Fitzsimmons agrees to meet Corbett, win or lose, he to get $15,000. This is the only condition he insists on, and the prospects are good of the men meeting.

The big hotel at Lindsay Park, which was to have been the largest summer hotel at the Northern Michigan resorts, collapsed one day last week and is a total wreck. Forty workmen were buried in a mass of broken timber. Two men were killed and ten others badly injured.

Mrs. Louis Lutz, of New York, dreamed that her premises were on fire. She got up and discovered the outbuildings in flames. Her house and barn, four horses a cow and fourteen wagons were destroyed, also $400 in cash.

Charles Dickens, a ticket-of-leave man, has been sent to jail for sixty days and to serve out his suspended life sentence at Glasgow for having a burglar's kit in his possession. He made a living while out of jail by writing prison stories for magazines and by lecturing on his prison experiences.

Mr. Van Wyck, the Democratic nominee for the mayoralty of New York, is credited with having, at a dinner of the Home Club, eaten twenty-three pieces of beefsteak at one supper. The occasion was a special one being a competition in which a number of noted gourmands took part. If Gotham wants a man of internal capacity for its chief magistrate it should vote for Van Wyck.

A bellringer of St. Paul's church, Antwerp, named Nevens vowed vengeance against a man named Derolius and the latter's wife for some supposed injury and a few months ago stole their four-year-old child, and wrote to them saying they would never see it again alive. The bellringer and the child disappeared, and all efforts to trace them failed. The finding of the body of the bellringer in the Brussels Canal a fortnight ago revived interest in the mystery and an evening or two ago the body of the child was found hanging in the vaults of St. Paul's church.

Lucy Harleburgh, fourteen years old, living near Halesfield Valley, N. Y., caught a runaway horse and saved the lives of Mrs. Richard Peters and her three children. Miss Haydenburgh, who was horseback riding, saw the runaway approaching and determined to stop the horse if possible. She waited until the runaway had reached a point nearly opposite her, when, whipping up her horse, she managed to get near enough to the frightened horse to seize the bridle. The young woman was nearly pulled from her horse, but finally jumped to the ground and held the runaway until assistance arrived.

SIR LOUIS DAVIES AND THE YUKON

Not all the indiscretions committed in the name of Canada in the Mother Country while Sir Wilfrid Laurier was there are to be charged to him. His Minister of Marine and Fisheries, Sir Louis H. Davies, was also guilty of a pernicious activity during his stay in the United Kingdom. Concerning the Klondyke, Sir Louis made certain uncalled for statements which we doubted at the time were for the best interests of this country.

The first of these, which created some sensation when it was reported here, was made in a speech delivered on August the 7th in the home of his ancestors, the town of Tenby, Wales. He warned investors not to place their money in Yukon gold mining enterprises. "A gold mine," he told his hearers, "needs only a hole in the ground and a liar." Now, nobody who knows anything about gold mining in Canada will pretend that it was necessary for the Minister to make such an extreme statement in order to put the British investing class on their guard against "wild cat" mining schemes. From the claims now being worked on the creeks of the Klondyke, Mr. Ogilvie, the government official who surveyed them, and who knows probably more than any other man, estimates that $70,000,000 worth of gold will be taken. The Stewart and some tributaries of the Yukon are believed to be quite as rich as the Klondyke. The active mines of the Yukon, British Columbia, Western Ontario and Nova Scotia, from which millions of dollars of gold have been taken, are something more than a combination of a hole in the ground and a liar. There are doubtless many other properties as valuable as those now yielding a large output and paying dividends, which remained unworked for the want of capital. To obtain the needed capital those who control these properties naturally look to Britain. British investors were considering some of their applications when Sir Louis Davies made his singularly infelicitous speech. Of course, the effect would be bad. When a Canadian Minister of the Crown lends his assistance to the ill-boding croakers who greet every Canadian enterprise that is sought to be floated in London, British capital is likely to be shy of the finest openings we can offer. Though uttered in Tenby, Sir Louis Davies' remark was quoted all over the United Kingdom, and must have given a serious setback to the growing confidence of British investors in our mines. But what must have been the astonishment of those who took it seriously to read in the advertising columns of the London Times a Yukon company prospectus containing this passage:

"The following is extracted from a letter received by Lieut.-Col. Donville from the Hon. Sir Louis H. Davies, Q. C. P. C., K. C. M. G., the Canadian Minister of Marine and Fisheries, who is now on a visit to England:—

"LONDON, July 30th, 1896.

