WILL THE KLONDYKE BE RIVALLED?

Gold-bearing Quartz Found at Pocologan, Charlotte Co.—Fairville Men Interested

Fairville has been thrown into a great whirl of excitement over the alleged finding of a rich vein of gold by some of its residents, and if the anticipations of the owners of the mine are in the slightest way realized the wealth of the Klondyke will be rapidly surpassed and the rushing tide of lucre seekers turned in the direction of New Brunswick. Messrs. Robert Fair, Wm. Miller, James Wood and Wm. Stymest are the lucky owners of the mine, which is situated at Pocologan, in Charlotte county, just thirty-two miles from Fairville. The gentlemen have been prospecting for some time, and have gathered a large quantity of quartz, some of which has been submitted to Mr. W. F. Best, who is examining it now. Mr. Fair also sent some specimens to his son in Butte, Mont., who is the owner of a large mine in Montana. The son's answer was that the quartz was worth about $1.60 a hundredweight. This, of course, would hardly pay to work, but as the samples were all taken from the surface of the earth it is thought the value would greatly increase at a distance in the ground.

Messrs. Fair, Miller, Wood and Stymest returned from the mine on Friday evening after spending the week there. They were greatly pleased with their results, and had several large pieces of quartz with them in which the glittering gold could be plainly seen. The vein in which this gold was found is four feet wide and is believed to be very deep and long. Some of the samples will be sent to Nova Scotia for inspection. The mine is an old one which was worked unsuccessfully about fifteen years ago. The present owners, however, are thoroughly convinced that the first prospectors made a mistake when they ceased operations.

If the mine turns out to be a success it will be a great advantage over the Klondyke fields, as little or no difficulties or hardships will be experienced in getting to it; winter will have no terrors, and shipments can be easily made.

No shares have been offered for sale as yet, but when they are they will be eagerly taken up, as already enthusiasm over the discovery is strong. It is just possible that Col. Domville, M. P., has acted hastily in taking the English company to the Klondyke, when there is every prospect of finding as much wealth so near St. John.

The residents of Fairville, however, rejoice in the good fortune of their townsmen.—St John Globe.

THE LATE MICHAEL J. SCANLAN.

Resolution of Sympathy Passed by the A. O. H. of this City.

Last evening about twenty-five members of Division No. 1 of the A. O. H. of this city assembled at the railway depot on arrival of the remains of the late Michael J. Scanlan, who was found dead in the woods near Murray River, as chronicled yesterday. The search party sent down by the A. O. H. of Boston and comprising Messrs. Roache, Hickey, Cronin, Veal, Furness and also Mr. Wolte, a cigar manufacturer and a personal friend of the deceased who came here at his own expense, were received by the local men and driven to the rooms of the Charlottetown Division of the A. O. H., where a reception was tendered them and the following resolution of condolence was passed:

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God, in His Infinite wisdom to take to Himself our brother Michael J. Scanlan, a member of Division No. 19. A. O. H. of Suffolk County, Massachusetts, in the United States of America, who came to his death under sad and peculiar circumstances at Murray River, in Prince Edward Island.

And Whereas, in exercise of our motto of Friendship, Unity and True Christian Charity, we deplore the sad and untimely death of our said deceased brother.

Resolved, that division No. 1, of the A. O. H., of Charlottetown in the Province of Prince Edward Island expresses its sincere sympathy to the widow and orphans of our deceased brother in their sad affliction.

Further Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the widow of our said deceased brother, and also that a copy of said resolution be published in the Boston Pilot and THE EXAMINER newspaper, Charlottetown P. E. Island.

The search party left for Boston this morning with the remains. On the coffin was a beautiful wax floral wreath presented by Division No. 1, of the A. O. H., of Charlottetown.

A LIVELY CONTEST.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—As election day draws nearer sensational surprises in the political contest grow scarcer, and hard work, extending from house-to-house canvasses to the huge mass meeting, becomes more noticeable.

The acceptance by Mr. Dayton, of the Jeffersonian nomination for controller, was discounted by his evident intentions prior to the official announcement.

