

Mighty Lee Is Favorite In Col. Dan Race Tonight

By DOUG HARKNESS
Canadian Press Staff Writer
HALIFAX (CP)—Mighty Lee, pride of Prince Edward Island harness racing circles, is a strong pre-race favorite in the $2,000 Colonel Dan free-for-all tonight at nearby Sackville Downs.

A six-horse field will go to the pole for the mile race under predicted clear skies and temperatures in the high 60s.

Downs race secretary Jack Cruickshank said Friday the two-horse race will be an annual event. It honors Colonel Dan MacKinnon, veteran island horseman.

The 82-year-old MacKinnon drove to many Maritime harness racing records. He broke the work mark for ice racing in 1924 with the Yank. This summer he was at the reins in a race seen by Queen Elizabeth.

The First World War veteran, columnist, and sportsman is fondly known by islanders as their first citizen. One of his biggest disappointments was this summer when his horse broke stride and finished last before the Queen in Charlottetown.

"They thought I was a professional," he said afterwards of his talk with royalty. "I told them I raced just in fun."

Race secretary Cruickshank said Friday, "it is only suitable that we hold a race in honor of one of the Maritimes' great harness racing figures." The spry colt will be on hand tonight to present a silver tray to the driver of the winning horse.

LONG SHOTS
A couple of new entries are long shots in pre-race wagering. Roberdale, owned by Frank Stanfield of Truro, and Darn

Good Pick, owned by Dr. George C. Bishop of Lexington, Ky., will be making their first starts for a big purse in the Maritimes this year.

Other entries are Convair, a seven-year-old sired by Dan Hanover and owned by Francis Brisco of Moncton; Newport Frisco, owned by Lorne Fletcher, Springhill, N.S., and Rainbow Clegg, owned by H. E. Piers, Pugwash, N.S.

Mighty Lee, owned by Willard MacDonald and Rankin MacLaine of Summerside, P.E.I., holds the track record at Sackville Downs of 2:04. A $500 bonus has been offered for any pacer breaking the mark.

The first Colonel Dan Stakes here were held last year. In Charlottetown during old home week races, there are Colonel D. A. MacKinnon free-for-all.

Dodgers Cop League Lead; Phillies Overwhelm Braves

CHICAGO (AP)—Gil Hodges' 11th inning homer for his third run-batted-in of the game swept the pennant-pursuing Los Angeles Dodgers to a 5-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs Friday.

Pending Milwaukee's game with Philadelphia, the triumph moved the Dodgers into a half-game lead in the down-to-the-wire National League race.

Hodges doubled to drive across two runs in the sixth when Los Angeles took a 4-2 lead.

Wally Moon also homered for Los Angeles in the fifth, Sammy Taylor and Ernie Banks slammed Cub homers, Banks' No. 45 of the season tying the score at 4-4 in the eighth and sending the game into extra innings.

Larry Sherry, third Dodger pitcher, notched the victory. Starter Don Drysdale (17-13) was chased in the seventh. Sherry, taking over from Danny McDevitt in the 10th, got his sixth victory against two defeats.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The relaxed Philadelphia Phillies with last place firmly clinched dropped the Milwaukee Braves one full game behind the league-leading Los Angeles Dodgers Friday night with a rain-soaked 6-3 victory. Both the Braves and Dodgers have two games to play.

The game was played in a steady rain from the fifth inning on.

kee, the chief pallebarers in the watery, wake were Gene Freese, Jack Meyer and Eddie Bouchee. Freese drove in four of the runs, three of them with a three-run homer off loser Lew Burdette in the third inning. Meyer pitched tremendous ball for 5 2/3 innings in relief of starter Don Cardwell. Bouchee, a chief tormentor to Milwaukee all season long, drove in the other two runs.

The game was played in a steady rain from the fifth inning on.

SAYS OLD PRO EARL TORGESON

White Sox Are Misfits But Have Togetherness

By DAVE DILES
DETROIT (AP)—"I guess you could call it togetherness," said old pro Earl Torgeson. "Yes, that's what we have—togetherness."

