Football Activity

THERE'S no football either in the Big Four or the WIFU until Saturday when six teams jump into action in games that have a big significance on the standings on eastern and western teams.

The Ottawa Rough Riders, fresh from their dramatic 28-27 triumph over Hamilton Tiger-Cats last Saturday invade Winnipeg for a struggle with the defending Grey Cup champion Blue Bombers.

But Grant's men were dealt a crippling blow by Montreal Alouettes last Sunday and the Rough Riders just might be able to cause the Bombers real anxiety. The situation isn't at all rosy for Grant and the Winnipegers need victories or they might find themselves buying tickets to the western play-offs later this fall.

Montreal goes to Edmonton and we predict that Jim Trimble and his outfit will conquer the Eskimos in this outing. Trimble has the Montrealers really on the move and they should be able to take care of the Albertans come Saturday.

One of the greatest tussles is to be played at Calgary where the Stampeders host the vastly improved Saskatchewan Rough Riders, Stamps, Lions and Rough Riders are showing great class this season and this affair Saturday in Calgary should be one of the sternest battles of the present campaign.

Alouettes Visit Lions

SUNDAY afternoon Toronto Argos put out the welcome mat for Hamilton Ticats and Monday night the Alouettes play the Lions in Vancouver. There's a good chance that another record will go by the boards as far as attendance is concerned Last Monday the Lions packed more than 36,500 in Empire Stadium, the largest crowd in Canadian football history. Out there just about everybody is a football fan and they are all hoping that their Lions will be one of the teams in the Grey Cup classic this fall.

This meeting next Monday in Vancouver could be a rehearsal of The Grey Cup classic. Right now it doesn't sound too silly to mention the Lions and Alouettes as strong possibilities for that big battle.

IT'S a good thing for Canadian football that the lesser lights of these past several years are beginning to show more ability these days, Gone are the days for trampling underfoot the Lions and Alouettes. Saskatchewan Rough Riders, not taken too seriously the past few years, are roaring this season. Calgary Stampeders and their ardent followers think the marbles are theirs, this fall. Hamilton Tiger-Cats in the east still feel that, with a healthy Faloney, they will still emerge as the top team. Undoubtedly Bud Grant's Blue Bombers are maintaining they will shake off their early season troubles and once again become the terror of the west. Ottawa, Toronto and Edmonton at times are showing signs of capabilities. The trouble with them is that they don't show them often enough.

Having Their Troubles

PITCHERS Maloney, Ellsworth, Koufax, Marichal, Ford, Spahn, Peters, Monbouquette are having great years for themselves in the major leagues. They'll long remember the 1963 season as one in which fortune smiled on them. All these hurlers have compiled great records and undoubtedly they'll improve them some before the curtain falls on the regular schedule.

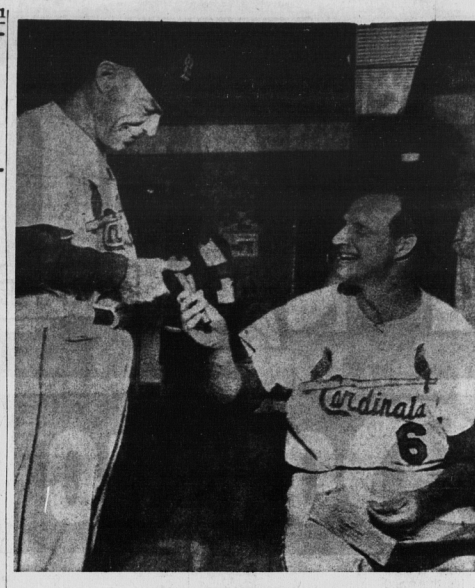
However, others will remember 1963 for a different reason. It was the season they flopped miserably. In this category are fellows like Joey Jay and Bob Purkey of Cincinnati Reds, Their failure has cost Reds dearly and robbed them of a chance for the pennant, Billy Pierce of the Giants and Bill Stafford of the Yankees are two more moundsmen who failed to impress this season. Both were top performers in 1962 and Pierce was one of the main reasons why Giants made the world series instead of the Dodgers.

But that's the fortunes of baseball and these hurlers may yet stage a comeback in the next season.

Thanks, Jim

WE completely forgot the 1959 playoff between Milwaukee Braves and Los Angeles Dodgers when talking about tight pennant races the other day. We also had Cards and Dodgers in two playoffs against each other, It should have been one, in 1946.

Our thanks to Jim McCallum for bringing this to our attention.



