TROPHIES ARRIVE - The beautiful silver rose bowl donated by the Canadian Bank of Commerce and won by Mr. E. J. Sanderson, North River, with his champion Hereford female at the recent Provincial Exhibition, has arrived. It will be presented to the winner by Mr. W. M. Mellish, local branch manager, this week. Also arriving was the large silver tray awarded by the Bank for the grand champion female Ayrshire. This was won by K. Boswell and Sons, Victoria, and will also be presented to them by Mr. Mellish this week.

STRESSES WEIGHT FACTOR - Island swine breeders were urged yesterday to ensure that their hogs intended for the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto arrive there at the correct weight. By H. W. Clay, Senior Livestock Fieldman, Dominion Department of Agriculture. To do this, they should weigh approximately 200 lbs. in the first week of November. Breeders desirous of nominating animals should notify the office of Mr. Clay, and qualified fieldmen will select those judged worthy of being sent. A special effort is being made this year to win the honours in the classes judged on the hoof as well as retain the top honours they won last year in the bacon hog competitions.

MCGILL GRADUATES TO MEET - Graduates of McGill University will be taken back to the haunts of their undergrad days in the showing of coloured motion pictures which will be a feature of the annual meeting of the local McGill Society this evening. The pictures show the changes in new university buildings and other development. Another film covers the McGill winter carnival with shots of the St. Sauveur in the Lauriantians north of Montreal. The final film shows the costumes worn by McGill co-eds from 1888 to 1950. Hon. W. J. P. MacMillan, O. B. E., will preside at the meeting, which takes place in the Charlottetown. Mr. Lorne Callbeck is the secretary-treasurer of the local Society. Mr. D. Lorne Gales, of Montreal, the Society's general secretary, is in Charlottetown for the meeting.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND CROP REPORT - Apple crop in Province much below average. Potatoes - The only movement in past week has been a few by truck and boat, price to grower 90c per 75 lb. bulk at farm. Fine, warm weather in past week has helped to control blight condition, however production has already been greatly reduced by early killing of late plantings. Spraying of green fields of potatoes continues while some affected by blight have been buried down. Turnips - Maggot infestation continues to grow more serious, and shipping has been much lighter than usual at this time of year being confined to a small area. Price to grower 30c per bulk bushel at car. Other Vegetables - Liberal offerings of good quality local-grown vegetables on home markets at fair prices.

PERSONALS Mr. W. N. MacDonald, Sydney, is expected to arrive here today. As vice president of the Northumberland Ferries Ltd., he will confer with the president, Mr. R. E. Mutch, on plans for the future.

Each club was visited twice and the year was termed very successful. Prizes will be sent out as soon as possible.

TRINITY Y. P. U. MEETING - On Tuesday evening the Trinity United Church Y.P.U. held its weekly meeting in the Social Hall. The programme for the first part of the evening consisted of several games: Let's Get Acquainted, Advertisement, and Musical Knees. Anna Matheson led the recreation. After a singing, the coming convention in Halifax on October 6, 7 and 8, was discussed. It was decided to hire a bus if enough young people wish to go. A quiz "What Do You Want?" was given so that more effective programmes could be planned. The worship service, held in Heartz Hall was under the direction of June Eikhoud, Phyllis Coffin gave a very nice rendition of "Oh Jesus, I Have Promised." The pianist was Mary Morrison. After a game of Tuckers, the evening closed with "Good-night Ladies".

Mr. Farmer Takes Office At Trade Board Meeting

Mr. M. Alban Farmer was sworn in as president of the Charlottetown Board of Trade at the first full meeting of the season last night at The Charlottetown. The swearing in ceremony was performed by Secretary A. Walthen Gaudet.

A large group including a dozen guests was present to hear the final reports on Festive Week by Brig. W. W. Reid, Mrs. Brehaut, of the I.O.D.E. and Mrs. Sutherland, of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Brig. Reid said it would be the last meeting of the Central Committee set up to arrange for the week-long celebration held here in July. His report as chairman was previously published in full. In it he thanked the various organizations and individuals who had worked to make the week the big success it proved.

Mrs. Brehaut, who was in charge of the P.E.I. Historical Exhibit at Prince of Wales College, made a strong plea to the Board to interest itself in the acquisition of a museum to house the many items of historical interest now in danger of being lost to future generations. Her interesting talk on the value of maintaining connections with the past, while the stories relating to the items may still be learned, particularly mentioned some old time paintings showing parts of this city which have long since disappeared.

The supper meeting heard a report from the secretary dealing with the forthcoming annual meeting of the Maritime Boards of Trade in Sydney on October 2 and 3. He said he would personally attend and urged the members to try to be present.