It has been 11 years since the 35-year-old first baseman played in a world series game and back in 1948 his Boston Braves' team led the league in batting and counted on Spain, Sain and a day of rain for its pitching. Torgeson's championship team of 1959, Chicago White Sox, has different qualities.

"I guess we're a bunch of misfits," said Torgeson. "Most every man on this club got here via trade. We've been called misfits, retrade, hand-me-downs and castoffs."

"But now they have to call us champs. Maybe we are misfits for the most part, but we fit together pretty well and worked hard to get where we are. About 40 per cent of our wins have been by one-run margins. That's doing it the hard way."

JOINED SOX IN 1957
Torgeson kicked around in both leagues before landing with the White Sox during the 1957 season. The Sox got close to a while in both 1957 and 1958 but New York Yankees won the flag each time.

"It took three years of hard work but we finally made it," said Torgeson. "And it wasn't easy. We couldn't relax for a minute. This is a compact ball club—no loose ends—no friction—no stragglers. Those one-run victories are indicative of the way we've had to scramble for every little bit of success."

Winning so many games on speed and airtight pitching has provided each member of the White Sox with "a baseball education," Torgeson added.

"Every man has had to keep his mind totally on the game," he said. "Guys on the bench are right in each game. The fielders can't afford to play a single batter out of position. And every pitch our pitchers throw means something."

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Roosevelt Raceway has programmed a one and one-quarter mile trot for tonight, but at latest accounts it was not quite certain whether it will fill. The race is a $15,000 handicap, and the reason why it may not start is that the French trotting champion, Jamin, is entered.

Jamin has shown that on even terms he can beat any trotter in the world over the mile and a quarter distance, and he holds the record of 2:34 4/5 for the latter. If the race fills, it would probably be Jamin's last appearance in the Eastern States as he is scheduled to leave for California, and will be flown back to France after he performs there. A big winter schedule of racing has been arranged in France.

Track Meet Goes Today

Memorial Field is in readiness for today's interscholastic track and field meet which get underway at 2:30.

Approximately 500 young athletes representing some 25 schools throughout the province have signified their intentions of competing this afternoon.

Yesterday the site of this meet was a real beehive of activity. Lines were put down on the 100 yard straightway and the pit was dug up in fine style to make the landing soft for the jumpers.

Officials in charge are hoping for a good break from the weatherman and if they get it they are certain this 1959 interscholastic track and field meet will be the most successful one ever held.

Some of this province's most experienced officials will handle the events. The meet is under the distinguished patronage of His Honour Lieutenant-Governor F. Walter Hyndman. Honorary referees will be Hon. George Dewar, minister of education and his deputy, Malcolm MacKenzie.

The Physical Fitness division is providing cups, bronze and silver medals for those finishing first, second and third.

Bruno Boucher Wins Nod Over 'Peanuts' Arsenault

Bruno Boucher won the nod over Walter "Peanuts" Arsenault from two of the judges in the main 10 round boxing event, at Civic Stadium in Summerside last night. Win McCausland and Ralph Cameron scoring the visitor ahead on points. Judge Earl Smith had the boys even.

There was little to choose between the boxers at long range, but Boucher time and again pinned his opponent against the ropes and seemed to have a slight margin in the belting from close quarters. Arsenault hit the deck in rounds one and eight, but each time the knockdown seemed to result partly from a slip.

Race Card Looks Great

It's harness racing night once again at Charlottetown Driving Park and Frank "Duck" Acorn has a real honey of a card lined up for the eager patrons.

Eight dashes comprise the menu for tonight and every one looks like the kind to bring about thrills in abundance.

This is the third race promoted by Acorn who got himself into the promoter role after a fire at the local track forced Charlottetown Driving Park officials to call a halt for the season.

Frank's venture—a co-operative venture with the horsemen—has proved extremely popular and owners, drivers and race fans all appear to be happy about the entire situation.

