British American Book and Tract Society.

To the Christian People of Prince Edward Island:—

DEAR BROTHERN,—Permit me again to call your attention to the work and claims of the British American Book and Tract Society. It claims the aid of those desiring the advancement of God's Kingdom on account of the large number of Bibles and of other good books and tracts endorsed by all evangelical denominations, that are scattered by its colporteurs as they visit the poorest homes in Prince Edward Island, the coast of Labrador, the Island of Newfoundland, the Province of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick and the south of Quebec. Since the inception of the work, 87 colporteurs have been employed whose united services equal that of one man for 130 years. Colporteurs sales amount to $128,080 and their grants to the needy, $9,167. Family visits aggregate 323,000, and at 133,000 of these prayer was offered or religious conversation engaged in. Up to the close of last year these colporteurs in their mission of mercy have found 1,320 families without Bibles and in every case supplied the deficiency. As a Bible Society it has done good work in circulating more than 175,000 copies of the Word of God, in hundreds of cases "without money and without price."

In Prince Edward Island 10 years of colportage labor have been performed. Sales, $9,348; grants to the needy, $466; religious meetings held, 420; Protestant families found destitute of the Bible, 39; and those destitute of other religious books, 124.
Family visits made 21,862 including 732 to Roman Catholic families.

A marked measure of success attended the operations of the Society in 1881.
Donations for colportage exceeded those of the preceding year by $1027. Over expenditure on colportage was reduced to the extent of $1516. The stock in the Depository was found in good condition, well assorted and new. The Religious Tract Society of London kindly doubled its grant of tracts, and gave more liberal terms in supplying stock for Colporteurs.
The National Bible Society of Scotland continues to supply Bibles on most favorable terms. Everywhere throughout the Provinces, as I have travelled for thousands of miles, the people have manifested the deepest interest in the Society's benevolent work. Already this year I have had the pleasure of receiving more than $1,500 from about 1500 persons in sections not visited last year. We have reason to hope that the 2000 donors of 1881 will give even more than they gave then. These tangible evidences of regard for colportage are cheering indeed.

During my visit to this Island last year I was obliged to report colportage work almost discontinued; but you will be pleased to learn that the Executive Committee has commissioned twenty colporteurs and will employ two others as soon as suitable men can be found. It is estimated that each man costs the Society $350 in addition to any income from sales. It will thus appear that the Committee is anxious to push colportage operations to the utmost extent of means placed at its disposal.
We have every confidence that money for carrying on this work will be forthcoming.

Prince Edward Island contriuted $209 last year. Although this amount was scarcely sufficient to support a colporteur, yet Mr. Secord has faithfully traversed his field, and by earnest, personal prayerful effort, combined with the distribution of the choicest publications, has done incalculable good in his 1455 family visits. As the Society was increasing its staff of colporteurs in the other Provinces in proportion to donations received, it seemed desirable to have at least one additional man in P. E.
Island. I communicated with several friends of the society in Charlottetown respecting the matter, and one very kindly sent us a cheque for $25. Another old and tried friend not long since loaned the society $100 to keep open the Branch Depot in this city. Who will manifest equal liberality in aiding this most worthy enterprise? Please bear in mind that in colportage a dollar will go as far in doing good as a dollar can be made to go. Perhaps no more economical or effective home mission work is carried on in these Provinces to-day. Although not in the interest of any particular church, it is highly advantageous to all churches. The un-converted are awakened and led to Christ, the sick and dying are comforted, church members are instructed and better fitted to be useful in Christian work by the efforts of these good men as they go from house to house sowing the seed of the kingdom.
One point is especially worthy of note—1172 families have been found habitually neglecting attendance upon the means of grace, and in many cases effectual efforts have been made to induce them to cast in their lot with the people of God.

