By JOHN YORSTON
MONTREAL (CP) — Archie Moore breezed into Montreal Wednesday and proclaimed himself Canadian heavyweight boxing champion.

Recalling some of the seven Canadian fights he's had, the world light-heavyweight champ, his eyes atwinkle, said: "Say, I beat Parker didn't I? I guess that makes me Canadian champion."

Told that young George Chuvalo of Toronto is Canadian heavyweight champion, Moore shrugged his shoulders and declared: "Chuvalo'll have to fight me."

Dick Sadler, Moore's trainer during the past year, said: "We've done all the work. We'll just keep training him. Maybe we'll stop training on Monday."

S' side Captures Gaboury Trophy

The Summerside curling rink is the new holder of the Gaboury Trophy. The 2 teams representing the S' Side Club garnered the most points to lead the other three clubs participating in this annual competition, at the Charlottetown Curling Club.

There has been an annual bonspiel for this trophy since 1929 and the defending champ was the Charlottetown Club.

The Summerside teams skipped by Gerry Hayes and B. MacWilliams racked up a total of 49 points followed by S' Side RCAF with 43. Charlottetown was next with 35 points and Montague with 24.

Alberton, due to the bad road conditions in that section of the province, was unable to participate in this year's bonspiel.

Here are the members of the competing rinks:
Summerside — No. 1 — B. MacWilliams, J. Harris, E. Cameron, and A. Campbell; Summerside No. 2 — Gerry Hayes, C. Ives, C. Ramsay and W. Riehl.
