CHARLOTTETOWN Business College

Writing Academy

Will re-open for the Fall and Winter Term

ON AUGUST 29th.

"Let the Searchlight of Practice illuminate the dark places of Theory"

THOROUGHLY Progressive. Practical institution, in which young men and women are not only taught Bookkeeping (in all its applications to Commerce) both by single and double entry, but are trained how to do business by actual business transactions.
The students act as buyers, sellers, traders, bankers, book-keepers and accountants in actual business operations, and the currency issued by the College Bank, and the notes issued from the Emporium are used in bona-fide business transactions, just the same as in mercantile and banking houses. Bookkeeping in itself may be learned at home, but a knowledge of how to transact business cannot be thus acquired. That our course and system of training is eminently practical write testimonials from business men and from students who are now holding lucrative and responsible positions.

SUBJECTS:
Book-keeping by single and double entry theoretical and practical; Actual Business Practice, Business Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law, Railroad, Steamboat, Banking, Banking (actual practice in the College Bank), Typewriting, Short-hand, and Navigation.

FACULTY:
L. B. Miller, Principal, Teacher of Bookkeeping, Arithmetic, Business Practice, Business Correspondence, Typewriting and Navigation.

of Railroad, Steamboat, Banking, Accounting and Actual Business Practice.

DEWEY'S WELCOME HOME

the Emperor of Germany who was very much "struck" with her.

It was estimated that five million people watched the pageant from the steamers and excursion boats.

The Olympia anchored off Grant's tomb, and then a salute was fired from the shore which was returned by the flag-ship. After this the other ships passed in review before the Admiral. 500 members of the Arion and Liederkranz societies sang anthems from a float near the flag-ship.
After this the ships returned to the starting point, and in the evening a great fireworks display was the attraction.

On Saturday Admiral Dewey landed at the battery at 8 a. m., and was escorted by cavalry to City Hall, where the Mayor, on behalf of the city, presented him with a gold loving cup which cost $10,000.
National anthems were also sung by 2,000 school children. Dewey was then driven to the foot of Warren Street, where he embarked on a steamer for Grant's tomb.
Luncheon was served to 500 on the way up.

The land parade started at 11 a. m.
There were 24,000 in the parade. When the Admiral reached the arch at 24th street he reviewed the procession from a stand nearby. Several of the ladies along the line were dressed in red, white and blue, representing the Stars and Stripes.

Several halts in the procession took place in order that the different organizations might regain any lost distance. One of these stop happened just when the carriage containing Dewey and the Mayor was opposite the stand upon which the writer was sitting. It lasted about five minutes, and gave me a great chance to study the "face of 'The Surpriser'" as the papers have dubbed him.

The street was full of boys and men selling soap boxes and old butter tubs for people to stand on. The price was 25 cents each at first; but I saw a fellow pay $2 for an old dirty box that broke down as soon as he and his best girl got upon it.
Then he looked around for his $2, but it had left before he mounted the box.

Only two English flags were to be seen in the decorations.

An amusing part of the parade was a young rowdier who, when the police were not looking, jumped in behind one of the companies and was saluting the crowds along with the rest of the officers in answer to the cheers. How long his reign was allowed to last I cannot tell.

Some of the regiments were hissed, including the 7th of New York and 13th of Brooklyn, both of whom refused to go to the front in Cuba. They were the finest looking men in the parade too, as far as dress goes, but when you saw the porters trailing behind with baskets of fruit and refreshments, no surprise was felt at their not wanting to fight.

Fancy a British regiment carrying refreshments when out on a little six mile parade on one of the best streets in the world. Several times I wished a detachment of Prince Edward Islanders could have swung around and shown them what marching was! I am sure No. 1 Co. G. A., with Major Mac at its head, would have fairly hypnotized them. One member of the G. A. R. who was bound to be in the "swim" was drawn along in a carriage propped up with pillows. Sir Thomas Lipton and Richard Croker occupied one of the first carriages. I also saw the Journal's loving cup presented by the people to Dewey. It stands 8 1/2 feet high and was made out of 70,000 dimes.