Eight resolutions to be presented at the Sydney meeting by the local Board were read and approved. The resolutions will ask a further request to Federal authorities that statistics formerly issued as a "Maritime Group" be broken down into provincial items; that further efforts be made to have uniform trucking regulations prevail throughout the four Maritime Provinces; that the possibility of Dominion control over highways is viewed with alarm and that the Maritime Boards go on record as opposing it as highway control should be presented at the Sydney meeting by the local Board were read and approved. way control should be the sole right of each individual Province; that requests again be made to Ottawa authorities urging the placing of a new and larger boat on the Nova Scotia-Prince Edward Island service. This is being urged due to the rapidly expanding trade and the faster service provided for perishable products.

Another resolution asked that the proper authorities again be asked to give consideration to a regularly established air service between Prince Edward Island and West Coast Newfoundland centres such as Cornerbrook.

Thanks to the Department of Transport, Ottawa, for the placing in service of both car ferries operating from Borden during the summer months, are expressed and the Board is requested to have both ferries operate during the entire period of open water. The seventh resolution states the local Board of Trade pledges its co-operation with the Maritime Provinces Board of Trade in its program of Maritime economic development.

The final resolution to be presented at Sydney expresses the thanks of the Board to the Maritime Transportation Commission for the part it played in co-operating with the P.E.I. Provincial Council in the one-zone rate case.

Sharp Increase In Price Of Lamb

There has been a sharp increase in the price of lamb and a slight raise in the price of pork from the low of 28 1/2 cents at the end of last week. It was learned yesterday from Mr. H. W. Clay, senior livestock fieldman, Dominion Department of Agriculture, and from the Canada Packers plant.

The price of pork has advanced to 29 1/2 cents and will probably stabilize at that price after the sudden drop last week from around 33 cents. The usual heavy killing of hogs at this time of the year, it added to the lower price of Island grain and the lack of cold storage space have all been factors affecting the recent price trends.

The price of lamb has advanced from 57 cents of a week ago to 62 cents, an unusual occurrence at this time of the year, stated Mr. Clay, who also said that the demand for Edebe Cheviots and North Country Cheviots has been far in excess of supply.

British Labor Party Factions Agree To Truce

LONDON, Sept. 25 - (CP) - Socialist leaders last night agreed to a truce with their rebellious left wing for the period of the national election campaign. In a two-hour meeting of the party national executive, Aneurin Bevan, the government's chief critic, helped draft plans for a streamlined campaign that will show Labor as a united party on election day, Oct. 25.

The atmosphere of the meeting was afterwards described as "peace, perfect peace" - whatever the bitter undercurrents following the issue of 4,000,000,000 pound arms program. During the week-end, Bevan indicated he did not intend to carry his rebellion to the point of splitting the party in the face of the Conservative election threat. In a newspaper article he declared it was the duty of all labor Party members "to work for the defeat of the Tories with all the power we possess." Prime Minister Attlee, too, in speeches during the week-end refrained from hitting at the party rebels. He centered his fire on the Conservatives. But there seemed little chance that Labor's high command would include Bevan's main demands in its platform: a reduction in arms expenditures, a working agreement with Russia, a middle-of-the-road line in what he calls the great power struggle between Communist Russia and capitalist America, and a world mutual aid plan to develop backward areas of Asia, Africa and the Middle East. Bevan has only four out-and-out supporters in the 26-member national executive committee of the party, but is credited with strength among the rank and file of the party. The executive by-passed the possibility of new trouble by re-casting arrangements for the party annual conference at Scarborough, beginning Monday. These were the principal decisions:

Judge Trainor To Head Campaign For The Blind

Judge C. St. Clair Trainor was the unanimous choice for Campaign Chairman for the forthcoming campaign at the regular meeting of the P.E.I. Advisory Board to the Canadian Institute for the Blind, held last night at the Charlottetown Hotel. Mr. Sydney T. Green was appointed Special Names Chairman for Charlottetown.

The main item of discussion was the forthcoming campaign, the objective for which was set at $2,200.00, and the meeting was greatly encouraged by many expressions of well wishes and offers of assistance from many outside points. As soon as arrangements are complete, the names of the provincial centres will be announced.

Plans were also discussed for enlarging the campaign organization throughout the province, and for giving still greater publicity to the fine work which the Canadian Institute for the Blind is doing for the blind of this province. The campaign opening was set for Monday, October 22nd.

Among those present were Judge C. St. Clair Trainor, Vice-President, Mr. W. G. Foster, Board Chairman, Mrs. W. J. P. MacMillan, Mrs. J. D. Riley, Clarence McGuigan, Hunter River, Mr. Peter Pate, O'Leary, Mr. Walthen A. Gaudet, Mr. Walter Grant, R. J. Hill, Assistant Superintendent, C. N. I. B., and R. B. Gandy, Field Secretary.

Painters' Unions To Be Organized

The unionizing of painters of this city was discussed at an organization meeting last night at the L. P. U. Hall with approximately 40 city painters present. Named chairman for the meeting was Mr. Frank Hughes, with Mr. Eddie McInnis nominated as secretary.

The suggestions were advanced by Mr. J. Austin Trainor that two organizations be formed, one of master painters and the other of journeymen, and that contact be made with the Master Painters Association, Toronto, for registration.

