MANY ENJOY DELICIOUS SUPPER A very successful chicken and ham supper was served on Wednesday evening by the ladies of Kensington United Church. The event was attended by friends from Charlottetown, Summerside and many other points, who went away well pleased with the delicious feast. A gratifying sum was realized.—Bur.

ENTERTAINS FOR HOSPITAL AID—Mrs. W. F. Taylor was hostess to members of the Kensington-Prince County Hospital Ladies Aid on Monday evening. The president, Mrs. P. J. Kennedy occupied the chair and plans were discussed for financing a hospital room. Plans were completed for a pantry sale. Mr. Joseph Woodside invited the members to her home for the next meeting.—Bur.

O'LEARY SCOUTS ENTERTAIN THE O'LEARY C. G. I. T.—Despite heavy and continuous rain, there was a large attendance on Monday evening Oct. 30th when the First O'Leary troop of Boy Scouts entertained the Canadian Girls in Training of the O'Leary United Church at an enjoyable Halloween Party. Games and contests were enjoyed by the Scout-Master Douglas Hardy and a fine film shown. A welcome to the C. G. I. T. and their leaders, Mrs. W. G. Dickson and Mrs. Herbert Vatcher, was extended by John Matthews, who is the Chairman of the Group Committee for Scouting in O'Leary, which is sponsored by the O'Leary Women's Institute. A vote of thanks on behalf of the C. G. I. T. to the Boy Scouts for a very pleasant evening was extended by Mrs. W. G. Dickson which was responded to by the Scoutmaster.—O.

"APPLE DAY" SUCCESS—About one hundred and fifteen dollars was donated by the residents of O'Leary and vicinity for Scouting as a result of the annual "Scout Apple Day" which was held on Saturday Oct. 28th. The Scouts and Girls sold the luscious Island grown apples to the residents of Howland, Unionvale, Knutsford and O'Leary, who responded most generously to the appeal. The amount raised this year is higher than last year, and its gratifying total is most encouraging. In the province of P. E. I. it is estimated that some 300 (three hundred and fifty) Scouts and Cubs took an active part in the apple sale. Executive Commissioner Gordon Kerr of Charlottetown has announced that the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs in Charlottetown took in approximately one hundred dollars. Besides O'Leary and Charlottetown other centers in the province where "Apple Day" was held were Summerside, Alberton, Montague Georgetown and Borden.—O.

HALLOWEEN PARTY—The Trinity United Church of the Summerville held its annual Halloween party on Monday evening at the Epworth Hall. The party was a success. The program, consisting of games and music, was under the direction of Mrs. J. F. Scott. Miss Geraldine Fowler and Miss Marie Bonald. Refreshments were served.—S.

MOTHER TO PLACE WREATH—The committee in charge of the Armistice Day observance in Summerside this year has decided that a wreath of honor in the ceremonies of the centopast should be given to mothers who lost sons in service. Mrs. William Casey, who gave two sons in the cause of freedom, has been chosen to place a wreath at the monument on behalf of all the mothers. Both sons served in the army. L. Carl Joseph Casey was killed in Italy and Pte. Antoine Casey lost his life in north-west Europe.—S.

KINETE CLUB MEETS—The regular meeting of the Summerside Kinetite Club was held on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Alex Mercer, Slomson Park. Offer in the chair. Summerside trustee in the estate of Carl Woodside in bankruptcy vs. Merchants Supply Co. Ltd., Orangeville, Ont., an application set aside a chattel mortgage given to the department. The day was spent in legal argument and the hearing of evidence on two witnesses. At the end of the day the case was adjourned till the November term of the court. Mr. R. S. Hinton represented the plaintiff and Mr. D. O. Stewart, K.C., appeared for the defendant.—S.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—Relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Pearson, Chelton, gathered at their home on Saturday evening to congratulate and extend best wishes on the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. While Mrs. Lois Moase played the Bridal Chorus, Mr. and Mrs. Pearson were escorted to a seat of honor by their bridesmaid Mrs. Waldron Davison, and best man, Mr. J. Scott Cairns. The chairman, Mr. Roy Campbell, after humorous and complimentary remarks called upon Miss Helen Cairns of Freetown to read an address, after which Mrs. William Montgomery, Mrs. Wilbert Wright and Mrs. Edwin Lord made a presentation of a large mirror and a trillight floor lamp. Little Miss Charlene Wright presented the bride with a lovely bouquet of roses and Master Ralph Wright of Charlottetown presented a beautifully decorated wedding cake. Mr. Pearson on behalf of his wife and himself expressed appreciation for the gifts and good wishes. The remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse and music. Mrs. Heber Myers was accompanist for a sing-song and Miss Joyce Schurman took flash pictures. Refreshments of cream and cake were served by the ladies.—S.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Pearson was the scene of a happy event on Saturday evening, Oct. 28, 1950, when sixty-five relatives and friends gathered to celebrate with them their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

To the strains of the bridal chorus played by Mrs. Lois Moase and honoured couple were escorted to their seats by Miss Waldron Davison and Mr. Scott Cairns, the attendants twenty-five years ago.

Mr. Roy Campbell acted as chairman and after a few complimentary remarks called on Miss Helen Cairns to read the address, at which time Miss Charlene Wright presented the bride with a bouquet of roses and Master Ralph Wright presented the groom with a beautifully decorated wedding cake.

At the close of the address Mrs. William Montgomery and Mrs. Wilbert Wright carried in a large wall mirror and Mrs. Edwin Lord carried in a beautiful twilight reading lamp.

The groom of twenty-five years ago made a fitting reply on behalf of his bride and himself after which all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

A hearty sing-song with Mrs. Heber Myers accompanist followed. After the bride cut the cake a delicious lunch of ice-cream and cake was served by the Misses Beaulieu Jardine, Joyce Schurman, Helen, Amy, Louise and Georgina Cairns, Mrs. Heber Schurman, The National Anthem brought the happy evening to a close.

The Address Dear Amy and Earle: It is with a great deal of pleasure that we your relatives and friends gather here this evening to celebrate with you the twenty-fifth anniversary of your wedded life.

Down through the years with your thoughtfulness and kindness you have strengthened the ties that bind relatives and friends together, which is clearly shown on this the anniversary of your wedding day.

Your spacious home has been the scene of many social activities, where guests are warmly received and most considerably entertained.

As you reach this milestone in your married life we are glad of this opportunity to offer you our heartfelt congratulations and extend our best wishes for health and happiness in the future.

Please accept these gifts as a token of our warmest feelings toward you.

Your relatives and friends.

S'ide Y's Men's Club Meeting

The meeting of the Summerside Y's Men's Club last evening was held in the Presbyterian Church hall, it being the occasion of the annual church-turkey dinner.

Club president Fred Bingham presided and the meeting was devoted to business. Two new members, Claude Lecky and Kenneth Walker, were welcomed to the club.

The show, which was to have been sponsored on November 8 and 9 has been postponed to Nov. 27 and 28 out of consideration for other activities being held on the week of the 8th and 9th.

It was decided that the club would again donate Christmas boxes to the sick and shut-ins this year. Some divided to look into the possibility of operating a hobby lobby and camera club in the High School during the evenings for young adults.

The meeting decided to purchase a wreath for Armistice Day. A committee was appointed to look into the possibility of holding Sunday night sing songs in one of the local theatres. The committee is to consist of Allison MacLeod, Fred Dunn, John Leuty and Harold Rodd.