STANSTEAD JUNCTION, P. Q., 12th Aug.
1893.

MESSRS C C RICHARDS & Co.
GENTLEMEN,—I fell from the bridge leading from a platform to a loaded car while assisting my men in unloading a load of grain. The bridge went down as well as the load on my back, and I struck on the ends of the sleepers, causing a serious injury to my leg. Only for its being very fleshy, would have broken it.
In an hour could not walk a step. Commenced using MINARD'S LINIMENT, and the third day went to Montreal on business and got about well by the use of a cane. I can sincerely recommend it as the best liniment that I know of in use.

Yours truly,
C. H. GORDON.

It is Easy to Love Your neighbor as yourself when your neighbor is a pretty girl. It is just as easy to cure yourself of Catarrh, Bronchitis or Asthma, if you use Catarrhozone, the new medicated air treatment for all diseases of the nasal and respiratory passages caused by germ life.
Catarrhozone cures by inhalation without danger or risk to the sufferer. It goes wherever air can go and never fails to reach the affected parts. This is why it excels treatments requiring the use of sprays, douches, powders, ointments, &c., which cannot reach the seat of the disease and are therefore useless. For sale at all Oom Paul is fond of quoting Scripture.

But it has been remarked that he seems to forget the verse in the Book of Proverbs that tells him that "righteousness ex-alteth a nation."

ST. JAMES' CHURCH.—The usual prayer meeting will not be held tonight. Instead, a missionary meeting will be held on Friday evening under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society.
Rev. Arthur Morton, son of Dr. Morton of Trinidad, will be present and will give a lecture illustrated with stereopticon views.
The congregation are asked to remember the date.

P. E. I. HOSPITAL.—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the P. E. Island Hospital held last evening a vote of thanks was tendered Hon. Thos W. Dadd for his handsome contribution of $500 to the heating and ventilating apparatus of the institution. This amount is in addition to his former subscription to the building fund. It is expected that the Hospital will be finished about the last of November and will be occupied in December.

A GOOD IDEA.—At a meeting in the W. C. T. U. parlors last evening it was decided to establish a social hall in Charlottetown, for the especial benefit of young men over 16 years of age. The hall will be located in part of the W. C. T.
U. building, and reading matter, games, music, etc., will be provided. Dr. Ayer's will be general superintendent, and Mr.
J. K. Ross secretary-treasurer. Mr James Welsh and Mr W. C. Turner will be the music committee, and Messrs J. J. Chappell, Dudley Wright and John Messervy will look after the amusements. Contributions of money or literature will be thankfully received. It is expected that the social hall will be in operation in a few days.

STRAYED ISLANDER.—About two months ago a young man named George Foster, of Milton, about 22 years old, left the Island with the harvest excursion party for the north west. Shortly after he left his family lost trace of him, but thought he had arrived safely at his destination.
However, not long ago a notice appeared in the Family Herald stating that a person whose name was thought to be Foster, but who could not tell where he came from, had been taken charge of by the asylum authorities in Montreal because of evidences of insanity. This notice was made known to his people and caused them much alarm. They surmised he person referred to was of their family.
Accordingly, a brother left for Montre l yesterday to endeavor to identify the man, and if he proves to be his brother a telegram will be received here this afternoon or to-morrow to that effect.

IT IS A PURE SOAP

Wool Soap is an absolutely pure Soap, and contains no alkali or adulteration or filling of any kind.
There is no purer soap than Wool Soap, no matter at what price, and there is no better soap for toilet and bath purposes. The most expensive soaps, such as the highest grade of French and other imported soaps, cost more to make, and are more carefully moulded or milled, and of finer texture, perfumed with costly perfume, enclosed with expensive wrappers and handsome boxes, raying high duties, but some of these expensive soaps are intrinsically better than Wool Soap.
