FAMOUS HANDS

king and was able to score nine tricks when, fortunately, the hearts broke 3-3 and the diamond finesse worked. In all, South made two spade tricks, two hearts two diamonds, and three clubs.
At the other table, on identical bidding, the French-North-South pair also reached three notrump. The opening lead was the same and South's first three plays were the same—A-K of clubs and queen of hearts.
But here the play varied. East (Dick Kahn, playing with Lee Hazen) refused to win the queen of hearts. Declarer was now dead. He had no way of ever reaching dummy to cash a second heart trick or the queen of clubs. Eventually, he went down 100—200 points—though he could have held the set to one trick.
So the American team gained 300 points on the deal, worth 7 international match points.
It seems inexcusable that East, at the first table should have taken the queen of hearts when it was offered. By playing the ten he would have maintained his A-J position over dummy's king. The advantage of ducking should have been obvious, since it was bound to make declarer's task more difficult.
But the mental lapse shows that even in the top levels of competition the players are human, and Field lost no time in exploiting the error to bring home nine tricks which didn't really exist.

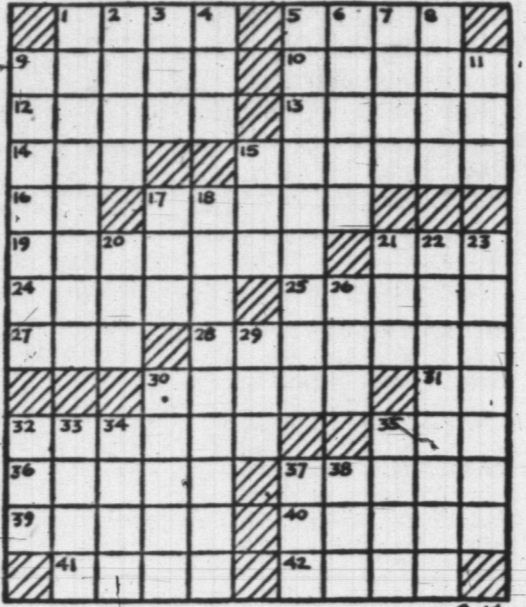

Quebec Premier Chooses Cabinet

QUEBEC (CP) —Hon. Paul Sauve was sworn in Friday as premier of Quebec and promptly formed his cabinet, retaining all those who had served under the late Premier Maurice Duplessis and adding one new member.
It was a busy day for Mr. Sauve, who agreed to accept the premiership Thursday night, a few hours after Premier Duplessis was buried in his native Trois-Rivières.
Within four hours, Mr. Sauve:
1. Announced formation of his cabinet. Maurice Bellemare, 47, chief party whip, was brought into the cabinet as a minister without portfolio. The attorney-general's portfolio, formerly held by Mr. Duplessis, was turned over to Hon. Antoine Rivard who retained his transport department portfolio. The solicitor-general's post held by Mr. Rivard was eliminated.
2. Ordered a period of mourning for Mr. Duplessis be observed until Sept. 20 inclusively.
3. Set Wednesday Nov. 18 as the date of the opening of the next legislature session.
4. Announced the Quebec government will again allow municipalities to receive federal grants toward public works projects providing winter employment.
5. Ordered a speed-up in the program to build two new bridges on the western tip of Montreal Island and widen the traffic lane over Mercier Bridge linking Montreal with the St. Lawrence River south shore.
6. Announced the government will enact immediately legislation authorizing the government to grant to any municipal corporation up to four per cent of the initial amount borrowed for construction of sewers and water works systems. The legislation was adopted at the last session.

MEETS REPORTERS
Mr. Sauve met reporters during the new cabinet's first gathering in the cabinet meeting room. He allowed radio and television crews to bring in their equipment—a precedent that seemed to set a new tone in public relations between the provincial cabinet and reporters.
He told newspaper men there are many things he has not yet had time to decide.
He said Quebec will take part in the finance ministers' federal-8:00—Teen Tempo and Music.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
L O N G F E L L O W
One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters are apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints, each day the code letters are different.

N.B. Cracks Down On Game Hunters
FREDERICTON (CP) — More hunters, more game and stiffer violation penalties are in sight for New Brunswick's 1959 season which opens Oct. 1.
A. T. Pelletier, chief of the province's fish and wildlife branch Friday said game laws are generally the same as 1958 but the penalties have been made somewhat more forbidding.
Deer jacks will lose their licenses for three years. So will moose killers in addition to fine, compared with last year's $50 minimum.
Provincial tourist officials said hunting inquiries are rising steeply of last year indicating there may be more hunters in the woods this year than ever before.
The greatest volume of queries was expected later this month as the season opening draws nearer.