Tonight's program should be the best of the series thus far and Acorn and the horsemen are expecting a good sized crowd to watch the show.

In the past class eight horses will be the word. They are Ted Genessee, Jean Clegg, Armond's Buddy, Ginger E., Helen's Dream, McGee Velo, Here Am I and Mr. Jollscott.

First dash goes at 7:30.

There was a lot of rough skirmishing when the boys clinched, and referee McCluskey, who was the third man in the ring in the last two bouts, had a very busy session keeping Carl and Milo in line.

Lloyd "Toy Toy" Gallant won a unanimous decision from Gerald "Gumps" Gay in a six rounder. The boys started slowly, but the final two rounds were full of action with Gay coming on, but not enough to whittle down Gallant's early lead. In the 4-round curtain raiser Layton Sonier had a bit too much fire power for Donnie "Peanuts" Arsenault and got the nod of all three judges. Emmett Trainor refereed the first two bouts.

Other officials were as follows: times, Eric Sheen, announcer, Eric Johnson.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

MOUNT STEWART baseball team plays in Maccan Sunday and no less than the Maritime Intermediate Rural baseball championship will be at stake.

The Hamilton Douglas-managed team lost a close one, 8-7, to the mainlanders at Mount Stewart last Sunday. It was the first game in a best-of-three set and made Maccan favourites to cop the Maritime crown. However, the Island champions are far from discouraged and Douglas feels his outfit can come through with a double triumph on Sunday, thereby giving Mount Stewart the coveted championship of the three seaside provinces.

MOUNT STEWART and Tignish Aces were the only two Island teams who indicated an interest to participate in these Maritime playdowns. The Mount Stewarters were victorious over the Aces in a sudden-death fixture at Queen Elizabeth Park in Summerside, thus giving them the chance to go after Maccan.

It's really something the way these rural teams showed up this season in Maritime playdowns. The Peakes-Morell juniors gave a fine account of themselves in their series with Moncton and judging by the way Moncton handled the Nova Scotians, Morell-Peakes had the second-best junior outfit in the Maritimes.

This afternoon at Morell, the N.B.-P.E.I. bantam champions, Morell, are host to Halifax in the first game of a best-of-three series for top Maritime honors. Morell backers are figuring their boys will be good enough to go all the way. The second game in the series will also be played this afternoon.

Then tomorrow we find Mount Stewart at Maccan and although the Islanders are one game down, they have a fair chance of upsetting the home team.

Baseball may be gasping its last around Charlottetown but down King's way, the interest was never greater. Players, promoters and fans all are to be congratulated on the year's success. It has really been something to talk about.

Here's wishing Mount Stewart and Morell all the best in their weekend battles.

Island Team Seeks Title

Mount Stewart baseball team is seeking the Maritime Rural championship tomorrow at Maccan.

The outfit that finished the regular schedule in the King's County league on top of the heap plays the second and possibly third game of the series against the Maccan outfit. Maccan won the opener of the best-of-three series last Sunday at Mount Stewart 8-7 but manager Hamilton Douglas has high hopes of his team reversing the tables tomorrow.

He expects to send Art Coffin to the mound to get the Island boys even at a game piece and if a third contest is necessary it will likely be Ernie Crane.

Golf Draw For S'ide

The following is the draw for the mixed two ball foursome competition at the Summerside Golf and Country Club this afternoon. Also scheduled will be the driving, approaching and putting competitions for both men and women and to wind up the afternoon, the final supper of the season.

1.00 p.m. Glenda Prichard and Garden Lawson versus Marilyn Linkletter and Frank Daley.

