

Mount Pleasant and Vicinity

Mrs. Myrtle Ramsay was a recent visitor to Summerside. Mrs. E. R. Pyke and children, Borden, were recently guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Williams. Little Grace Bishop, who had been a patient in the P.C. Hospital, has returned to her home much improved.

Congratulations and best wishes are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henderson on their recent marriage. Mrs. Henderson was the former Isabelle Williams, Springhill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, Somerville, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wood, Traveller's Rest, spent a recent weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Robinson.

Several from this district attended the shower given in Victoria West Hall recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Enman. The best wishes of this community follow this young couple as they journey through life.

O'Leary and Vicinity

Mrs. Marne Kennedy of O'Leary attended a Wolf Cub Convention during the week end at Rocky Point, Charlottetown. Mrs. Kennedy is the active and indefatigable Cubmistress of the O'Leary Wolf Cubs.

Mr. William Turner, a medical student at Dalhousie University in Halifax, was a week-end visitor at his home in O'Leary, the guest of his mother, Mrs. Alice Turner. He was the successful Principal of the O'Leary School last year.

The following Canadian Girls in Training of the O'Leary United Church attended the C.G.I.T. Convention at Bedeque October 28th to 30th at which the guest speaker was Miss Marjorie MacBride, C.G.I.T. Leader. Lillian MacGregor, Suzanne Wedge, Claudette MacNeill, Sylvia Silliker, Norma Dickson, Joan Stetson and Albert MacAusland.

A jolly and happy evening was spent on Friday night October 26th at Mill River when the Pres-

REGENT

Today 3:30-7:15-9:15 Thursday 7:15-9:15

Advertisement for Regent Theatre featuring 'Katie Did It!' and 'The Happy Years'.

CAPITOL Summerside

Large advertisement for Burt Lancaster, Dorothy McGuire, and Mister 880.

More women members in the Ontario Legislature is the ambition of Mrs. Marcella Brown, seen with husband, son Steve. She is running in the Nov. 22 Ontario elections as Liberal candidate for Lambton West.

Young Peoples Society of Mill River East entertained the Bloomfield United Church Young Peoples Union at a Halloween Party. This enjoyable social function was held at the lovely new bungalow on the property of Mr. Donald MacAusland overlooking the magnificent Mill River, one of the beauty spots of the district. Many of the young people, who numbered about forty, were in costumes appropriate for Halloween which showed much originality and artistic ability. The young people were met at the door by Miss MacAusland, who presided over the occasion. Jolly games and contests were held under the leadership of Rev. G.B. and Mrs. Cunningham of Alberton. Delicious refreshments were served and this grand evening of worship fellowship and recreation concluded by all repeating the Misspah Benediction.

Bedeque Notes

His friends are sorry to learn that Mr. William Barrett, Lower Bedeque, has had to enter Prince County Hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Corbett and two young sons, Alberton, were guests of Mrs. Corbett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacFarlane, Fernwood, on Sunday, Oct. 28th.

Miss Pauline Henderson, Charlottetown, spent Sunday, Oct. 28th, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson, Fernwood.

Mr. William Wright, student at Mt. Allison, returned to his studies on Sunday evening, October 28th, after spending a couple of days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edison Wright, Central Bedeque.

Mr. Billie Callbeck, P.W.C. student, spent Saturday and Sunday, October 27th and 28th, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Callbeck, Central Bedeque.

The friends of Mr. William Smith, Victoria West, will be sorry to know he was obliged to enter Prince County Hospital for treatment.

Mr. Arthur Chandler and son Roy, and granddaughter Janice, Charlottetown, were guests of Mr. Chandler's sister, Mrs. Hugh Murray, over the weekend of October 27th. They were accompanied by Miss Louise Turner and her niece Glenda, also of Charlottetown.

Miss Olive Holms of the nursing staff of the P. E. I. Sanatorium, arrived in Bedeque on Saturday, October 20th, to visit her aunts, Mrs. Hugh Murray and Mrs. Judson Blackmore and other relatives. She returned home on Monday, October 22nd.

