NEW YORK (AP)—Strong demand for steels, motors and aircrafts Wednesday sent the stock market swinging away to new high marks.

Trading started slowly with prices higher. Aircrafts were well out in front and then steels joined the forward procession.

Late in the day motors strengthened and other major divisions

TORONTO (CP)—The heaviest trading in more than two months forced prices upward on the stock exchange Wednesday.

Base metal strength, particularly in seniors, pushed the group up. Consolidated Smelters, a leader, touching a 1954 high of $28.50. Other changes were pennies or minor fractions.
