Boston Defeats Detroit 2 To 1

DETROIT (AP) — Don McKenney scored his 22nd goal of the season in the final two minutes and brought Boston a 2-1 victory over Detroit Tuesday night, cutting the Red Wings' hold over the Bruins to a single point in their third-place battle in the National Hockey League.

Larry Regan gave the Bruins a second - period lead with his ninth goal but Gordie Howe tied the score at 11:19 of the final stanza with his 28th.

Taking Flemming Mackell's feed at center ice, McKenney carried all the way for the winner at 18:08. He got an open lane to the net when Detroit defenceman Al Arbour slipped and fell trying to shift to cover the flying McKenney.

The victory was the third in a row for the Bruins as they ended their six-game road stand with a .500 mark after dropping the first three. It also snapped Detroit's unbeaten streak at six.

Boston now has 58 points in the standings and Detroit 59, and each has nine games left.

Charlottetown Royals And Summerside Aces Play Tie

The Charlottetown Royals and Summerside Aces fought to a gruelling 9-9 overtime tie last night at the Sports Arena in the second game of their best of nine series for the Championship of Prince Edward Island.

For a while it looked like the Royals were going to win this second contest, they were leading with only three minutes to go in the overtime period when Ulric Gallant teamed up with Wally Shepherd and Lorne Hennessey to force the tie.

Both goalies were hard pressed during the game with Doyle making 43 saves and Mann coming up with 39.

Grant Grady put the Aces ahead early in the first period when his hard shot hit Doyle's stick and bounced in the upper left-hand corner desipte a fine juggling act by the Charlottetown goalie.

The Royals pulled almost the same trick a few minutes later with Syp Ready's shot bouncing over Mann into the net.

Wally Shepherd of the Aces broke the tie about midway through the period to give the Aces a 2-1 lead. This score held the remaining half of the period as neither team was able to score due to some fine goaltending by both goalies.

In the second period, Bonnie Howatt gave the Aces a 3-1 lead after only a minute and a half of play but then the Royals started to come back.

Cecil Dowling tallies one about the four minute mark and added another one 30 seconds later to tie the score. Merrill Pineau broke this tie four minutes later and Allie Carver made it 5-3 a minute later. Shepherd scored for the Aces to bring them to within one goal of the Royals and Billie Hughes tallied at the three-quarter mark to again tie up the game.

Thane Mann was called on 14 times in this period and came up with 10 saves while his counter -part Thane Doyle made nine saves out of 12 tries.

In the third period, Kip Ready started the Royals off on the rocky road to victory by firing two quick goals and vault his team into a 7-5 lead.

But the Aces turned the Royals into a side road as they scored two goals of their own to again forge a tie. Vance Harris and Ulric Gallant were the two Aces who did the trick.

Summerside went into the lead almost as soon as the overtime period started with Bonnie Howatt scoring on Doyle after only one minute and twenty seconds of play. Allie Carver sparked the Royals in this session by tieing up the game again 18 seconds later and putting the Royals ahead 35 seconds later with his second goal of the overtime.

With time running out, the Aces pressed all the harder and their efforts finally paid off when Ulric Gallant poked the puck behind an overworked Doyle to force the tie.

Czechoslovakian Hockey Team Ties With Russians

By ED SIMON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OSLO, Norway (CP)—Czechoslovakia played Canadian - style hockey Tuesday and held the Russians to a thrilling 4-4 tie in the world hockey championships. The tying goal came in the last 20 seconds.

Defending champion Sweden crushed American hopes by handing an injury-hit U.S. team an 8-3 defeat in the only other game played on the fifth day of the tournament that ends next Sunday. It was the first American loss in three games.

The Canadian team, idle Tuesday and today, had reason to be delighted at the performance of the Czechs against the vaunted Russians, who are co-favorites with the Canucks.