1.10 Leila Schurman and Ralph Judge versus Dot Baker and Earl Smith.

1.20 Edyth Dodds and Joe Quinn versus Irene Godkin and Fred Willander.

1.30 Marion Howatt and Bert Hunter versus Barbara Schurman and Al Doiron.

1.40 Marion Judge and Joe Bernard versus Bertie Ramsay and Dr. Olan Stewart.

1.50 Yvonne Abern and Dick Henthirne versus Amelia Larkin and Vane Harris.

2.00 Gladys Beers and Layton Schurman versus Kay McIvor and Ron Hitchinson.

COMING DRIVER

John A. Young, whose birthplace was Pictou County, Nova Scotia, now a resident of Marlboro, Mass., is being classed as one of the up-and-coming drivers as Massachusetts raceways.

Last Monday night he won the "C" Trot, purse $1,000 at Foxboro Raceway with Rose Kay Guy in 2:08 3/5. The fastest mile of the night was in the $2,000 Yankee Clipper pace, which was won by Jungle Princess in 2:04; and in the seventh race: Wise Hanover won in the same time, 2:04.

The top attraction which was billed for Suffolk Downs mile track, near Boston, last night, was the $20,000 Minute Man Trot, and the favorite to win it, Blaze Hanover, arrived there Wednesday from the Wolverine Raceway, Detroit. Up to that time, his winnings were $129,252, and he is a two-year-old trotter!!

TONIGHT AT Sackville Downs, the free-for-all feature, the Colonel Dan, will be raced.

This event is an annual affair and is staged in honor of our own veteran reinsman, Lt. Col Dan MacKinnon. The genial colonel is flying to Sackville Downs for the big classic, and will be the honored guest of the track for this event.

This columnist has received from Jack Cruickshank, race secretary, a kind invitation to be his guest at the Downs tonight. We thank Jack for his thoughtfulness and we are off this morning for the big racing centre.

Six horses will get the word tonight with the Island speedster, Mighty Lee a co-favourite along with Francis Breaux's Convair. Other horses in the classic are Darn Good Pick, Rainbow Clegg, Newport Frisco and Roberdale. Harry Hirsch's great little mare Fanny Queen, and that famous free-for-aller Dave Grattan, are sidelined because of lameness.

However, these six should provide thrills galore for the huge crowd that is expected to jam its way into the Downs tonight. We are picking Mighty Lee to capture the event but the big roan gelding will surely have his work cut out for him. You can't pass over Convair lightly, especially if you take a glance back at his fine work at Halifax this season. And then there's always the possibility that one of the less-favoured horses will come out with top money.

It has all the earmarks of a most interesting evening.

DON'T THINK for a moment that Chicago wasn't all agog about the White Sox winning that American League pennant. White Sox followers have been waiting for "next year" for forty long years. They have been faithful in their attendance at Comiskey Park but they must have been growing just a wee bit tired of never getting home in front of the pack.

Now the famine has ended and Al Lopez leads his Pale Hose into the 1959 World Series against a National League opponent yet to be named. Chicago folks are not worrying about the terrific race in the senior loop; they are just reeling with excitement over their scrappy Hose grabbing the flag in the American.

Thursday hundreds of thousands of Chicagoans—many of them had been around all of those forty lean years—got a first hand look at their "earlings".

Police estimated that 700,000 fans lined a 15 1/2 block parade route. Ticker tape and confetti rained on the 15-car motor caravan headed by Mayor Richard J. Daley and Sox officials Bill Veeck and Chuck Comiskey. Manager Al Lopez, beaming all over, and White Sox players rode in other convertibles.

Earlier this year Lopez had said that the Yankees could be taken and he proceeded to do something about it. He received stern opposition on his pennant march from Joe Gordon and his Cleveland Indians but Lopez beat the team he had to beat to get to the wire first. It was only a few weeks ago that Lopez took his Hese into the Cleveland wigwam and proceeded to sweep the four game series. It was then and there that the White Sox won their pennant. That's the true sign of a great team—beating the team they must conquer if they are to emerge, victorious.

The White Sox may not win the world series although Lopez and his supporters think they will. Even if they fall in this bid, the Sox of 1959 will long be remembered around the Windy City. They have taken a world series back to Chicago and the folks really love them for it.

And mind you, they could go the entire distance and bring a world crown back to Comiskey Park.