The Prince County C.G.I.T. conference held in Bedeque United Church from Friday evening, Oct. 26th, to Sunday evening, 28th, was largely attended by members and group leaders. Miss Marjorie MacBride of the M.R.E.C. was in charge, assisted by group leaders. On Saturday evening, a banquet was put on by the ladies of the "Edith Thompson" W.M.S. was greatly enjoyed by the conference members. About 80 were present. On Sunday evening the closing service of the convention was largely attended by parents and friends of the C.G.I.T. groups.

Mr. and Mrs. James Coughlin, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Paynter, motored to Summerside on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 27th.

Mrs. Harold Gillis spent the past week visiting in Charlottetown, the guest of Mrs. G. C. Gillis. She also visited with her sister, Mrs. Earl Simmons, Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hayes and daughters Arlene and Valerie motored to Summerside on Saturday evening, Oct. 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. Leith Hayes visited with their daughter Orell in Summerside on Sunday, Oct. 28th.

Misses Willina Gillis and Joan MacArthur, nurses-in-training at Charlottetown, visited with their parents on Sunday, Oct. 28th.

Mr. and Mrs. William Grant spent a recent weekend visiting with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hutchinson, Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hutchinson and daughter, Susan, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ellis, O'Leary on Sunday, Oct. 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Williams were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hardy, Freeland, on Sunday, Oct. 28th.

Mrs. Muriel Ellands, Poplar Grove, Lot 11, visited with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gillis, on Monday, Oct. 22nd.

Mr. Harold Gillis, accompanied by Mrs. Jeanette Ogden, Mrs. Raymond Gillis, and son Wilfred, motored to Summerside on Monday, Oct. 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hutchinson were guests of Mrs. W. C. and Florence Palmer and Flo Thompson, Murray Road, on Sunday, Oct. 28.

Miss Edith Grant, Summerside, spent a recent weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Grant.

Mrs. William Burrell, superintendent of the Stewart Memorial Nursing Home, spent a recent weekend with her son Donald and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burrell.

Mr. Byron Hutchinson left on Sunday, Oct. 21st for Amherst, Nova Scotia, where he is working for the M. F. Schurman Co. Ltd., Summerside.

Ellerslie & Bideford

Mr. A. E. MacLean was a passenger to Summerside recently.

The many friends of Mr. Joshua Millar will regret to learn he is ill at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Milligan motored to Summerside on Saturday, Oct. 27th.

The many friends of Mrs. Howard Barlow will regret to learn that she is ill at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Coughlin, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Paynter, motored to Summerside on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 27th.

Mrs. Harold Gillis spent the past week visiting in Charlottetown, the guest of Mrs. G. C. Gillis. She also visited with her sister, Mrs. Earl Simmons, Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hayes and daughters Arlene and Valerie motored to Summerside on Saturday evening, Oct. 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. Leith Hayes visited with their daughter Orell in Summerside on Sunday, Oct. 28th.

Misses Willina Gillis and Joan MacArthur, nurses-in-training at Charlottetown, visited with their parents on Sunday, Oct. 28th.

Mr. and Mrs. William Grant spent a recent weekend visiting with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hutchinson, Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hutchinson and daughter, Susan, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ellis, O'Leary on Sunday, Oct. 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Williams were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hardy, Freeland, on Sunday, Oct. 28th.

Mrs. Muriel Ellands, Poplar Grove, Lot 11, visited with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gillis, on Monday, Oct. 22nd.

Mr. Harold Gillis, accompanied by Mrs. Jeanette Ogden, Mrs. Raymond Gillis, and son Wilfred, motored to Summerside on Monday, Oct. 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hutchinson were guests of Mrs. W. C. and Florence Palmer and Flo Thompson, Murray Road, on Sunday, Oct. 28.

Miss Edith Grant, Summerside, spent a recent weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Grant.

Mrs. William Burrell, superintendent of the Stewart Memorial Nursing Home, spent a recent weekend with her son Donald and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burrell.