The Canadians and Russians clash in the final game Sunday —conceded on all sides to be the outstanding event of the round-robin tournament in which each team plays all the others. The tournament will be decided by goal spread—goals for compared with goals against—in the event of a tie.

SWEDEN SHARES LEAD

Sweden moved into a point tie with tournament-leading Canada —six points each—by virtue of its win over the U.S. But Canada has a wide margin in goal spread, having scored 50 in three games to only one reply.

The unbeaten Czechs, showing far better form than in previous games, knocked all the wind out of the Russians by throwing Canadian-style bodychecks and driving for goals rather than indulging in pretty-pretty pattern-waving on the ice.

The Russians started out with a burst and got three goals in the first nine minutes. Then six-foot Czechs went to work with hefty—but clean—bodychecks and the smaller Russians were down on the ice time after time.

In the second period, the Czechs dominated matters and evened the score at 3-3. The Czechs did most of the attacking in the final period, but the next goal went to the Russians with only four minutes of play left.

RUSSIANS PENALIZED

It looked as though the Czechs were going to be robbed. But with only 20 seconds left, and the Russians undermanned because of a tripping penalty to Dmitri Ukulov, the Czechs stormed to the attack and a combination play gave Miroslav Vlach the tying goal.

Russian star was Yurii Kapylov, who assisted on the first goal by Vladimir Elizarov, and then scored two of his own within two minutes. Karel Gut of Czechoslovakia made the only reply in the first period.

Gut and Stanislav Bacilek were the Czech scorers in the second period—when Russia failed to tally—and Yurii Krylov scored the final Soviet goal in the third.

Seven penalties were handed out, five to the Russians and two to the Czechs.

The crowd of 3,000 went wild when the tying goal was scored and the Czech players threw thrir sticks high into the air in elation.

Russia and Czechoslovakia now trail Canada and Sweden by a single point. The Czechs, who obviously had been conserving their power for the Russian game looked unimpressive in earlier meetings.

Russian attacks were broken up at the blue line and as the game went on the speedy and stronger Czechs were well on top in the play.

Russia and Canada have been bracketed as co-favorites since the tournament began, but Tuesday night some observers were talking in terms of only Canada in the favored position.

SPORT ECHOES

March 3 Was Black Monday For Hockey Fans In S'Side.

March 3 had better go down in our sports calendar as "Black Monday." The Charlottetown Royals trounced the Senior Aces 12-6, while the West Prince All-Stars drubbed the Intermediate Aces 10-3. We did take into account the possibility of defeat, but those lop-sided scores-

The Summerside Senior Aces have had some bad periods in their career, but Monday night's second period must have been the daddy of them all. Seven unanswered goals! The Royals surely caught Hogan's henchmen with their defences down.

Seems those Intermediate Aces either win or take a terrific lambasting. Earlier in the season when they were breezing along from victory to victory, the Parkdale Flyers came to town. They whipped the Aces 11-2! ! We didn't see the game and thought someone was spoofing us when we were handed the score. Now this 10-3 thing. When the Intermediate Aces decide to fall apart they do a real "one-hoss shay" performance. The All-Stars must still beat those Aces in their own bailiwick, however, in order to qualify for the finals, and that will take a little more doing than was the case up in the Alberton rink.

Mike Scott netted 35 points in a basketball game between Sum-Hi and Queen Charlotte High recently. Mike, Summerside's most promising High School performer, is also a member of the Spudniks.

When we attempted to give details of the "Betty Linkletter Challenge Trophy" competition for ladies at the Summerside Curling Club, the information got badly jumbled so we are trying again. Trophy holders must defend within 48 hours of challenge or forfeit. Challengers must give 24 hours notice on intention to compete. Games will be 8-end affairs with one extra end to break a tie. If score is tied at the end of nine ends, holders will retain trophy. $1.00 fee goes to Prince County Hospital so make it lively, girls.

