MURRAY HARBOUR W. I.

The annual meeting of Queen Mary W. I. was held in the Legion Hall with the President, Mrs. Louis Herring, presiding. The meeting opened by singing "O God Our Help In Ages Past." The Creed was repeated in unison, followed by two minutes silence. Roll call was answered by payment of dues. There were sixteen members and one visitor present. Minutes of last annual and regular meetings were read and approved.

Mrs. Tom Fraser gave the School Report. Cleaning Fluid for the Blackboard in the Principal's Department, is to be purchased, and Guide Books for the Intermediate and Primary Rooms are to be paid for by the Institute. Plans were completed for the Bazaar which is to be held in the Legion Hall in the near future. Collectors were appointed to canvass the District for the Protestant Orphanage.

Correspondence was read and discussed. Letters of thanks were received from Mrs. Frank MacFarlane and Mrs. John Gosbee for flowers sent them while they were patients in the P.E.I. Hospital.

Letters of thanks were also received from the Red Cross for names of blood donors, and from the Cancer Society for $110.98 which was the amount collected in Murray Harbor District.

Letters about the Kitchen and Utility Room to be shown at the Maritime Winter Fair, about the display of Queen Mary's Carpet at the Provincial Building in Charlottetown and the Historic Objects Display were read and discussed. Members were quite thrilled to learn that Mrs. John MacDonaid has a chair which was used by David Livingstone as a small child. Mrs. MacDonaid's great-grandmother was a sister of David Livingstone's Mother. Mrs. H. L. Machon has an English plate 150 years old.

If the Legion decides to have a concert in order to raise funds to repair the hall, the Institute members will help by taking boxes.

A box of toys and clothing for the Orphanage children is to be packed at the December meeting as usual.