Mr. Byron Hutchinson left on Sunday, Oct. 21st for Amherst, Nova Scotia, where he is working for the M. F. Schurman Co. Ltd., Summerside.

A large number of people from the two districts attended the Presbyterian Church goose supper in Freeland Hall, where an excellent supper was served and a good sum was realized.

Mr. Harold Gillis was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simmons, Summerside, on Sunday, Oct. 28th, and was accompanied on her return home by Mrs. Gillis who had been visiting with her sister.

Miss Melda MacCaull, teacher at Lady Fane, P.E.I., is spending her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacCaull, Mr. William MacCaull, who is teaching at Clairmont, also visited his parents over the weekend.

The Rev. R. H. and Mrs. Baxter have returned home after spending the past three weeks visiting with relatives and friends in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Skinner and children, Sandra and Brian, spent the past weekend visiting with Mrs. Skinner's parents at Cavendish and Mr. Skinner's parents at Winsloe.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sloane and children, Beverly, Billy, and Bobby, left on Wednesday morning, Oct. 24th for their home in Toronto after spending the past two weeks with Mrs. Stone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ross, who accompanied them to Toronto and plan on an extended visit there.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett McKenna have returned to their home in Borden after spending their annual holidays with relatives in Boston and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray MacLeod of Graham's Road were guests of their son David and Mrs. MacLeod at Borden on Sunday, October 28th.

Miss Laura Ozon of Truro spent a recent weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ozon, at Borden.

Mrs. Harvey Bernard of Borden left recently for Newcastle, N. B., where she will attend the Donovan-Ross wedding on Tuesday, October 30th.

Mrs. J. J. MacIsaac of Borden spent a recent weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Butler, Charlottetown.

Agnes Macphail, a veteran of three decades in public life, is another advocate of more feminine voices in parliament. She steadfastly maintains women have a special place in public life on every level.

Mr. Philip McBrearty and son, Robert, of Lake St. John, Quebec, spent a recent weekend with relatives at Borden. When they leave for Quebec this week they will be accompanied by Mrs. Robert McBrearty and little son John who have been visiting Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Dalziel at Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest MacNevin, Summerside, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simmons, Summerside, on Sunday, Oct. 28th, and was accompanied on her return home by Mrs. Gillis who had been visiting with her sister.

Miss Melda MacCaull, teacher at Lady Fane, P.E.I., is spending her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacCaull, Mr. William MacCaull, who is teaching at Clairmont, also visited his parents over the weekend.

The Rev. R. H. and Mrs. Baxter have returned home after spending the past three weeks visiting with relatives and friends in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Skinner and children, Sandra and Brian, spent the past weekend visiting with Mrs. Skinner's parents at Cavendish and Mr. Skinner's parents at Winsloe.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sloane and children, Beverly, Billy, and Bobby, left on Wednesday morning, Oct. 24th for their home in Toronto after spending the past two weeks with Mrs. Stone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ross, who accompanied them to Toronto and plan on an extended visit there.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett McKenna have returned to their home in Borden after spending their annual holidays with relatives in Boston and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray MacLeod of Graham's Road were guests of their son David and Mrs. MacLeod at Borden on Sunday, October 28th.

Miss Laura Ozon of Truro spent a recent weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ozon, at Borden.

Mrs. Harvey Bernard of Borden left recently for Newcastle, N. B., where she will attend the Donovan-Ross wedding on Tuesday, October 30th.

Mrs. J. J. MacIsaac of Borden spent a recent weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Butler, Charlottetown.

Mrs. William Burrell, superintendent of the Stewart Memorial Nursing Home, spent a recent weekend with her son Donald and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burrell.

Mr. Byron Hutchinson left on Sunday, Oct. 21st for Amherst, Nova Scotia, where he is working for the M. F. Schurman Co. Ltd., Summerside.

A large number of people from the two districts attended the Presbyterian Church goose supper in Freeland Hall, where an excellent supper was served and a good sum was realized.

