

Scripture—Exodus 19-24.

The Israelites camp near Mt. Sinai where God tells Moses if they obey Him and keep His Covenant they will become a holy nation. Moses returns to the mountain to hear God's Law.—Exodus 19.

God gives Moses Ten Commandments which explicitly define man's duties to Him and his fellow men. These chapters represent not only a greater law in Hebrew history, but an epochal hour in all human history.

After the Ten Commandments, Moses receives a series of laws applying them to ordinary happenings. Almost all of which concern the sacredness of life, property and justice.—Exodus 21-23.

Moses receives additional laws covering Sabbath and the keeping of the feasts. God assures Israel of His protection, presence and care.—Exodus 23:10-24:18.

MEMORY VERSE:—"And to love him with all the heart, and with strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all whole"

As a preface to the divine communication of Israel's legislation, the Lord announces an ideal for this nation such as is not assigned to any other nation in history. God reminds Moses—and through him, Israel—of what He has already done for them, thus placing them under His sovereign right.

In Exodus 19, we have perhaps the most significant single utterance ever made by God concerning His ideal and purpose for His chosen people: "Ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation." In the New Testament (1 Peter 2:9 and Ephesians 1:4) we find a similar concept assigned to those redeemed by Christ.

Next God sends Moses down from Sinai to ascertain the feelings of the Israelites; to prepare them for receiving the Law; and to warn against ap-

Last summer she screamed when we took her near the ocean. Now she loves to splash around under her parents' watchful eye. One day she'll be swimming out past the breakers and riding in on a wave.

How does one explain this emerging courage? It is a combination of growth, training and confidence. And no two alone are sufficient—it takes all three.

These three have also their spiritual counterparts. From the day religious education commences, a child begins to show evidence of spiritual growth. This is followed by an attitude for learning the simple but profound truths of Christian belief and practice. Ultimately we see evidence of a deep and enduring confidence in God—the magnificent quality we call Faith. Then moral courage, true character, emerges in the lives of our sons and daughters.

A vast spiritual ocean touches every shore of life. And those who only venture into the surf are never again content just to loll on the beach.

TRUTH DEFINED

At Ephesus in 431 A.D., the Church defined the truth that Mary is Mother of God. This truth protected the followers of Christ from dividing Him into a Divine Person and a human person.

But with the opening of the Second Vatican Council, Christians were divided over the person of the Virgin Mary and had been for centuries.

A large portion of the Christian world finds itself unable to accept the Mother of Jesus as a spiritual mother of the church.

Yet Pope John continued to regard Our Lady as the Patroness of Christian Unity. Noting that the First Session of the Council had begun... ended on words of Mary, he said that "These coincidences... make us realize that the Church's historical events invariably take place
