OBITUARY

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

JOHN McKEARNEY

The many friends and relatives in Mt. Stewart and elsewhere were deeply grieved to learn of the passing on Jan. 13th, of John McKearney, a highly respected resident after a lengthy illness.

John was an employee of C.N.Rys' for thirty-two years and was awarded Imperial Service medal by his majesty King George VI for long and faithful service. Upon retirement on Nov. 17, 1950, he took up farming which was prematurely ended by illness that did not respond to best medical skill and nursing and frequent periods of hospitalization. After three years it became necessary for his removal to Prov. nursing home where he was capably nursed by the efficient staff. On Dec. 9, he sustained a fractured hip which proved too much for his already weakened condition, and fortified by the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church administered by Rev. Fr. MacDonald he calmly breathed his last. There are left to cherish his memory his wife the former Florence MacDonald, eight daughters and three sons. Viz Vivian, Mrs. C. Alderson, London, Ont. Cost Of Institute Said $1,700,000

Total cost of the Vocational Technical Institute has been estimated by the department of education at $1,700,000.

The statement was tabled in the Legislature in answer to a question from J. George MacKay.

Tradesmen chosen for vocational instructors in the Charlottetown school will be given their vocational teacher training in the New Brunswick Institute in Moncton.

The minister said this co-operative effort would save each of the provinces financially and contribute greatly toward a uniform standard with the other Canadian provinces working under the Technical and Vocational Training Assistance Agreement.

The development of hybrid corn has given yields on an average 50 per cent higher than ordinary varieties.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late John McKearney wish to express their sincere thanks to all those who sent Flowers, Mass Cards, Messages of Sympathy, Enrollments, Letters or helped in any way in their recent sad bereavement.

The Rock of Ages

THE CROSS stands after twenty centuries. The monuments of tyranny and evil lie in crumbled dust around it but the Cross with its meaning of faith, hope and love, stands taller and stronger than ever...a beacon to all mankind.

The teachings of the Prince of Peace have more meaning today than ever before and the Cross, symbolic of these teachings, has become a sign of triumphant victory.

May the strength of this Rock of Ages be yours in this glorious season and continue in your life in all the days ahead.

This is our Easter wish for you, your loved ones and your friends.