GRANDFATHER STAN

Stan Musial passes out a cigar to St. Louis manager Johnny Keans before game after the Cardinal star became a grandfather for the first time. Musial's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Dick Musial, gave birth to a seven-pound, 15½ ounce boy early Tuesday at the Fort Riley Hospital in Kansas where Dick is stationed in the army. Musial celebrated the event by hitting a homer his first time at bat in the game against the Chicago Cubs.

Montreal Retains Only 12 Of Last Season's Players

By JOE DUPUIS

MONTREAL (CP) — Montreal Canadiens, third - place finishers in the National Hockey League last season, opened an eight-day training camp at the forum Wednesday with at least five key positions on the team to be filled.

For the once - powerful Canadiens, it was an unusual position having to find faces for so many spots. About 60 players—only 12 of them holdovers from last year—were in camp.

Conspicuously missing was masked goalie Jacques Plante, and wingers Don Marshall and Phil Goyette, traded to New York Rangers last year in a sensational deal for goalie Gump Worsley.

Missing too was rugged defenceman Lou Fontinato, who broke his neck last winter and is through with hockey; and rearguard Tom Johnson, a 13-year veteren with Canadiens now with Boston Bruins. Johnson injured his eye last year, and there was doubts he would ever play hockey again.

Veteran left winger Dickie Moore, who announced his retirement earlier this year when the Canadiens' threatened to trade him, skated with the team but was non-committal about any plans of returning.

MOORE'S OUT THERE

"He's out there isn't he," coach Toe Blake said, "that's all we want." General-manager Frank Selke Sr. said Moore hasn't been approached yet about signing.

Big Jean Beliveau, who said he put in a hard, busy summer as a Quebec City brewery representative, reported at his playing weight but skated only briefly.

Winger Gilles Tremblay underwent two groin operations during the summer but said he was "feeling fine."

Vice-president Ken Reardon, said the Canadiens would have to fill positions left vacant by the departure of Plante, Goyette, Marshall, Fontinato and Johnson.

Worsley, of course, is a certainty to start the season as the team's regular goalie. But both Cesare Maniago and Charlie Hodge, substitute goalies last season, will be fighting for the job too.

Training gets serious today with the camp divided into four teams for four daily workouts. The Canadiens play their first exhibition game Sept. 20 at Washington against Baltimore Clippers.

PLAY 11 EXHIBITIONS

They are listed for 11 pre-season exhibitions, eight against American League teams and three against Omaha, their new Central Pro League farm team.

The Canadiens picked up five new players Tuesday in a trade with Springfield Indians — defencemen Ted Harris and John Chaszewski and forwards Terry Gray, Bruce Cline and Wayne Larkin.

Harris, 27, rivalled Marc Reaume for the outstanding defenceman vote in the American League last year Grey, a former Canadiens' recruit, scored 25 goals with Quebec Aces last year.

Other prominent newcomers are Dave Balon, Leon Rochefort and Len Ronson, acquired from New York.

Chance For Pennant Excites (?) NY Fans

By JIM BECKER

NEW YORK (AP)—This town has been gripped with pennant fever.

After a wait of nearly 12 months, New York Yankees are about to clinch the American League pennant. You can almost feel the excitement in the air as the Yankees drive on toward the flag.

Fans who have waited patiently since last October for a pennant are starting to stir. There are plans to celebrate the momentous event by printing stories about it in all the newspapers in eight-point type.

To sample some of this fever of excitement, an AP reporter interviewed a number of people standing in the long line waiting to get into the Radio City Music Hall.

"The magic number is four," the reporter said to a lady with sore feet from New Jersey. "What do you think of that?"

"If they think I'm going to wait four hours to see Doris Day they're crazy," she said. "Charlton Heston, maybe, but Doris Day, never. Two more hours and if I'm not inside I'm going down the street to see Ben Hur again."

The reporter spotted a neatly-dressed father in line, holding a baby in his arms and another by the hand.

"The Yankees are about to clinch the American League pennant," the reporter said. "Are you excited about it?"

"What'd you say? Here, hold the baby," he said to the reporter. "We'll be inside pretty soon and then you can go," he said to the little girl.

"The Hankes are going to win the pennany any day," the reporter said.

"You mean they don't always win?" the man asked.

"No, not always," the reporter said, drying off his notes and handing back the baby.

The reporter moved along the line to a young man with a sports section under his arm.

"Are you excited about the end of the season?" the reporter asked.

Spill, Large Payoff Mark S'side Races

SUMMERSIDE — Mile and three-quarter mile dashes were featured at the races at Summerside Raceway last night, and the biggest surprise among a lot of exciting heats was the dash won by Lady Mark, Wallie Walfield of Summerside's mare, in the third race of the evening. She paid $104.00 for a win ticket. The daily double paid $8.70, the exactor $27.40, and the two quinellas $24.00 and $9.20.