New York Fans Bathgate Wild

By JOHN CLARY

NEW YORK (AP)—Blase New York sports fans have taken fanatically to Andy Bathgate, 25-year-old hockey player from Winnipeg.

He currently is the hottest player in the National Hockey League, playing for New York Rangers, the hottest team in the league. If you're dubious, watch out for the barrage of statistics these fans use to back up any claims.

The second-place Rangers are riding an eight-game unbeaten streak—six victories and two ties —and Bathgate is the hropellant. He has scored 17 points in the eight games to gain a tie with Montreal's Henri (Pocket Rocket) Richard for second place in the league scoring race with 69 points.

Bathgate leads Richard in goals, 28 to 25. Handy Andy trails Montreal's Dickie Moore by four points in the battle for first place and the $1,000 award that goes with it.

SCORING SURGE

This great surge by the Ranger forward has paid off in many ways. A month ago he had 49 points. In 10 games since then he scored eight goals and 12 assists.

In the individual scoring race, Bathgate took gargantuan strides toward overcomi tghe Montrealn toward overcoming the Montreal duo. Moore scored only seven points, Richard nine. All have nine games to play.

There's no real secret to Bathgate's showing. It is hard work.

"The more I play the better I seem to go," he says. "I feel stronger and have more confidence than I ever had. I think my plan has reached its peak and I hope to keep it that way."

This was borne out when the smooth-skating veteran had to sit out six games early in the season, the first time in 270 games as a Ranger that he was out of action. Bathgate now is completing his fourth full season.

Call Dodgers Dead Ball Club

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Billy Herman, former Brooklyn coach, Tuesday classified his former Dodger mates as a dead ball club and predicted that even the transfer from Flatbush to Los Angeles won't help them.

"Prime donnas, pouters and complacent athletes who have to be forced to work," Herman said of the Dodgers.

"Do you think the fan reaction in Los Angeles will inspire fellows like Pee Wee Reese, Duke Snider, Carl Furillo and Gil Hodges? Veterans like them don't respond to cheers. They'll continue to play their normal game. You can't fire them up any more."

Herman, a former star infielder who switched from Brooklyn to Milwaukee as coach last November, said:

"The Dodgers have become satisfied. It is not that the fellows didn't hustle last year. It's just that if they won it was all right. And if they lost, it didn't seem to bother them. They just weren't hungry any more . . .

"You just didn't see any hustle in the Brooklyn camp. I've got a lot of good friends on the Dodgers but I've got to call a spade a spade."

NIGHT RACING

Harness racing, which was a popular sport in Maine in the early 1880's, and where, at one time, there were over 20 tracks in operation, is now being brought back to the forefront in the last five years by holding night racing meetings, and putting up bigger purses so as to encourage the better horses to race there.

Phil Pearson, secretary of Maine's "Pine Tree Circuit" announces that two $7,500 free-for-alls are to be raced at Gorham Raceway this season. Last year these stakes brought some of the best horses in New England to Gorham, and an all-time record crowd of 12,000 people. The noted driver, Stanley Dancer, flew over and was up behind Duane Hanover, 1.58 3-5, when he won the free-for-all in 2.02, which upset the former pacing mark of 2.03¾, made by May E. Grattan, 1.59¼, nearly 20 years previously. Hillsota, 1.59, (Avery) was 2-3, Dale Frost, 1.58, (Jordan) 3-2, four other starters, time 2.02 and 2.02.

FREE-FOR-ALL

Gorham had the honor of also staging an $8,100 free-for-all Trot last season, which brought together some of the best in the world. The winner was Galophone, 1.58-1-5, owned by William T. Maybury, Dexter, Maine, who was Scott Frost's main opposition in 1956, and whose lifetime earnings are $286,807.

