Tribe Sweeps Twin Bill; Braves Crush Giants 10-3

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Belting relief pitcher Bud Daley for four straight singles and two runs with two out in the eighth inning, Cleveland Indians edged New York Yankees 3-2 in the rain-interrupted first game of a doubleheader Wednesday.

Rain forced postponement of the other American League afternoon twin - bill at Boston, between the Red Sox and Detroit Tigers.

At New York, starter Jim Coates had matched Cleveland's Pedro Ramos in a 1-1 pitching duel until rain temporarily halted the game for 31 minutes. Daley, a lefthander, succeeded the right handed Coates in the seventh and the Indians knocked him out in the eighth on successive singles by Tito Francona, Willie Kirkland, Johnny Romano and Woody Held for two runs and a 3-1 lead.

The Yanks got one run back on Roger Maris' 30th homer in the eighth. Gary Bell then relieved Ramos and held the Yanks.

Mickey Mantle's single scored Bobby Richardson from second for the other New York run in the first inning. The Indians tied it up in the fourth on Francona's triple and Kirkland's fly.

In the second game, a 12-hit attack, highlighted by Willie Kirkland's three-run homer carried the Tribe to a 9-5 win over the Yanks.

TIGHTENS RACE

The double loss further tightened up the three-team race for the pennant, cutting the Yanks' first-place margin to 2½ games over Los Angeles and Minnesota, both scheduled to play Wednesday night.

The Indians got off winging in the second game with two runs off rookie Jim Bouton in the second inning and forged ahead 5-0 on Kirkland's homer in the third.

Barry Latman, was the winning pitcher. He is now 6-11.

Singles by John Romano, Bubba Phillips and Jerry Kindall and a squeeze bunt by Latman produced the first two Cleveland runs and Kirkland knocked out Bouton when he hit his 19th homer, following a walk and Tito Francona's bunt single. Cleveland nicked Bob Turley for two more runs in the sixth without a hit on two hit batsmen, an error and two walks, one with the bases full, and netted single runs off Turley and Tex Clevenger in the seventh and eighth.

Roger Maris of the Yanks had a homer in each game, giving him 31 for the season.

GIANTS CLOBBERED

At San Francisco, home runs by Hank Aaron and Lou Johnson featured a 16-hit bombardment by Milwaukee's Braves that shelled the second-place Giants 10-3.

While the Braves exploded against an assortment of San Francisco pitching, Milwaukee's southpaw Bob Hendley coasted to his 10th victory against as many defeats, yielding seven hits.

Until Bob Nieman and Orlando Cepeda homered in the sixth, Hendley had a shutout with only one safe hit against him.

Milwaukee, meanwhile, batted through its complete order three times in the first four innings to build a 9-0 lead.

Aaron belted his 36th home run of the year leading off the third inning and sending Lefty Billy O'Dell to the showers with his 12th loss against 15 triumphs.

Johnson, slammed singles his first two times at bat and then whaled his second homer as a Brave in the fourth with Roy McMillan on base.

Those were two of the four runs charged against $150,000 bonus righthander Bob Garibaldi in the one-plus innings he worked. O'Dell had been charged with four runs in two innings.

Johnson collected another single, his fourth hit, against Jim Duffalo, the Giants' fourth pitcher. Stu Miller, pitcher No. 3, had finally slowed the Milwaukee bats but not until he had given up a single and a run to Henry Aaron.

Russell Claims Winning Classic Greatest Thrill

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—Sanders Russell, 62, whom fellow drivers term the grand old statesman of harness racing, said winning the Hambletonian Wednesday was the greatest thrill of 47 years in the sulky.

"I forgot I even had an ankle," he said referring to an ankle he carried in a cast while driving the 37th Hambletonian's victorious trotter A.C.'s Viking.

"It was my best journey with a trotter," he said. But Russell predicted the large dark colt will do even better in later races.

Starting the first heat behind 30 of 15 horses, Viking "got out . . . without a bit of trouble," Russell said. "We were locked against the rail for awhile, and although the race was much tighter in the second heat, we finally were able to get a good position and he did all the rest."

Joe O'Brien of Alberton, P.E.I. driver of Safe Mission, which finished second and 12th in the respective heats, said, "and I had to hustle my colt to get ahead. Safe Mission races with ears plugged and he would not hear me if I had to use the whip to gain the lead."