Mr. Harold Gillis was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simmons, Summerside, on Sunday, Oct. 28th, and was accompanied on her return home by Mrs. Gillis who had been visiting with her sister.

Miss Melda MacCaull, teacher at Lady Fane, P.E.I., is spending her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacCaull, Mr. William MacCaull, who is teaching at Clairmont, also visited his parents over the weekend.

The Rev. R. H. and Mrs. Baxter have returned home after spending the past three weeks visiting with relatives and friends in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Skinner and children, Sandra and Brian, spent the past weekend visiting with Mrs. Skinner's parents at Cavendish and Mr. Skinner's parents at Winsloe.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sloane and children, Beverly, Billy, and Bobby, left on Wednesday morning, Oct. 24th for their home in Toronto after spending the past two weeks with Mrs. Stone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ross, who accompanied them to Toronto and plan on an extended visit there.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett McKenna have returned to their home in Borden after spending their annual holidays with relatives in Boston and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray MacLeod of Graham's Road were guests of their son David and Mrs. MacLeod at Borden on Sunday, October 28th.

Miss Laura Ozon of Truro spent a recent weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ozon, at Borden.

Mrs. Harvey Bernard of Borden left recently for Newcastle, N. B., where she will attend the Donovan-Ross wedding on Tuesday, October 30th.

Mrs. J. J. MacIsaac of Borden spent a recent weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Butler, Charlottetown.

More Feminine Voices in Parliament is Lady Candidates' Platform

Agnes Macphail, a veteran of three decades in public life, is another advocate of more feminine voices in parliament. She steadfastly maintains women have a special place in public life on every level.

Mr. Philip McBrearty and son, Robert, of Lake St. John, Quebec, spent a recent weekend with relatives at Borden. When they leave for Quebec this week they will be accompanied by Mrs. Robert McBrearty and little son John who have been visiting Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Dalziel at Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest MacNevin, Summerside, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simmons, Summerside, on Sunday, Oct. 28th, and was accompanied on her return home by Mrs. Gillis who had been visiting with her sister.

Miss Melda MacCaull, teacher at Lady Fane, P.E.I., is spending her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacCaull, Mr. William MacCaull, who is teaching at Clairmont, also visited his parents over the weekend.

The Rev. R. H. and Mrs. Baxter have returned home after spending the past three weeks visiting with relatives and friends in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Skinner and children, Sandra and Brian, spent the past weekend visiting with Mrs. Skinner's parents at Cavendish and Mr. Skinner's parents at Winsloe.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sloane and children, Beverly, Billy, and Bobby, left on Wednesday morning, Oct. 24th for their home in Toronto after spending the past two weeks with Mrs. Stone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ross, who accompanied them to Toronto and plan on an extended visit there.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett McKenna have returned to their home in Borden after spending their annual holidays with relatives in Boston and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray MacLeod of Graham's Road were guests of their son David and Mrs. MacLeod at Borden on Sunday, October 28th.

Miss Laura Ozon of Truro spent a recent weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ozon, at Borden.

Mrs. Harvey Bernard of Borden left recently for Newcastle, N. B., where she will attend the Donovan-Ross wedding on Tuesday, October 30th.

Mrs. J. J. MacIsaac of Borden spent a recent weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Butler, Charlottetown.

Mrs. William Burrell, superintendent of the Stewart Memorial Nursing Home, spent a recent weekend with her son Donald and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burrell.

Mr. Byron Hutchinson left on Sunday, Oct. 21st for Amherst, Nova Scotia, where he is working for the M. F. Schurman Co. Ltd., Summerside.

A large number of people from the two districts attended the Presbyterian Church goose supper in Freeland Hall, where an excellent supper was served and a good sum was realized.

Mr. Harold Gillis was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simmons, Summerside, on Sunday, Oct. 28th, and was accompanied on her return home by Mrs. Gillis who had been visiting with her sister.

Miss Melda MacCaull, teacher at Lady Fane, P.E.I., is spending her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacCaull, Mr. William MacCaull, who is teaching at Clairmont, also visited his parents over the weekend.

