ARE WE GIVING YOU WHAT YOU WANT?

We really want your feedback. We are your newspaper and to be accountable to you we need to know what you want in your paper. Please take the time to send us an e-mail message telling us what you want (account name XPRESS) or fill out the questionnaire in this issue of the paper and drop it in our mail slot in our door (Main 06). Let us know what you want or else we'll never know! We take your opinions seriously and hope to get some good ideas from you.

This year we've had a few changes at the X-Press. We now have two people at the top. Me, the Content Editor, Rebecca Moore and the Managing Editor (in other words our business manager) Carol A. Schneider. This arrangement was made to help produce a better quality paper that better serves the needs of you-- the student body.

Another staff change is the addition of a Sports Writer. We recognised the importance of sports at UPEI and realised that it is one area that often gets neglected in the X-Press. If you have any scores you want published or maybe have an interesting idea for a story contact our Sports Writer, Scott MacDonald (often seen frequenting the Sports Centre).

We had a few budget cut backs this year (surprise, surprise) so we had to cut two issues each semester. Consequently we will not be publishing an issue the last week of September, or during the month of December.

Deadline for submissions will be Thursday at 5pm -no exceptions. We have a strict deadline at our printers and if we are accepting late submissions it jeopardizes our chances of making the printer's deadline. Any submissions received after 5pm Thursday will be put in the next week's paper. We accept submissions sent through e-mail as WordPerfect attachments and we will love you forever if you bring in your submission on disk. You can pick up your disk any time on Fridays.

For those of you who would like to volunteer drop down to the office anytime to just hang around or ask questions, or call ahead to make an appointment with either myself or Carol and we'll show you around. Our meetings are held every Tuesday night at 6:00 and we provide free pizza and pop for all who attend (beats the old Kraft Dinner stand-by). We'd love to see some new faces around here and look forward to some fresh new ideas.

*Take care and have a blast,
Rebecca and Carol*

While you are sitting here, idly reading this, your main competitor is calling the X-Press to place their ad. As a result, their business booms due to the patronage of our thousands of loyal readers while your business sinks slowly but surely into oblivion.
