GRAND OPERA COMING

A musical feast is promised this month with the visit here of the celebrated Toronto Opera Company at Prince of Wales College on Nov. 28. Never before have so many of Canada's top professional singers been assembled in one glittering cast. Many of them are already familiar to community concert subscribers and could command a large audience on their appearance alone. This will be the company's first visit to Charlottetown although they already have an impressive record of travel across the continent and abroad. The opera they will stage in full and in costume will be the ever-popular and lighthearted "Barber of Seville".

Tickets are now on sale at the Co'lege, Miller Bros., and Toombs Music store.

Here Jan Rubes as "Don Basilio" was a stern figure as Andrew MacMillan as "Doctor Bartolo".

Correct Guess On Seaway Influence Can Mean Cash

MONTREAL (CP) — Farmers, financiers, industrialists, shipowners, union leaders and just plain Joes are playing a new guessing game. They're trying to find out what the St. Lawrence Seaway will mean to them after it pierces North America with a new ocean route next April.

to call at their once-landlocked doorsteps.

27-FEET DEEP
The locks of the seaway and Welland Canal are big enough to take about 75 per cent of the world's shipping—vessels up to 730 feet long with 75-foot beam. The canals and channels are 27 feet deep, taking ships with draught of 25 feet.

What will all this mean? Farmers expect lower grain carrying charges. Financiers anticipate new businesses to grow up as a result of the seaway. Industrialists see lower costs in bringing in raw materials, exporting finished products. Shipowners hope for more business, fear foreign competition. Union leaders see a new field for labor organization.

And the plain Joes? Maybe European cars will sell more cheaply in Toronto. Other imported products may be cheaper too. And the economic impetus of the seaway over the long term is expected to produce more jobs, better living standards.

QUICK GUIDE

To help you play the game, here's a quick businessman's guide to the seaway:

Canada is spending $312,000,000 to build five locks, two canals and deepen river channels in the 135-mile stretch of the St. Lawrence between Montreal and Lake Ontario. Another $23,000,000 is being spent to deepen the Welland Canal between Lake Ontario and Lake Erie.

The United States, with two locks, one canal and some channel deepening to do, is spending $135,000,000.

Total cost: About $475,000,000, possibly more.

This capital investment will be paid by tolls, 42 cents a ton on bulk cargo, 95 cents a ton on general cargo and six cents for every gross registered ton of the vessel. It will take 50 years to collect enough money to pay back the cost, plus interest, as well as operate the seaway.

Of every dollar collected, Canada will get 71 cents, the U.S. 29 cents.

EXPECT PEAK IN 1968
Seaway economists expect about 25,000,000 cargo tons to move through the seaway in 1959, rising gradually to 50,000,000 tons by 1968, the peak capacity of the waterway.

Train and iron ore are expected to be major commodities going by ship through the seaway—western grain from the Lakehead bound for foreign buyers directly or via trans-shipment points along the St. Lawrence from Montreal eastwards, Ungava iron ore destined for U.S. steel mills in the Great Lakes industrial heartland.

Inland lake ports are spending $100,000,000 to improve their facilities for seaway trade, deepening ship approaches, building new berths, faster unloading devices, more storage space. They expect freighters from around the world

Drunk Driving Charge Brings 7-Day Term

A Cumberland Street man was sentenced to serve seven days in the Queen's County Jail when he was convicted on a charge of drunken driving in City Police Court before Magistrate K.A. Martin Monday morning.

The accused had pleaded not guilty to the charge when he first appeared on Saturday morning. Evidence for the prosecution was completed at that time.

Lester O'Donnell represented the accused.

Five men facing charges of being drunk and incapable also appeared on the docket. A Dorchester Street resident was fined $20 and costs or 10 days while fines of $5 and costs or two days were handed residents of Elm Avenue, and Upper Hillsboro St. A Pond Street man had his case adjourned until this morning when he told the court he was going to take the pledge.

Another Dorchester Street man appearing on a similar charge had his case adjourned to Wednesday.

A speeding charge against a Spring Park Road youth brought a fine of $10 and costs or five days. An Elm Avenue man drew a fine of $5 and costs or two days when he pleaded guilty to operating a taxi without a proper license.

Cuban Rebels Launch Drive

HAVANA (AP)—Cuban rebels Thursday launched a drive to called a final blow to overthrow President Fulgencio Batista and to break up next Monday's presidential election.

The rebel high command declared open season on all 10,000 candidates for national provincial and municipal offices.

It ordered guerrilla fighters throughout Cuba to fire without warning upon all railway and highway transport. Cubans were warned they risked their lives if they voted.

Rebel Leader Fidel Castro fixed dawn today as the deadline for candidates to withdraw or be shot. Thus far four congressional candidates have been slain. Castro claimed 11 candidates for city council had withdrawn at Alto Songa near Santiago de Cuba.

With the exception of Oriente province, however, calm prevailed in Havana and elsewhere in Cuba.

Batista promised that the armed forces and national police would maintain order at all costs and guaranteed Cubans the right freely to express their will at the polls.

5 PEI Residents Have Relatives In Mine Disaster

At least five miners who were caught in the recent mine upheaval in Springhill, N.S., had a direct bearing on residents of Prince Edward Island.

One of the four, Joseph Holway, Jr., was one of 12 miners who were rescued from the No. 2 colliery last week. He is the brother of Mrs. Ralph Vincent of Alma, P.E.I. Their father, Joseph Sr., was one of the first to be rescued from the mine following the upheaval a week ago Thursday.

An uncle, Isaac Holloway was killed in the same upheaval. He also survived the 1958 disaster.

Harry O'Brien, the brother of Mrs. L.A. Hicks, wife of Major Hicks Corps Officer of the Salvation Army Headquarters in Charlottetown, is still listed as one of the missing.

Among those listed as dead are Percy Rector, father of Harold Rector, 131 North River Road, and Frank MacKenzie, brother of Mrs. Charles Worth, 139 Weymouth Street.
