C. G. I. T. Conducts Service At Bedeque

A special service was held in the Bedeque United Church on Sunday evening, December 14th, conducted by the C. G. I. T. Group. This was the National Christmas Vesper service, and was led by Miss Evelyn Gardiner, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Green, who read the Scripture and Miss Catherine Calbeck who offered prayer. The girls were assisted in the choir by the ladies of the senior choir of the church, with Mrs. Burton Crowe, their leader, as organist. An address was read by Miss Gardiner, after which a candle lighting service was conducted by the following girls: Misses Isabel MacFarlane, Laura Doull, Cottie Toombs, Georgie and Janet Waugh. The evening offering was taken up by Misses Eleanor and Wilna Ballum. The meeting closed with prayer and Benediction. —B.Q.

BEDEQUE W. C. T. U.

The postponed November meeting of the Bedeque W.C.T.U. was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Pearl Affleck, on Wednesday, December 10th at 2:30 p.m. The meeting opened with singing hymns, Scripture reading and prayer. Nine members were present.

A committee was appointed to purchase prizes for children who had written the National Temperance Course exams. It was agreed to send Christmas cards to "shut-in" members. On motion it was agreed to write Dr. Eaton in regard to temperance literature for distribution, also agreed to send for blotters for the public schools. After a temperance reading by Miss Louise Calbeck, the meeting closed with the Mispah Benediction. —B.Q.