THOMPSON WINS CPGA

Alvie Thompson, playing out of Toronto's Northwood Golf Club, won the Canadian Professional Golfers Association champion and set a course record by shooting an eight-under-par 64 to win the playoff by five strokes. Play was at the Mississauga Golf Club in Toronto. (CP WIREPHOTO)

Great Race Card Set For Tonight

Another great harness racing program is going tonight at Charlottetown Driving Park.

It's an eight-dash card with all horses getting double trips for the night. The classifier appears to have come through with another 'hard-to-pick' affair and mutuel bettors could be in for a night of difficulties.

It's never easy to pick them but tonight's entries look just a little bit tougher. Four dashes find seven facing the starter and the other four have the full complement of eight.

The feature finds Just Gary leaving on the rail in trip one and with that kind of a going-away spot, Mike O'Brien will be hard to beat. But the other seven are bearcats that will bear plenty of watching. They are Dreamy Guy, Torrid Waters, Jean Clegg, Miss Kemble, Home stretch Lady and Gay Laird. Any horse has a perfect license to head the summary in these events.

Dashes three and seven will be equally as tought to pick. Mai Kai has the rail in the opening mile of this class and the opposition will be supplied by Jeanie Brewer, Elmer C, Mighty May, Buddy Lybrook, Dennis Herbert, Loraine's Watchim and Wing Victory.

It shapes up like one of the season's most entertaining cards and a good crowd should be on hand to watch the excitement.

First dash goes promptly at 8 o'clock.

Dodgers Cop Minor Crown

Giants defeated Tigers 14-11 in the first game of the best of three finals for the City Minor League title yesterday. Mike Connolly was the winning hurler with relief help from McKenna. Connolly was also the batting star with 3 hits in four appearances.

In Little League play the Dodgers captured the City title by defeating the Indians 7-4 and 10-3 in a doubleheader.

Roe Carmichael and Philip Ward hurled Dodgers to their double win. Batting stars were Shawn Murphy, Carmichael and Wilbur Birt.

The Bantam Cards evened their best of five series at 2-all by defeating the Angels 9-5.

Barry LeClair toed the slab for the win while Doucette took the loss. Bob Whitlock, LeClair and David Gillis each had two hits.

Cubs took a 3-2 lead in their best of seven series for the Midget - Juvenile title when they defeated the Senators 8-4.

The two teams tangled in the sixth game of the series but was called after 4 1-2 innings with the Cubs leading 11-7. The game will be completed today at 1 p.m. and the seventh, if necessary will follow immediately.

Ian MacDonald was the winning moundsman in the first game with Doyle toiling for the losers.

Cyril MacDonald, George MacMillan and Les Affleck each tagged two hits.

Here is today's draw:—

9.00 a.m. (Minor League) Tigers vs. Giants; 1.00 p.m. (Midget) Senators vs Cubs; 1.00 p.m. (Bantam) Cards vs Angels; 3.00 p.m. (Minor League) Giants vs Tigers. (If necessary.)

Exhibition Tilt Goes Tonight

Johnny's Kingfishers and Canadian Tire Pistons tangle in an exhibition softball game at the Old Diamond this evening starting at 6.30.

The Kingfishers are registered Intermediate C and have already started along the playdown trail, having eliminated Canadian Tire Jets.

The Pistons are the City League champs after sidelining National Park All-Stars in the league finals.

Meeker Hopes Newfoundland Not Overlooked

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP) — A former player and coach of Toronto Maple Leafs hopes Newfoundland won't be overlooked when a college all-star team is picked to represent Canada at the 1964 Olympics.

Howie Meeker, now a television sports columnist here, said Wednesday that at least three students at Memorial University of Newfoundland have the ability to make any college all-star team in Canada."

A.C.'s Viking Cops Classic; O'Brien Finishes 2nd, 12th

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—A. C.'s viking won the $116,612 Hambletonian in successive mile heats Wednesday, turning the first in 1:59 3-5 and the second in 2:00 flat.

The powerful big son of Hoot Mon, driver by 62 - year - old Sanders Russell, whose injured right ankle was encased in a basket - weave cast, took the first heat by 1¾ lengths over Safe Mission, driven by Joe O'Brien of Alberton, P.E.I.

