

PARTY LEADERS COME TO AGREEMENT

Opposition Leader John Diefenbaker is followed by Prime Minister Pearson as the two men proceed to the House of Commons in Ottawa Thursday. In the House Mr. Pearson announced that the party leaders had agreed to take the flag debate out of the Commons and submit the issue to a committee. The announcement followed a meeting of the five party leaders earlier in the day. A rightist is Paul Champagne, assistant to Mr. Diefenbaker. CP Wirephoto)

Cancel Queen's Visit Opinion Is Reiterated

FREDERICTON (CP)—Michael Wardell, publisher of the Fredericton Gleaner, has reiterated his opinion that Prime Minister Pearson should cancel next month's visit to Canada by the Queen. Mr. Wardell replied in a statement to comment by Mr. Pearson in the Commons Tuesday that he considered language the publisher used in a CBC radio broadcast about the visit as "extravagant and indeed extreme."

"What did I say?" Mr. Wardell asked in his statement. "That all Canadians have a terrible responsibility for the Queen's visit. That threats have been uttered and hostile demonstrations planned. That there can be no protection from the ferocity of an assassin prepared himself to die. That it is the earnest hope of most of us that the Queen's visit at this time be cancelled."

"The Queen is advised constitutionally by the prime minister of Canada in all matters relating to her visit to Canada. Only he can make the decision to

Separatism Or Associate Status Is Dismissed

QUEBEC (CP) — Maurice Lamontagne, secretary of state of Canada, has dismissed separatism and associate status for Quebec and said co-operative federalism remains the best formula for the province's economic and cultural expansion.

Mr. Lamontagne said at a press conference he could not conceive of separatism in Quebec without a lower standard of living and an important drop in foreign investments. On the other hand, if Quebec were an associate state within Confederation, it would experience greater difficulties than it has now, he said.

Co-operative federalism was the best formula. But he said it is still too early to make a judgment on this policy since it has been in effect for only a year.

FIVE DIE IN PLANK

MANILA (AP)—A U.S. Navy patrol plane with 13 airmen on board crashed in the South China Sea Tuesday, the U.S. Navy announced Wednesday. A spokesman said five men were killed and the others were rescued. The plane, a twin-engine P-2 Neptune, was on an operational patrol navy authorities said.
