a result of these attractions, the past winter has been the best tourist season Jamaica has ever experienced, passenger traffic on "Lady" cruise liners during the first three months of this year showing an increase of 22 per cent over the similar period of last year, which in turn showed an increase over the previous year.

"Tourist authorities in Jamaica are now preparing for a bumper summer and fall season. Many people are now realizing that with its varying altitudes and climates, Jamaica is an all-year-round vacation resort. With a variation in temperature of not more than eight degrees throughout the year, people are now spreading their vacation trips to cover the spring and fall months, when passenger traffic is not so heavy as during the summer and winter seasons," concluded Mr. Cree.

HE RETURNED PIPE GIVEN BY THE KING

ST. MARK'S, Man. April 28—A promise is a promise to 71-year-old J. B. Lavallee, but the veteran hunting guide sighed recently as he thought of the pipe which he kept his word to the King.

The King, the Prince of Wales, came to Manitoba in 1919. Guided by Lavallee, His Majesty went shooting among the marshes near this Lake Manitoba hamlet.

As recognition of his services, Lavallee was presented by the King with a monogrammed pipe and case. But he asked that when he became King it be returned to him.

The aged guide treasured the pipe, but mindful of his agreement has returned it.

"and this spring and summer promise to be a particularly popular one for the 1,000-mile scenic St. Lawrence route on the way to the southern colonies of the Caribbean." Passengers from Montreal, Quebec, Ottawa, Toronto, Stratford, Detroit and Chicago are making reservations for this voyage and it is anticipated that the list will include many others from various other parts of Eastern Canada and the United States.

"An additional inducement for early travel to the southern resorts is the Spring honeymoon period, in connection with which we are granting a reduction of ten per cent to newly married couples and those celebrating their silver or golden wedding anniversaries," stated Mr. Eke. "Last year honeymooners commenced their voyages early in the season and it looks as if each of our cruise ships from Montreal will carry particularly large numbers of newlyweds on every voyage during April and May when the special concession is in effect, these months being as favorable as any for a cruise to the British West Indies, since the temperature down there varies very little throughout the year."

HEAVY SPRING AND SUMMER TRAVEL TO WEST INDIES

MONTREAL, Que. April 28—Many passengers are booked to sail on the cruise liner "Lady Somers" from Montreal on the evening of April 29, which will mark the opening for this season of the Bermuda and Jamaica services of the Canadian National Steamships," according to Victor E. Eke, passenger traffic manager of the company.

A Friend to the Aged As the Years Creep On

In the later years of life we start to lose that snap and vigor of our younger days. The blood does not circulate as it once did, the vitality is on the wane, and the nerves not just as steady as they used to be.

Little sicknesses and ailments seem harder to shake off; and evidences of a breakdown begin to appear.

Faces Trial In Supreme Court For Extortion

18-year-old Summerside Youth Charged With Serious Offence Before Magistrate Strong.

Thomas Brewer, 18-year-old Summerside youth, yesterday was committed by Magistrate E. H. Strong to stand trial in Supreme Court on a charge of extortion. Information against 17-year-old Donald Steele who had been held on the same charge was withdrawn at the request of Crown Prosecutor L. G. Lewis.

The boys had been arrested after Carl Delaney, Summerside merchant, received letters threatening robbery or burning of his store unless he placed $50 behind a local stable at a designated time. Chief of Police Percy Kinch appeared in civilian clothes and made the arrests as the merchant was handing over a parcel containing marked bills to Steele.

Steele at the preliminary hearing yesterday testified he had innocently delivered notes from Brewer to the merchant and was acting upon Brewer's request to "see if that was Carl Delaney" behind the stable when Chief Kinch seized him. Delaney had handed him a parcel but he knew nothing of what it contained, he said.

Carl Delaney told the hearing he had first received notes threatening damage to his store unless he left $50 at a given place. A phone call followed and a voice he said he thought he recognized as Thomas Brewer's instructed the merchant to pay over the money or take the consequences.

The merchant said he told the party on the telephone he would not make payment and the reply was: "Alright, take what you get."

Brewer is not represented by counsel. He offered no testimony.