Our Maritime friends will recall that Singing Sword, 2.01 2-5, owned by the L. and G. Stables, Halifax, and driven by Lloyd Walker, was 2-3. Egyptian Princess, 2.00 4-5, owned by the Clearview Stables, Winthrop, Maine, driven by Earl Avery, was 4-2. Jean Laird, 1.59 1-5, driven by E. Cobb, was 3-5, and Topsail, 2.03-4-5, was 5-4. Times were 2.03 and 2.03 2-5. The former was a new track record, erasing that set by the famous trotter, Kelly, in 1938, and also breaking the Maine State trotting record of 2.03 3-4 made by Arch Hanover in 1942.

NOMINATION

This season, the date set for the free-for-all Pace is Friday, July 11, and the Trot will be raced on Thursday, July 17. The nomination for either one is $50 to be forwarded on or before March 15, and each starter will be charged an additional fee of $100.

A great deal of the credit for the surge of enthusiasm that has hit the Maine public for harness racing, is due to the fact that the proprietors of the Clearview Stables, Winthrop, Maine, enthusiastically support the sport. They are members of the Woolworth chain-store family.

Raoph E. Donovan, R.R. 4, Moncton, advertised in last Saturday's Guardian, the eight-year-old mare, Winnifred G., by Kalmuck, 2.15. She is in foal to Headway, by Scotland so the foal should be a valuable one.

He also offers the eleven-year-old mare Celia Sharon, 2.13 4-5. She is a good trotter that last year was three times first, five times second and three times third, and she should be a valuable brood mare.

The latest news from Orlando, Florida, is that the two-year-old pacing colt, Colonel Dell, by Poplar Dell, has trained a mile in 2.24 and the last quarter in 32 seconds. Another two-year-old named True Ella, by True Chief, paced the half-mile oval in 2.24-2-5. So the cold weather is not keeping the two-year-olds back very much.

FAMILIAR FIGURE

The oldest woman driver in the history of harness racing, Mrs. Neva (Grandma) Burright and her husband, A.L. Burright, died at Oregon, Illinois, within two days of each other. "Grandma" died on February 10, and two days later her husband passed away.

Mrs. Burright was a familiar figure at race tracks in her state. When night racing came in, she took it up just as enthusiastically and was a frequent winner. She holds the world's record for a woman driver on a half-mile track, by giving the trotting gelding, Luckyette a mark of 2.04-3-4. She was the mother of seven children, and two of her sons died in racing accidents. Her husband was also prominent in harness racing, being a well-known trainer and driver of years ago. He retired from the sport earlier than his wife.

A picture of the old lady in her silks and holding her pacing mare Poka Dot, 2.08 1-5 appears in the "Horseman And Fair World" for February 19. "Grandma" attained the respectable age of 75 years and she was active in driving until four years ago.

TO EUROPE

Our readers will remember how disappointed the late Sol Camp was about three years ago when he parted with the three-year-old trotter, Home Free. An Italian nobleman asked him for a price, at Lexington, Kentucky, and he answered $60,000—not thinking for a moment that the price would be taken up. But it was, and Home Free has been racing, mostly in Italy, ever since.

Home Free had won at Lexington that day from Scott Frast and Galophone in 1.59 3-5—a most remarkable performance, then Scott Frost went on to win the next two heats, and the race. During the past year, Home Free has won $16,085 in Italy, which is tops in that country, also $3,096 in Sweden and $2,980 in Germany.

RECALLED

Browsing over some old-time harness racing lore the other evening, we came across the late James W. Power's 47th Annual Review of harness racing in the Maritime provinces, for the year 1935.

There is a splendid picture of Mr. Power, who was the leading harness horse writer in Canada, and whose reviews were looked forward to by all harness horsemen. One of the feature pacers, in fact the most featured pacer in the issue, was Calumet Budlong, 2.02 3-4, owned by Mrs. Margaret Ballard, North Sydney, and driven by Billy Hood, which paced the three fastest hears of the season by a stallion at Fredericton, N.B., times 2.08 1-4, 2.08-1-4 and 2.09 1-2. There is also a splendid picture of Betty S., 2.07, owned by C.M. Alexander, Saint John, and driven by Earl Avery, which made the fastest mile of the season when she won at Fredericton in 2.07 1-4.