The Rev. R. H. and Mrs. Baxter have returned home after spending the past three weeks visiting with relatives and friends in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Skinner and children, Sandra and Brian, spent the past weekend visiting with Mrs. Skinner's parents at Cavendish and Mr. Skinner's parents at Winsloe.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sloane and children, Beverly, Billy, and Bobby, left on Wednesday morning, Oct. 24th for their home in Toronto after spending the past two weeks with Mrs. Stone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ross, who accompanied them to Toronto and plan on an extended visit there.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett McKenna have returned to their home in Borden after spending their annual holidays with relatives in Boston and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray MacLeod of Graham's Road were guests of their son David and Mrs. MacLeod at Borden on Sunday, October 28th.

Miss Laura Ozon of Truro spent a recent weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ozon, at Borden.

Mrs. Harvey Bernard of Borden left recently for Newcastle, N. B., where she will attend the Donovan-Ross wedding on Tuesday, October 30th.

Mrs. J. J. MacIsaac of Borden spent a recent weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Butler, Charlottetown.

Northam Notes

Mr. Arnold McLennen spent a brief holiday with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Grigg.

Sincere sympathy is being extended to Mrs. Thomas Folland in the death of her brother.

Congratulations and best wishes are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mollison, upon their recent marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Horne, Elmsdale, were visitors at the home of James E. MacLean and family on Sunday, Oct. 21.

Mrs. Fred Rennie, Alma, spent Sunday, Oct. 21, with her uncle, James E. MacLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Colwill and family have spent the past week visiting relatives and friends in Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan MacLean and their son, Ralph, left on Saturday morning, Oct. 20, for a trip to N.S., where they will visit friends and relatives.

Mr. E. H. Monkley, Summerside, attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Albert Gorrill, Northam, on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 20.

Miss Christie Maynard spent a recent weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Maynard.

The United Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Herman Dymont on Thursday evening, Oct. 25.

The many friends of Mr. William Burrell will regret to learn of his present illness in the Prince County Hospital. Mr. Burrell is widely known throughout the Province.

The funeral of Mrs. Albert Gorrill, Northam, was held on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 20. After a short service at the home, the remains were forwarded to St. James Anglican Church, Port Hill, where the service was conducted by Rev. L. A. Dignam. Interment was in the church cemetery.

A very successful goose and chicken supper was held in the Tyne Valley hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 23, sponsored by the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid. A very large crowd was in attendance and the ladies were commended on the excellent food and service. A table on one side displayed fancy work, which was admired and commented on favourably by all.

TORONTO, Oct. 30 — (CP) — Molyneux Lockhart Gordon, 67, honorary chairman of the Canadian Tax Foundation, died yesterday. He was manager of the Canadian Land Company and author of "Digest of Income Tax Cases" and "Excess Profits Tax Cases."

The first fish hooks used by cavemen in prehistoric times were pieces of flint.

BUYING OATS

To be loaded in cars at any station on Prince Edward Island. Also buying mixed grain at our warehouse in Kensington.

P.E.I. PRODUCE CO. LTD. — Phone 57 — Kensington, P.E.I.

BRACE'S STOCK NEWS

McDougall electric pressure water system, capacity 350 gallons per hour; 30 gallon galvanized storage tank with 1-4 h.p. electric motor. Price $151.00

New Jet Tankless Shallow Well self-contained water system, capacity 520 gallons per hour. Price $115.00 with 1-4 h.p. electric motor, plus duty and tax.

Order galvanized range boilers, white enamel sinks, bathroom equipment, black and galvanized pipe, 4" steel well casing, galvanized sheet iron, zinc, bar iron, lead pipe.

BRACE, McKAY & Co. Limited

Wholesale and Retail Distributors SUMMERSIDE, P. E. I.

Poultry Shippers ATTENTION

I am again loading this week for live Capens, Chickens and fowl on Friday, November 2nd from 8:00 A.M. to 10:30 P.M.

Come early and see your poultry weighed and graded correctly.