In the second race Mighty William going around the first turn fell and Mr. Gallon crashed into her, smashing the sulky and injuring Lester Jenkins, Mighty William's driver. Mr. Jenkins had a cast on his leg before entering the race, and the cast was broken and his leg re-injured. L. Neill, the other driver, was unhurt and raced Mr. Gallon to a win in their next dash.

Ron MacArthur won the first dash of his short racing career, bringing Rudy Frisco home in front in the ninth race in the time of 2:19 4/5.

Island-Owned Spensive Spud Faces Top Field

SYDNEY (CP) — Edgewood Hedrick, owned by the West River Stock Farms of Antigonish, N.S., drew the favored inside rail post position for the second annual running of the Glace Bay Rotary Club Invitational Pace which will be raced here tonight.

The Hedrick horse, winner in the half of the C.C. Cruickshank Memorial at Sackville Downs three weeks ago, will face seven other starters the top purse of $1,500.

Edgewood Hedrick, Spensive Spud and Newport Frisco are the lone outside horses in the field of eight starters and face Cape Breton's best in Dance Me Loose, Star Haven, Ebens Ace, Noral Hal C., and Highland Lad.

Spensive Spud is owned by Stanley Mayhew of Kinkora, P.E.I. while Newport Frisco has been racing out of Sackville Downs this season.

Charlottetown - owned Dominion Byrd won this event last season.

Angels Take Victory To Stay In Series

The Guardian Angels, fighting to stay alive in the Commercial League softball finals, came up with a convincing 8-3 victory over Johnny's Kingfishers last night at the Old Diamond. The Kingfishers, however, still lead the series three games to two.

The Angels got off to a flying start as they scored five runs on six hits in the first inning. They picked up two more in the second and their final came in the sixth.

The Kingfishers picked up their first run in the third inning and rounded out their scoring when Porky Johnson hit a two-run homer in the bottom of the fifth.

Ralph Kneebone was the winning hurler as he pitched a neat five-hitter over the seven inning route. George "Butch" Ward went the distance for the losers giving up 11 hits while walking none and striking out none.

The big stickers for the winners were Don Rogers, George Whitlock and Ralph Kneebone, each having a two for four night with Rogers picking up a double.

Berman "Porky" Johnson was the top man for the Kingfishers as he poled his second home run in as many nights. He also had a single for a two for four summary.

The action continues tonight at the Old Diamond at 6:30.

Loop Finals On Tonight

Tied at one game each in their best-of-five series for The City Baseball League crown, Rovers and Stars renew their action this evening at Memorial Field.

Rovers took the opener behind Billy Weatherbie and Don MacLean hurled Stars to their 6-4 equalizer Tuesday evening. It will likely be Weatherbie again for the Rovers this evening and don't be surprised if MacLean is in there again for the Stars.

Once again players and officials are urged to be present so as the game can get going promptly at 6 o'clock.

Good Race Card Is Going Tonight

Great racing is expected tonight at Charlottetown Driving Park where nine dashes comprise the classy looking program.

Heading the list are dashes five and nine with six starters. Claude Murphy takes his great little Anthony L., away on the rail and they should have trouble with the 13-year old horse with that choice spot. Anthony's opponents are Bobby Brook, Jolly Dick, Sunny King, Ellen Joyce and Boomtown. Any of the half dozen has a perfect license to head the summary and there's a better than even chance you will not see a double dash winner in this event.

Races four and eight give good promise for those who like plenty of action. Harold Stead has the number 1 position with the much improved trotter, Zither. The enemy forces are made up of Concept, Callie Hal, Scottish Light, Cyclone Kelly and Dennis Herbert.

There are two other double dash features and one single battle, all of which seem certain to be full of excitement.

First dash goes at 8 o'clock.

Bag Limits Released For Game Birds

The following are the open seasons and regulations governing the shooting of migratory birds in P.E.I. for 1963.

The open seasons will be: Ducks (other than Wood Ducks) —Sept. 30 to Dec. 7. Geese (other than Brant) — Sept. 30 to Oct. 7, Brant — Oct. 28 to Nov. 23, Wilson's Snipe — Sept. 30 to Oct. 31, Woodcock —Sept. 30 to Oct. 31. All dates are inclusive.

Bag limits in any day are Ducks (exclusive of Mergansers) 8, Geese 5, Wilson's Snipe 8, Woodcock 8.

Possession limits, Ducks 12, Geese 10, Woodcock 16.

Migratory game birds may be possessed in P.E.I. from the time they are lawfully killed to the following March 31.