An hour later, A. C.'s Viking played it cozy from the start, laying back in fifth most of the way, then opening up on the home turn in the middle of the fast Du Quoin mile oval to trot through the pack for a head victory over Isaac.

The triumph in the 37th edition of the premier stakes for three - year - old trotters gave Russell and A. C.'s Viking, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Petersen of West Hartford, Conn., the second jewel of harness racing's triple crown.

Among A. C.'s Viking's 10 previous victories in 11 starts this season was the first jewel, the $105,422 Yonkers Futurity July 20. The third leg is the Kentucky Futurity at Lexington Oct. 5, worth an estimated $55,-

Only one driver, Joe O'Brien, and one horse, Scott Frost, ever won the triple crown—in 1955.

Wednesday's victory was worth $62,854, fifth largest winning award since the Hambletonian was inaugurated in 1926.

In the second heat Safe Mission finished 12th

On the basis of the two heat finishes, Isaac—owned by Mrs. Charlotte N. Sheppard of Hanover, Pa., and Mrs. Patricia Williams of Orlando, Fla., — took second money of $28,570, with a 5-2 performance.

Third place on a 2-1 finish was Safe Mission, owned by S. A. Camp Farms, Inc., Shafter, Calif. Safe Mission, won $17,142.

Russell, who was injured in a racing mishap late last month, drove Viking to going-away victory over Safe Mission in the first heat, while Impish and Spry Rodney were heads behind in third and fourth respectively.

Viking stayed on the rail of the clay mile oval all the way into the stretch, then went to the outside with a powerful burst to win.

With a capacity crowd of 25,000 in the stands—pure lovers of horseflesh since parimutuel betting is prohibited by state law—Viking was cheered on to his second - heat triumph after another come-from-behind charge in the stretch.

The canny Russell drove Viking through the middle in the second heat to a head victory over Isaac, piloted by John Simpson. Lord Gordon, driven by John Patterson, was third after breaking badly in the first heat.

The victory was the ninth in a row for A. C.'s Viking and his 11th in 12 starts for the season.

Darkness Halts Playoff Game

Star Grocery Downtowners and Larter's Centretowners battled to a 5-all deadlock in an abbreviated game called on account of darkness last evening. The contest was the second game of the Souris Town Baseball League semi-finals.

The game will resume tonight at 5.00 o'clock with the third game immediately following.

Dave Jenning pitched for the Centretowners, allowing six hits, four walks while striking out nine.

For the Downtowners, Gussie Clinton gave up five hits, one walk and fanned five.

Brandon MacAulty swung the big bat for the Larter team with a homer and a triple in the same number of appearances. For the Starmen, Don White and Fred Robertson were both 2-3. The Downtowners were playing the game with three of their top players absent.

Pistons, MacKenzies Play Sat.

The Charlottetown Pistons and MacKenzie House of Fashion softball teams will play their first game for The Island Senior "B" championship at Summerside on Saturday afternoon, and this game should attract a large crowd of fans. Pistons and MacKenzies have something in common. Both can take it on the chin, bite the dust, spit it out and come roaring back again to pull out a victory. They have that "never say die" spirit in plentiful supply, and should make a real battle of it before the Island Senior title is won.

Bill Stull looked last night a bit like the Stull of a few years back who used to make swinging a bat a frustrating experience for a good many pretty fair batters. Getting a workable piece of that melon when Stull was really spinning it is a real achievement. The batter tries to kill it and pop goes the softball, A much easier out than a strikeout. If Stull keeps improving, he'll help MacKenzies a lot just when they need it most.

Have Occasional Off Night

Gillis and Bernard, shortstops for the two finalists in the Prince County Softball League, can dazzle you with fancy pick-ups in that short field. Bernard gets that ball over to first base in nothing flat. But both boys have an occasional night off when they do a bit of choreography for the old hit song, "stumbling all around." Guess there ain't none of us perfect. We aimed at a golf ball yesterday and missed it completely. And some know-it-all who was watching said it counted as a stroke. Is that right, folks? At least in baseball they give a fellow three swings.

Dee Lefurgey has gone back to his school in Shelburne, N.S. after what the boys think was a quite successful season with the Little Leaguers, Bantams, and Midgets in Summerside. Dee is a quiet, gentlemanly chap who meets favor with all the kids he works with. Now that the set-up is being changed, and a fellow name of Morrison is to take charge of minor baseball (and hockey) we hope at least that Dee will be coming back to give the new mentor a hand.