"I have just received your note of today's date, telling me that a syndicate has been organized to open up and develop the Klondyke Yukon country.

"I have no hesitation in saying that the policy of the Government is, and will be, to assist in the opening up and development of this rich country, and I need not say to you that we shall be glad to look favourably upon every bona-fide company which has that for its object. Your personal connection with such a company would be an additional guarantee of its bona-fides, and I will be glad to hear that it has been successfully concluded.

"Yours faithfully,
(Signed) "L. H. DAVIES."

What is the reason for this difference in language? Why is Sir Louis H. Davies not one time using his Ministerial influence to cry down company enterprises in the Yukon generally, and at another time lending it to push along a particular Yukon company? The answer to be given in a London cable despatch which we published on Monday. That recalls the fact that Sir Louis Davies' Tenby speech was made when companies with which Sir Charles Tupper's name was connected were being floated in London; and notes that Lieut.-Col. Donville, M. P., promoted of the company which advertised Sir Louis Davies' letter, is a New Brunswick Liberal. It may not be possible for Sir Louis Davies to be neutral in politics, but in regard to private enterprises on the British market he ought to be strictly so. It is not his business either to boom the company of a political friend or to cry down that of a political opponent.—Mail and Empire.

Women are not the only ones who are sensitive about their ages. A man doesn't like to be told that he is getting old. Health keeps a man young. It doesn't make any difference if he has lived eighty years. If they have been healthy years, he will be hale and hearty and won't look within twenty years as old as he is. Good digestion and rich, red blood make people look youthful. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes rich, red blood. It makes health in the right way. It works according to the right theory, and in 30 years of practice it has proved that the theory is absolutely correct. It begins at the beginning—begins by putting the stomach, liver and bowels into perfect order, but it begins its good work on the blood before it finishes with the digestive system. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be and forces them out of the body. All druggists keep the "Discovery."

POLICE COURT.—Three charges of violating the Liquor Regulation Act were disposed of this forenoon, James Cummings and Thomas Murray were each fined $100 and costs or three months imprisonment for selling intoxicants on Sunday. Ronald Steele was fined $5 and costs or one month imprisonment for keeping his saloon open a few minutes after six o'clock on Saturday evening.

SHOOTING.—On Saturday, twelve men from the Pownal Sporting Club fired a return match with twelve men from the City corps on Kensington rifle range. The Pownal men came off victorious, winning with five points. After the match was over the city team entertained their friends right royally at the Revere Hotel, where an excellent dinner was served in Mrs. Brown's best style. After dinner came toasts, speeches, songs and recitations and a pleasant time was passed till 10:30 o'clock when the party broke up with the hope of having a similar reunion at no distant date.

GRACE CHURCH.—The Rev. B. Chappell preached an excellent sermon in Grace Church last night from Malachi iii. 1, which was made doubly effective from the fact that this will be Mr. Chappell's last appearance before a public audience previous to his departure for Japan. Several friends came forward at the close of the service and bade him farewell as he expects to leave the city on Wednesday morning next. The Rev. Mr. Kirby assisted at the service and asked the prayers of the congregation in Japan. There was a very fair congregation and the whole service was very impressive.

MS. ANSBACH'S ENTERTAINMENT.—The entertainment to take place in the Opera House tomorrow evening is likely to be well patronized and those who attend will undoubtedly have a pleasant evening. Mr. Ansbach comes well recommended; in every place that he has appeared both in public and in private most enthusiastic praise has been bestowed upon him. Since his arrival in Charlottetown on Thursday evening last he has made many friends before whom he has performed some almost incredible tricks, and we can bespeak for those who attend a most enjoyable time. Mr. Ansbach appears before a Charlottetown audience on but one occasion, viz., Tuesday evening, which will be his first and last appearance.

One result of the enfranchisement of the women of Colorado, has been the election on two occasions of three women to the State Legislature. Of the three who were elected last winter, one, Mrs. Evangeline Heartz, is a native of P. E. Island. Her father was a lawyer of English birth, and her mother a native of Boston. Her husband, John Heartz, also a native of P. E. Island, has acquired considerable reputation as a labor organizer. Mrs. Heartz is said to be a Populist, and a true friend of the labor party. She made her mark in the last session of the Colorado Legislature, by successfully championing a bill for an arbitration board, and several minor measures in the interests of laboring men.—Exchange.