S. R. PENDLETON

KENSINGTON, P. E. I.

Found Unharmed Following Abduction

Forty-one-year-old Dr. Olive Stewart of London, Ont., recently was forced to use her 16 years experience as a psychiatrist to persuade two youthful thugs, who had kidnapped her, to release her. From the time they forced themselves into her car on a crowded city street until the time she was released unharmed on a lonely sideroad some 50 miles away, some three and a half hours later, Dr. Stewart said: "I never talked so long or so fast or used my psychiatry to such an advantage." Aside from $20 which kidnapers took from doctor, police are at a loss for a motive for abduction.

Forty-one-year-old Dr. Olive Stewart of London, Ont., recently was forced to use her 16 years experience as a psychiatrist to persuade two youthful thugs, who had kidnapped her, to release her. From the time they forced themselves into her car on a crowded city street until the time she was released unharmed on a lonely sideroad some 50 miles away, some three and a half hours later, Dr. Stewart said: "I never talked so long or so fast or used my psychiatry to such an advantage." Aside from $20 which kidnapers took from doctor, police are at a loss for a motive for abduction.

Forty-one-year-old Dr. Olive Stewart of London, Ont., recently was forced to use her 16 years experience as a psychiatrist to persuade two youthful thugs, who had kidnapped her, to release her. From the time they forced themselves into her car on a crowded city street until the time she was released unharmed on a lonely sideroad some 50 miles away, some three and a half hours later, Dr. Stewart said: "I never talked so long or so fast or used my psychiatry to such an advantage." Aside from $20 which kidnapers took from doctor, police are at a loss for a motive for abduction.

Forty-one-year-old Dr. Olive Stewart of London, Ont., recently was forced to use her 16 years experience as a psychiatrist to persuade two youthful thugs, who had kidnapped her, to release her. From the time they forced themselves into her car on a crowded city street until the time she was released unharmed on a lonely sideroad some 50 miles away, some three and a half hours later, Dr. Stewart said: "I never talked so long or so fast or used my psychiatry to such an advantage." Aside from $20 which kidnapers took from doctor, police are at a loss for a motive for abduction.

Forty-one-year-old Dr. Olive Stewart of London, Ont., recently was forced to use her 16 years experience as a psychiatrist to persuade two youthful thugs, who had kidnapped her, to release her. From the time they forced themselves into her car on a crowded city street until the time she was released unharmed on a lonely sideroad some 50 miles away, some three and a half hours later, Dr. Stewart said: "I never talked so long or so fast or used my psychiatry to such an advantage." Aside from $20 which kidnapers took from doctor, police are at a loss for a motive for abduction.

Forty-one-year-old Dr. Olive Stewart of London, Ont., recently was forced to use her 16 years experience as a psychiatrist to persuade two youthful thugs, who had kidnapped her, to release her. From the time they forced themselves into her car on a crowded city street until the time she was released unharmed on a lonely sideroad some 50 miles away, some three and a half hours later, Dr. Stewart said: "I never talked so long or so fast or used my psychiatry to such an advantage." Aside from $20 which kidnapers took from doctor, police are at a loss for a motive for abduction.

Forty-one-year-old Dr. Olive Stewart of London, Ont., recently was forced to use her 16 years experience as a psychiatrist to persuade two youthful thugs, who had kidnapped her, to release her. From the time they forced themselves into her car on a crowded city street until the time she was released unharmed on a lonely sideroad some 50 miles away, some three and a half hours later, Dr. Stewart said: "I never talked so long or so fast or used my psychiatry to such an advantage." Aside from $20 which kidnapers took from doctor, police are at a loss for a motive for abduction.

Forty-one-year-old Dr. Olive Stewart of London, Ont., recently was forced to use her 16 years experience as a psychiatrist to persuade two youthful thugs, who had kidnapped her, to release her. From the time they forced themselves into her car on a crowded city street until the time she was released unharmed on a lonely sideroad some 50 miles away, some three and a half hours later, Dr. Stewart said: "I never talked so long or so fast or used my psychiatry to