O'Leary and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Warner Buchanan (nee Miss Doris MacLellan) returned last week from their honeymoon trip to points in N.S. and N.B. They are residing at Unionvale, about one mile from O'Leary.

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, September 29th, at the O'Leary United Church, Manse, when the Minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson, united in the bonds of holy matrimony Miss Alice Lena MacFadyen of Inverness, P. E. I., and Mr. Ralph Howard Murray, of Northam. The witnesses were Mrs. R. Reeves of Ellerslie and Mr. Henry M. Boyle of Portage.

Miss Blanche Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Matthews, O'Leary, who has been employed with the Bank of Nova Scotia in Truro, N. S., spent the week-end at her home and left Monday morning, October 1st for the Summerside branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia to which she has been transferred. Miss Matthews is a graduate of the O'Leary School. Her brother, Allan, was formerly employed with the Bank of Nova Scotia in Truro, N. S., but is now stationed with the Bank of Nova Scotia in the Nation's Capital, Ottawa.—AZ.

Commencing Monday, October 1st the three higher rooms of the O'Leary School (the senior, the junior and the intermediate) began their annual two-weeks pot-digging vacation in which the children are needed at home during the busy potato-digging harvest. Most of the children work in the potato fields and earn enough for their school books, clothes, etc. The primary room will hold classes this week but will probably close the next week. The School opens the latter part of August and so gets in its 200 teaching days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Champion and children of Berwick, N. S., were week-end visitors to O'Leary and left on Monday, October 1st, to return to the Annapolis Valley town where Mr. Champion is the Electrical Superintendent. He is a former resident of O'Leary and for many years operated the Champion Electric Light Plant at O'Leary until its destruction by fire about three years ago with an estimated loss of over twenty-five thousand dollars. Mrs. Champion visited her parents, Hon. Forrest and Mrs. Phillips at Mount Royal, and her sister, Mrs. Beecher Smallman of Knutsford.

There was a very large attendance on Sunday morning, September 30th, in the O'Leary United Church, when the congregation combined with the teachers and officers and children of the Sunday School in the Rally Day service. The Superintendent of the large Sunday School, which has an enrollment of one hundred students, Mrs. Lewis Bernard, presided. The special children's story was read by Miss Hester Boates. A children's choir with Billy Matheson as organist led in the service of song and a special anthem, "The Missionary Society." The responsive reading was taken by Mrs. Errol Stetson. The scripture was read by Mrs. W. G. Dickson. Prayer was offered by Mrs. R. F. McAusland. A fine duet was sung by Mrs. Earl Palmer and Mrs. Clayton Stetson. A splendid offering for W. M. S. work was received. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Dickson.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A K E
L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, spot-trophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

L A H G M C S J G T J E G S T A C I U A N
M P H G G I U G B W T I U P T T S N G H D
M C I N, W T I U A E E V M N I G H N, W G
P H G D A E E G.

Yesterday's Cryptogram: "HAPPY LONG LIFE," WITH HONOUR AT THE CLOSE, FRIENDS, PAINLESS, TEARS, THE SOFTENED THOUGHT OF FOLKS—LOWELL.