Congratulations, Smitty

Congratulations to Earl Smith for annexing yet another crown, the men's championship of the Summerside Golf and Country Club.

Earl was down four points to Otto Furchak at one stage of the game, but you never can count Smitty out. He's one of those rare specimens who can get off the floor and punch out a victory. He could set a large table with the cups he has won down through the years. Tennis, badminton, bowling, basketball, golf. Those have been his sports, and we think he would have been just as good in baseball, softball,or hockey if he had chosen to play those games.

Good Brand Of Ball

We watched seven innings of the game at Bonshaw between the home Bearcats and Summerside's Enman Drug Softball team. A head wind coming in from centrefield kept the power hitters from exploding their bombs, but the game was well played, and Bonshaw has a really formidable team.

The score was 1-0 for Enman's up to the sixth inning, and finished 4-1. Gumps Gay put on quite a show for the spectators on a fly hit to left field by Bonshaw's catcher, Jim McLeod. Gumps caught the ball just as he was run into by the centrefielder. The collision caused him to juggle it and he fell down still juggling, but finally caught the ball. It was an act which Ed Sullivan might be glad to have on one of his Sunday shows.

Softball Supremacy

We can't tell how Summerside will do in the baseball play-offs (they've won one Island championship at least one as we write) but there isn't any doubt about the strength they have on softball competition.

Senior "A" — MacKenzies by default. Intermediate "A" RCAF defeated BIS from Charlottetown. Intermediate "C" — Emman Drug are one up on Bonshaw. We won't count those chickens yet, though they are pipping the shell. Intermediate "D" — Johnson's Sheet Metal defeated O'Leary.

It could be a clean sweep.

We think the RCAF Eagles should get the prize for improvement in softball this year. They always had a smooth (perhaps the smoothest) fielding team, and their hitters kept getting better and better as the season progressed. In their semi-final and final play-offs they won seven games and lost one, with a clinching 11-1 victory over MacKenzies to close the skein. They defeated BIS two games to one, and if they don't spring some surprises over on the mainland, we'll be surprised.

P.E.I. Athletes To Take Part In N.S. Meet

TRURO (CP) — The Truro branch of the Royal Canadian Legion will hold a track meet here Saturday, its second this season.

About 140 athletes, including several from New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, are expected to take part.

MANY HAVE CARS

Of the 2,800,000 families in Sweden, 941,692 have cars and 45,976 have two or more cars.

Legion Juveniles Cop Island Title

The Prince Edward Island juvenile baseball crown belongs to Charlottetown's Canadian Legion team masterminded by Charlie Ryan.

The capital city boys won the championship last evening at Memorial Field when they blanked Summerside Junveniles 10-0 in the second game of a best-of-three series.

A week ago young Mike Kelly took the mound at Queen Elizabeth Park in Summerside and hurled a masterful one-hitter which the Ryanmen won. Last evening it was the Morell youth again taming the westerners in uncertain fashion.

This time Kelly got the shutout this first triumph was 9-1 at Summerside) as he fired a superb three-hitter at the visitors.

There was never again doubt about the outcome as the Legion boys went to work early and kept adding to their lead with real regularity. Meanwhile Kelly was mean as they come and the Summerside lads never once got a chance to get started. Paul MacWilliams was the loser, staying around until the seventh when the Legion accounted for five big runs. The winners got single tallies in the second, third and sixth, two in the eighth and five big markers in the uprising in the seventh frame.

Freddy MacDonald, Wayne MacDougall and Billy Weatherbie all had two hits in four appearances.

The Charlottetown juveniles, many of whom were on last year's Maritime midget championship outfit, will now tackle mainland opposition in an effort to bring the three-province crown to the Island capital.

Race Record Falls For 2 Year Olds

MONCTON (CP) — A Maritime race record for two-year-old fillies was set here Wednesday by Peggy Gallon, a brown youngster owned by Herb Wisener of Pictou, N.S.

Peggy Gallon won two races — one of them in 2:10-5 to break a record that had stood for about 30 years. Track officials were unable to pin down the date but the record had been held by Vol Rida who was clocked in 2:12 1-4 (CCT) in the 1930's at St. Stephen, N.B.

Peggy Gallon won her second heat in 2.13. Wiesner did the driving himself.

Stonedale, owned by Elmer Bragg of Collingwood, N.S., continued to set a tremendous clip at Brunswick Downs.

Stonedale's victory in the second half of the feature was his fifth win in six starts at the Downs. The time was 2.08. War Cry Ranger won the first half of the feature in 2.09 1-5.

Other winners were Carol Ann Volo in 2.13 4-5, R. S. Time in 2.16 3-5, and Federal's Last — who won two races, both in 2.10 2-5.
