Somebody Found 'Em.

AWFUL DISASTER IN THE FAMILY OF A NATURALIST.

(From the Arg naut.)

A naturalist, who is absent-minded to a degree, recently celebrated his silver wedding. Just as the first guest arrived, one of the daughters was sent to summon the father, who was all ready, and came into the parlor. The daughter noticed that her father carried in his hand a small wooden box, and as he shook hands with the nearest guest, she saw him drop it. The cover rolled off, but she gave a sigh of relief when she saw that the box was apparently empty. The naturalist, however, uttered a cry of dismay, and instantly went down on his hands and knees in an attempt to gather up something.

"Have you spilled anything, father?" she asked.

"Spilled anything!" he echoed, in evident indignation at her calm tone; "I have lost fifty fleas that I just received from Egypt!"

The effect of this intelligence on the family was nothing in comparison to the effect the catastrophe had upon the company before the evening was over.

Our Girls as Successful Women.

A wealthy woman recently gave $20,000 to establish a summer resort for poor mothers and their children. God bless her, this is only one instance among thousands where woman has conceived and executed grand ideas. Women are rapidly entering every branch of the useful arts, and aspiring to every money-making employment. "What shall we do with our girls" is no longer a mighty problem for mothers and fathers to solve. Some one has said "It takes a woman to set a hen," and so it does. The most successful poultry raisers are women. We have in mind a woman who has for years raised finer poultry and got more eggs from her hens at less expense, than her male neighbors,—practical men, too. Let your girls engage in the poultry industry, as many are doing. Give them a fair share of the profits, and they will soon convince their fathers that girls are mighty handy persons to have about the old house. With the aid now offered any person can make hens lay even in cold weather. Out of twenty-four gold coin premiums offered last winter for best results, one-third were won by the women who used Sheridan's Condition Powder to make hens lay. For example Mrs Henry Baker, Hollliston, Mass, won $10 and got from 18 hens during the three months' trial 1359 eggs; Mrs L J Wilson, Northboro, Mass, got 3243 eggs from 100 hens; Mrs Edwin Brown, East Greenwich, R I, from 35 hens got 2454 eggs; Miss E Bartley, Freeport, Pa, got 2029 eggs from 32 hens; Miss Ada L Ross, of Mt Sterling, Ill, from 15 hens got 886 eggs; and Miss Maggie Crowshorn, of Ottobine, Va, got 2060 eggs from 30 hens; each of the last five ladies also won a $5.00 premium from I S Johnson & Co, 22 Custom House St, Boston, Mass. Every person who sends this firm now $1 20 for a can of Powder, and desires it, can have his name entered as a competitor, if the premiums are again offered. For 50 cents they will send two 25 cent packs of Powder; for $1 00 five packs postpaid; six cans for $5 00, express paid; a large can of Powder, also one year's subscription to Farm-Poultry, monthly, both sent postpaid for $1 50. Sample copy of paper 5 cents. Send stamps or cash. Testimonials sent free. no22 dy6i wyli

JOHN A. KIMBALL.

Neuralgia of the Heart! Chronic Dyspepsia! Awful Constipation! Rheumatism!

CURED BY GRODER'S SYRUP

SAINT JOHN, N. B., October 11, 1892.

To THE GRODER DYSPEPSIA CURE CO., Ltd.

Gentlemen:—I, John A. Kimball, of the City of St. John, in the Province of New Brunswick, shoemaker, do solemnly declare that:

I cannot speak in too high praise of the wonders that Groder's Botanic Dyspepsia Syrup has worked in my case. It is an act of justice as well as duty for me to tell the public through you just what your remedy has done for me. I am 45 years of age. My life during the past 23 years has NEVER BEEN FREE FROM SUFFERING UNTIL NOW. Since I began to take GRODER'S Syrup; CHRONIC NEURALGIA of the heart of 25 YEARS' STANDING has entirely disappeared. My distress from SEVERE CONSTIPATION has been an unending torture for the past ten years, but your remedy is fast restoring healthy action of the stomach and bowels. Rheumatism of long-standing has ceased to trouble me. I am no longer a gloomy, melancholy dyspeptic. There is NO ACHE or pain in any part of my body. My food digests readily and causes me no distress whatever. Your medicine is the first of the hundreds I have tried that has given me any relief. I am ready to answer any inquiry concerning this statement, for I firmly believe in Groder's Syrup and desire other sufferers to obtain help as I have. It will cure them as it has cured me.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the "Act respecting extra-judicial oaths."

Done and declared at the City of St. John, in the Province of New Brunswick, this 11th day of October, A. D. 1892. JOHN A. KIMBALL.

Before me, J. E. BARNES,
A Justice of the Peace in and for the City and County of Saint John.