Thousands of the drifting population, who are as sheep without a shepherd, are being sought out by the colporteurs, whose special mission is to seek and save the lost as far as human instrumentality can do this.
At present donations are not solicited for the publication fund which now amounts to $8565, one half of which was raised in England and Scotland. Our publications are not sold at a cheaper rate than others on account of donations from our people, but owing to the aid of kindred Society above referred to, free freight from Liverpool, etc. The commercial branch of the Society's work is not only self-sustaining, but it has increased the $34,829 given by our people for the colportage since 1867 to $57,492 in paying colporteurs salaries and expenses. Not only are all dividends accruing from the business applicable to colportage, but a large share of the supervision of the work in its various departments is borne by the Committees without any pecuniary remuneration.

Brethren, give liberally for the promotion of the very excellent work of this philanthropic society. Our own Province and people have strong claims upon our charity. We are our brothers' keeper, and Jesus the Saviour of sinners must be presented to dwellers in lonely and desolate corners of the land. Stretching out their hands, they cry, "Come over and help us."

There are many claims upon your liberality, but none are more worthy of a favorable response than those of this Union Home Mission Work, by which the masses can be reached and blessed.

Please forward donation, large or small, to me at Halifax.
Hoping for abundant aid, I remain, Yours fraternally,
A. N. ARCHIBALD,
Sec'y and Sup't of Colportage.
Ch'town, Aug. 22, 1882.

Wood's Engagement.
(By an eye witness.)

Sir Evelyn Wood pushed a sharp reconnaissance of seven companies of the Forty-ninth within seven hundred yards of the earthworks of Arabi Pacha. Sir Evelyn rode across the canal and examined the earthworks carefully for 600 yards. He found that the works were made in an excellent manner. As a Bible Society it has done good work in circulating more

Beautiful Bruisers.

An uncontradicted report from Georgia says that two handsome feminine claimants to a young man recently disagreed so seriously that they had recourse to fists, under the code established by the Marquis of Queensbury, and that in the second round one of the gentle damsels was "knocked out." It naturally follows that the victor will expect to marry the young man. But what does the young man himself think about it? If he marries her he may be reasonably sure of a healthy wife—one who will not languish and pose as an invalid as soon as the honeymoon is over; nevertheless it is not improbable that the youth may think in his innermost heart that it is possible for such a wife to be a trifle too vigorous. If she can pound another healthy woman into jelly in two rounds of three minutes each, her antagonist being on her guard all the while, what may not happen to her husband if she catches him unawares, while her womanly heart is full of indignation at some one of the shortcomings of which all husbands are guilty? That young man would do well to go West before it is eternally too late.

Exercise.

Exercise is a necessity; it prolongs life, and greatly improves living; it fits us better for our duties; without it we do not more than half live. He only who exercises sufficiently can know the joy of good health, good appetite, good digestion, refreshing sleep. It causes the blood to circulate quickly, freely and equally, and will drive away the blues. It increases respiration, thus bringing a larger quantity of the elixir of life, oxygen, to purify and vitalize the blood. It rounds and hardens the muscles and educates them into ever-ready, faithful and efficient servants of the will. It limbers the joints and strengthens every part of the body. It invigorates the mind, and renders it active and efficient in all its operations.

Something Like a Railway.

Now that the Great Western Railway, with its 823 miles of track, has become part and parcel of the Grand Trunk system, as it did on Saturday last, the latter railway merits classification among the "big things" in the way of railroads. There is enough of it to stretch across the Atlantic; here are the figures:

	Miles.
Old Grand Trunk and affiliated lines . . .	1,511 1/2
Old Grand Western and affiliated lines . . .	823
Midland Railway of Canada . . . . .	471
Chicago & Grand Trunk Railway . . . . .	335
Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee Ry . . .	189
Total . . . . .	3,330

American Ladies on Horseback.

American ladies, as every one knows, are very pretty and very clever. They are amongst the best customers of Parisian dress-makers—costumiers, perhaps, the more correct term—and milliners. They also know how to wear their clothes, and choose their colors. But, with good figures, they seldom ride as they should, either sitting in the one-sided self taught style, or in the stiff military style, as taught by German cavalry officer-emigrants.