MADE RECORDS

Another horse whose picture appears is Lusty Frisco, 2.07 1-4, owned by Charles Chandler, Charlottetown, and driven by the veteran reinsman, Tom Holmes, which made the fastest mile of the year by a trotting stallion owned in the Maritimes—2.12 at Alberton, P.E.I.

The noted campaigner, Marjorie M., 2.07 3-4, owned by Richard Jabalee, North Sydney and piloted by Mike Jabalee, was the second fastest of the year, winning the first heat of the free-for-all at Woodstock in 2.07 3-4 and equalling her record.

Toll Gate, 2.00 1-4, owned by H.M. Sweedney, Bridgewater, that had been cleaning up the circuit the previous year, won four races with heats from 2.08 3-4 to 2.12-3-4. He shared honors with Marjorie M. by setting up a new track record at Truro of 2.11, and twice lowered the track record at Sydney to 2.11 and 2.10 1-2. He was the fastest gelding of the year owned in the Maritimes.

Defending Rink Wins 3rd Straight To Stay On Top

VICTORIA (CP)—Ontario had the bloom taken from its attempt to flower as a title threat but there was no stopping defending champion Alberta in the fourth round of the Canadian curling championship Tuesday.

Ontario, skipped by Murray Roberts of Unionville, had its victory string cut at three when the unheralded Quebec rink from Cap - de - la - Madeleine scored an 11-6 victory.

It was the first win for Bob Lahaie's foursome which has had two losses and drawn a bye.

But Alberta skip Matt Baldwin's chances of repeating his last year's triumph looked a bit better as he turned in victory No. 3, a 9-7 win over Northern Ontario.

The most exciting curling for the second time in as many days came from the game featuring the Manitoba entry of Winnipeg teen-agers. And as in their second-round meeting with Baldwin, the Winnipeggers provided a lot of the fire but lost the battle.

The British Columbia rink skipped by Victoria's Tony Gutoski took the measure of the Terry Braunstein quartet 10-9 but it took an extra end—the first of the championship—to decide the winner.

In other fourth-round games, Saskatchewan's powerful rink whipped Nova Scotia 12-6 for skip Gordon Grimes' third win against one loss, and Prince Edward Island defeated New Brunswick 10-7. It was P.E.I.'s first win and the fourth loss for New Brunswick.

In Tuesday's third round, Ontario defeated previously unbeaten Saskatchewan 10-7, Manitoba defeated Northern Ontario 16-8, Nova Scotia beat New Brunswick 13-9, British Columbia defeated Prince Edward Island 9-5 and Newfoundland beat Quebec 9-6.

Unionville, a town 15 miles northeast of Toronto, has a population of 250 but 315 people belong to the curling club. The rink includes Andy Grant, 61, oldest competitor in the championships, as third, and his son Ray, 24, as second. Murray Roberts, 29, is skip and George Rumney, 31, is lead.

The round - robin tournament winds up Friday. Each team gets a bye.

Roberts played a canny game to beat Gordon Grimes of Eston. Sask., which went into the third round with a record of 27 straight victories and was regarded as the chief threat to Baldwin's defending champions.

STRATEGY SUCCEEDS

Leading 9-6 at the end of 10 ends, Roberts practically gave Grimes a single in the 11th to force Grimes to lead. The strategy paid off because Roberts had the skill to follow up.

Saskatchewan was lying three when Roberts delivered his final rock in the last end. He made a perfect layup against Saskatchewan's shot rock to count one.

Newfoundland's Bud Fisher accomplished what no other Newfoundland team had been able to do eight years by defeating Quebec 9-6—win two games. Newfoundland teams previously won only five of 65 matches.

Newfoundland third Bill Howell, out with flu Monday, was back in the lineup. Second Jack