Has Taken Departure

Another fellow who is very popular with his co-workers around these parts has taken his departure from our midst. We refer to George Andrew, the golf pro at the Summerside Golf and Country Club. The weather made George's job a bit rough this summer, but he was Johnny on the spot, sometimes a pretty wet one, at all times, and many Summerside golfers have words of deep appreciation for Mr. Andrew.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

Back On The Job

WE'RE back in harness after a few days in Toronto where we attended an executive meeting of The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association.

It was a busy weekend locally while we were out of the province and our good friend and co-worker Carman Smith surely didn't have many idle moments. However, Smitty obligingly raced from one thing to the other and we give a tip of the Callaghan hat to him this morning.

OF COURSE, the major news coming out of the meeting was the decision to hand the 1964 Olympic hockey headache to Rev. Dave Bauer, outstanding coach in junior ranks. It was Father Dave who did such tremendous work at St. Michael's College in Toronto, bringing the Memorial Cup there in the spring of 1961.

Now the energetic priest is stationed on the west coast and he's willing to undertake lining up a formidable squad under the University of British Columbia banner. Already he has done a great deal of spade work on the project and he was beaming with confidence when he appeared before the CAHA executive last Sunday.

This confidence impressed us because we feel that if Father Dave feels good about the task confronting him, then Canada's chances in Olympic hockey must be excellent.

He's Hard At Work

ALREADY he has received word from several players that they are willing to go along with his experiment. It will be a predominantly college squad with players enrolling at UBC this fall and next autumn. He is working zealously to make all necessary arrangements for tranfers of students from other universities. He thinks he has a lot of the problems solved and already several universities have signified their eagerness to help make his plan work out.

Of course, there is the chance that one or two players outside or college boys will be sought but the majority of the team will be collegians.

He has a really worthwhile looking club on paper. Many of these boys he has coached while working in Ontario. Others he has played against while handling the juniors while still others he knows from watching them in other battles.

He talks with an air of confidence when he discusses the proposed squad and he feels they can come through with an outstanding effort.

We think the method is certainly a sensible way of going about this Olympic hockey problem. Something new was needed and Father Bauer's scheme may be just what the doctor ordered.

At least the CAHA executive thought so as they voted unanimously to give the young cleric an opportunity to regain some of Canada's lost hockey prestige.

It's an interesting experiment but we figure one that was indeed wise to undertake.

Art Did It

WHILE we were away, fellow worker Art MacKenzie grabbed the Prince Edward Island Open.

It was the second time in the nine years for Art to turn the trick On the way home Tuesday, we read Bill Ledwell's Sports Front congratulating Art on his achievement. We were delighted to find out that the redhead had turned the tables once again.

We don't intend to do any repeat on Bill's words of praise. However, we can't let the occasion go by without extending to Art our own heartiest congratulations.

Great going, Mr. MacKenzie.

Racing Continues

THREE more big harness racing events are coming up starting tonight.

Saturday and Monday (Labor Day) the other two cards will be run off and more great times are expected. Armond's Buddy and Amos Frost surely were travelling Monday night. Those 2:06.4 miles are sure something.

By the way, we managed to get in a couple of harness racing programs at Old Woodbine in Toronto. We thoroughly enjoyed them and were greatly impressed with the beauty of their centrefield. As far as we were concerned, it surpassed the scenery we always so much admired in the Hambletonian classic.

Youngsters Have Playground Meet

350 children from the Charlottetown playgrounds were treated yesterday to a field day to climax their summer program. The affair was sponsored by the Charlottetown Playground Commission and the events were run off by the playground supervisors.

The youngsters of the Kinsmen Park were able to muster nearly three times as many points as their second place rivals from Hillsboro Square. Kinsman had 179 points compared to Hillsboro's 66.

In third place was Victoria Park with 18 points, closely followed by Connaught Square's 14.

The children were all treated to a lunch of ice cream, pop and fruit and the winners of each event were presented with ribbons.

The events and the first 2 finishers are as follows:

Boys, 4 yr — 1. R. Smith, Kinsman, 2. D. O'Hanley, Hillsboro; 3. R. Doyle, Kinsman.
