Q: Person you most admire?
 A: Terry Fox
 Q: Do you regret not leaving the Island to attend school?
 A: I have no regrets
 Q: Did your father influence you into coming to UPEI?
 A: No. He told me to go anywhere I wanted to go.
 Q: Why did you stay here?
 A: In grade twelve, I looked up to and admired the soccer Panthers.
 Q: How long have you been playing soccer?
 A: Seven years
 Q: Why soccer?
 A: I got really bored with hockey and most of my friends were playing soccer. Bruce Norton was a big influence on me playing and he has been a bad influence ever since.

 Q: Once you started did you have any regrets?
 A: None at all.
 Q: Do you think that soccer is properly supported here in PEI?
 A: Hockey and Basketball have strong support because they win constantly. In my first two years, we had tremendous support. The stands were packed my first two years because we won. As soon as we lost the players, we lost the fan support.
 Q: What was the highlight of your soccer career at UPEI?
 A: Scoring the first goal against St Mary's in the last game of the season.
 Q: What advice would you give to aspiring soccer players who wish to attend UPEI?

A: Bring a set of earplugs so you don't have to listen to Bruce Norton scream and yell on the sidelines.
 Q: Are you currently dating anyone?
 A: Yes, Susan Cameron.
 Q: Are you, or ever have you been, in love?
 A: Yes. I had better be, or I am wasting a lot of money.
 Q: What do you believe love is?
 A: Love is like women; I have not figured it out yet.
 Q: What do you think of the social life on campus?
 A: Wild; fortunately, I have calmed down over the years.
 Q: What is your idea of sexy?
 A: Blond hair, blue eyes and a sleek body.
 Q: What is your beef with life on campus?
 A: Trying to give people directions.

Q: After spending a summer in Montreal, do you find PEI slow?
 A: We are backwards but we are fun.
 Q: What is one thing you would like to change about the world?
 A: I would like to get rid of all the feminists.
 Q: What is one thing you would like to do before you die?
 A: I would like UPEI to win another AUSA championship, so the two coaches can get drunk for a good reason.
 Q: What are your future goals?
 A: To earn a sizeable salary, live in a big house with a beautiful wife, and lots of sunshine.
 Quotable Quote: We shall hardly convince one another, nor is it necessary that we shall, so let us talk of something else.