It is announced that Messrs George and Dayton will campaign together, speaking from the same platform, comment on the oddity of which is not wanting, as Mr. Dayton was not, and his friends say will not, endorse the more peculiar tenets which are believed to make for the popularity of the single taxer and free trader.

The phrase, "To hell with reform," used by Colonel Asa Bird Gardiner, Tammany's candidate for district attorney, in his mass meeting speech, is likely to be much quoted and vociferously commented upon. Colonel Gardiner says he used it as a quotation and not as a party shibboleth. The opponents of Tammany do not accept this explanation.

The attitude of the Germans in this campaign may be learned when the ballots are counted—it cannot be accurately stated now—in short, the German-American vote in Greater New York, which many think will reach at least 125,000, will be divided on the lines of personal preferences.

It is noteworthy that those who acknowledge Croker as leader insist that the main contest is between Van Wick and Tracy, while those who are generally known as Platt adherents reverse the names, but not the belief, and contend the real contestants are Tracy and Van Wick. They base their convictions on the tendency of the great mass of voters to divide on strict party lines. Another queer thing in this queerest of campaigns is that while Mr. George says he will be satisfied if Mr. Low is elected, the scholar candidate declines to reverse the proposition, and says he cannot accept Mr. George's peculiar doctrines.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Low, demonstrator of the Canada Featherbone Company, arrived in the city last evening.

The many friends of Mr. E. D. Sterns are glad to see him out again after his severe illness.

Mrs. Charles Palmer and Miss Ethel Palmer left this morning with Mr. W. J. Palmer for Toronto, where they will spend some weeks.

Miss Katie McLeod of Charlottetown, P. E. I., arrived in the city on Thursday by the Pacific express, on a visit to Mrs. J. O. MacLeod.—Vancouver World, Oct. 9.

A New York despatch says: A reception was on Sunday evening tendered to Archbishop Cornelius O'Brien, of Halifax, N. S., by the students of Manhattan college. Many prominent members of the Catholic clergy of this diocese and three hundred and twenty students were present. The Rev. Brother Justin, president of the college, welcomed the archbishop.

Charles A. Dana, editor of the New York Sun, died at his home in Glen Cove, Long Island, on Sunday afternoon. The cause of Mr. Dana's death was cirrhosis of the liver. On June 9 he was at his office, apparently strong and healthy. The next day he was taken ill, and has not since visited New York. He was 78 years of age.

The mother and sister of the deceased accompanied the body, and a large number of mourning friends followed the hearse from the station to the church. The arrangements for the burial were in charge of the Foresters, a large number of whom turned out at the funeral this afternoon. The attendance of citizens generally was also very large. The service at the church was most impressive.

OCTOBER WEDDING.—The residence of Mr. John Robertson, at North River, was the scene of an interesting event on the afternoon of the 13th inst, the occasion being the marriage of his second daughter, Katie, to Alexander J. McRae, an enterprising farmer of Point Prim. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Robertson, while the groom was supported by Mr. Samuel Murphree. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Donald M. Campbell. After the nuptial knot was tied and the congratulations and good wishes of those assembled extended, the happy couple, with their friends and well-wishers, sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents. Mr. and Mrs. McRae left by carriage the same evening for their future home in Point Prim. Congratulations.

McGILL SPORTS.—In the McGill sports at Montreal Saturday P. F. Duffy of this city won a trial heat in the 100 yards dash, but lost in the final to W. W. Lynch and H. M. Robertson who ran a dead heat in 10.45 secs. In the mile run he took second place, the winner's time being 5.06 3-5. Cyrus McMillan of this city took second place in the quarter mile, finishing only about a yard behind H. M. Robertson. Time 53 2-5. Coussirat, who completed in the Labor Day sports here, and who is also a student at McGill, won the half mile, one mile and three mile bicycle events in 1.23 3-5, 2.31 and 7.49 respectively. Duffy is also playing on the first football team, although only holding a place on last year's third fifteen. He received special mention for his good work in the game with Ottawa College (last year's champions) his following of the ball being described as of the lightning order.
