Lightning Bolt Dazes Famer

Melville Bell, DeSable, P.E.I., suffered brief shock yesterday morning when a bolt of lightning struck and damaged a barn of a neighbor across the highway from his home.

Mr. Bell was sitting in the kitchen at the time, having just entered the house, when a blue electrical flash that appeared to come from the telephone rendered him momentarily dazed.

The flash is believed to have been part of a lightning bolt that shattered the rafter in the barn of Russel MacLean about 9 a.m. Fortunately the building did not ignite.