It was formally moved by Abbie Weeks and seconded by Irvin Vail that arrangements be made with a union organizer in Montreal for aid in getting the local organization started.

Following the meeting a group of 12 painting contractors met to discuss the formation of the master painters organization.

PRAIRIE SNOW

The early fall storm has disrupted harvesting of one of the richest grain crops the west has known. Agricultural officials in Regina said the seriousness of the storm's damage will be governed by its duration and the weather immediately following.

The snowfall in Saskatchewan ranged from two inches in the Regina region to from three to five inches in the west-central area of the province. With only 55 per cent of the crop cut officials said serious lodging could be caused. But to grain already cut and lying in the swath, damage is not expected to be as serious as that caused by heavy rains earlier in the month.

Sharp frost preceded the snow. At Broadview, east of Regina, the early-morning temperature dipped to 15. Winnipeg with 20.4 degrees, reported the coldest Sept. 25 on record. But in most of Saskatchewan and Manitoba the grain was ripe enough to withstand the cold. Little frost damage was anticipated.

In Southern Alberta it was another story. There, crops are the most backward in the west. Anxiety mounted that farmers will not be able to get their grain off the land before winter sets in. A. M. Wilson, Alberta's field crops commissioner, said the snow will delay harvesting at least another week.

EDMONTON, Sept. 25 - (CP) - A visit to Canadian troops in Korea will be one of the first official acts of Most Rev. Barfoot, newly-elected Anglican Primate of Canada. He said at a reception last night he hopes to leave for Korea by plane Oct. 20. He will return to Edmonton Nov. 7.

Reception To Visiting American Consul General

At a delightful reception at Government House yesterday afternoon, His Honour Lieutenant Governor T. W. L. Prowse and Mrs. Prowse entertained more than 350 guests in honour of United States Consul General and Mrs. Cabot Coville.

United States Ambassador and Mrs. Stanley Woodward were to have visited the Maritimes this week and been present at Government House yesterday, but Mr. Woodward's duties in connection with the N. A. T. O. Council made it necessary to postpone the trip. In a telegram to the Governor, the ambassador expressed his regret that he and his wife would not be able to be present, and said that they were looking forward to a visit to the Island at some future date.

Mr. Coville, Consul General for Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island and Mrs. Coville are not strangers here, and they were warmly welcomed, particularly by those who had met them previously.

In the receiving line were Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. T. W. L. Prowse, Premier and Mrs. J. Walter Jones and U. S. Consul General and Mrs. Cabot Coville. Mrs. Alan Macmillan, Mrs. Jack Connolly and Mrs. Allison Rogers ushered, and Mrs. J. A. Webster and Mrs. W. J. P. MacMillan poured.

Serving were Mrs. Frank MacKinnon, Miss Lillian MacKenzie, Mrs. Bernard Hughes, Miss Doris MacMillan, Mrs. S. P. Jardine, Mrs. Fred Shannon, Miss Jean Gill, Mrs. Stewart Jones, Miss Eileen Christopher, Miss Lillian Duchemin, Mrs. Gordon White, Miss Mary Moran, Miss Norah Longworth, Mrs. J. F. Connolly, and Miss Iphigene Arsenault.

The dining room table was centred with a low bowl of pink and mauve sweet peas and tall pink tapers in silver candelabra. Bouquets of pink and mauve asters were also arranged about the dining room.

The reception rooms were decorated with silver baskets of pink and white carnations, the ball rooms with gladioli in shades ranging from deep red to pale pink and there were bouquets of pastel snapdragons in the drawing room.

Sharp Debate On New Code For Hindu Women

NEW DELHI, Sept. 25 - (Reuters) - The Hindu Code Bill has aroused the stormiest debate in the annals of the Indian Parliament.

Praised by its sponsors as "a charter of rights for Indian women" and denounced by its opponents as "a scorching blow to Hindu culture," the bill aims to change centuries-old laws relating to Hindu marriage, inheritance and adoption. It also introduces divorce into Hindu society for the first time in history. Reform of Hindu society along these lines has been hanging fire for nearly 10 years but repeated moves by government and legislature have been thwarted owing to difficulty of changing time-honored customs sanctified by tradition.

Even today, the Hindu Code Bill is faced with vehement opposition - strangely enough, even from women whose "liberation" it seeks. The government intends to pass parts of the bill which relate to marriage and divorce in the present session of parliament.

ALBERTA EDITOR DIES

INNISFAIL, Alta., Sept. 25 - (CP) - Benjamin J. Huckell, 77, editor of the weekly Innisfail Province, died yesterday. He was born in Ottawa and came west as editor of the Carleton Place, Ont., Express when he was 24. He became editor and owner of the Innisfail Province in 1925.

He was a former president of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association. MONTREAL, Sept. 25 - (CP) - Canadian National Railways today reported net earnings for August at $4,706,000, compared with $3,280,000 the corresponding month last year. Gross earnings for the same month amounted to $5,005,000, compared with $3,815,000 in August 1950, while working expenses totalled $59,929,000 against $34,871,000.
