THE PRONS.—Moderate to fresh north to north-west winds; fine and cold until Thursday, then rising temperature.

MONEY FOR THE BOYS.—Boys can make pocket money and earn prizes by selling THE DAILY EXAMINER. Send the boys along.

VICTORIANS, ATTENTION!—A meeting of the club will be held in the rink this evening, at 7 o'clock, sharp. Election of vice president and other important business. All members will please attend.

NOTICE.—At the funeral of the late Arthur Veey, of Little York, the Foresters and Sons of Temperance will parade, leaving the Little York Hall at 2.30 p. m. City brethren from either society will be welcome.

BOY'S BRIGADE.—There will be an entertainment in St. Peter's schoolroom on Tuesday evening, January 30th, to help the boys pay for hats and belts, &c., and we trust a good patronage will be shown these small soldiers.

Next Friday evening the best place to be at is the rink watching the two great matches of hockey between Summerside and Victorias, also the Stars and 2nd Victorias. 20 cents admission; reserved seats 25 cents.

THE FERRY BOAT.—The ferry steamer plying between Charlottetown and Southport made several trips this forenoon. But she will probably be taken off the route this afternoon as there is crossing by the ice a short distance east of her wharves.

CHANGE OF DATE.—The social to have been held by the congregation of St. John's church, Milton, will be held in Winsloe Hall on the 24th instant. An excellent programme has been prepared, and talent from the city and elsewhere has been secured.

A WORD IN SEASON.—The habit of boys driving dogs attached to sleds along the streets and sidewalks of the city should be stopped unless the dogs are muzzled. An evening or two ago a dog being driven in this way attacked a pedestrian tearing his clothing and biting his leg.

HOSPITAL CONCERT.—The concert in the Hall of the Ancient Order of Hibernians last evening was very well attended. The programme as published was rendered with the exception of two numbers, the ladies and gentlemen participating acquitting themselves well. The proceeds go towards the Charlottetown Hospital fund.

"And scorned the price that would have bought his pen,
Erect he stood disclaiming selfish arts,
And scorned the price that would have bought his pen,"
Scotch song and story at the Opera House on the 20th.

TICKETS TO HALIFAX.—The department of Marine will issue tickets by the steamer Minto to Pictou and return on the 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th inst., at one dollar and a half (half the usual fare) good for one week from day of issue, to enable those who wish to do so to see the embarkation of the second Canadian contingent at Halifax.

NOT CONFIRMED.—A letter received in Charlottetown last evening from Victoria reports that the writer has not been able to obtain any confirmation of the report in circulation regarding the loss on Lak-Bennett of cattle belonging to the McKay brothers. As other letters from people who should know if such a disaster occurred make no mention of it it is probable that the report is not correct.

WOMEN'S LOCAL COUNCIL.—All presidents, or their representatives, of affiliated societies, and all members of the executive committee of the L. C. W., are requested to meet in P.W. College on Saturday next, January 20th, at 3.30 o'clock. A good attendance is greatly required as business of importance is to be discussed in preparation for the annual general meeting of this society.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Natural History and Antiquarian Society for the election of officers and the transaction of other business will be held in the Y M C A parlor at 8 o'clock next Monday evening, 22nd inst. The public are invited to attend. The Executive will be indebted to past members if they will renew their membership before that date. Those wishing to join the society will please apply to the Secretary, Mr. Watson. dy td

MORE NEWS FROM AFRICA

Interesting Letter from Mr. Lorne Stewart.

BELMONT, South Africa, December 11, 1899.

DEAR — I am writing under difficulties. We arrived here yesterday morning. We were up the day before at 3 a. m., dressed in heavy marching order, got on the train and were in the pouring rain from 7 a. m. to 2 p. m.

When we arrived here from Orange River, we pitched our tents, changed our shirts, socks, etc., and then another storm came on, which continued until about 2 o'clock this morning. We slept with all our clothes on, rifles at our sides, bandoliers (cartridge belts) under our heads and we fell in at 3.30 a. m., and remained under arms until 5 a. m., when we had breakfast.

There are quite a number of dead Boers and horses, rifles and ammunition in the hills about a quarter of a mile from here.

I have to go on picket duty to-night in the hills. As we expect an attack at any time, we are always ready for such an event. There was some fighting at Modder River last night,—our men captured one prisoner.

This place is all hills—like the other camps we have been in but it is not so sandy. This is the place where a British officer was killed who refused to allow his men to shoot a Boer who showed a white flag. The officer was shot by the Boer in going to see what the latter wanted. There are lots of ortriches here that have been taken from the Boers. There is also much cattle, horses, sheep and goats.

One Boer prisoner at Orange River asked me if there were many men left in England. I told him there were millions,—that what were out here would never be missed. He said "that can't be so for England is not as big as Africa." That is the opinion they have of Britain. But they will change their minds pretty quickly. We expect to be with the force that will relieve Kimberley. We leave our camp as soon as another regiment arrives so that it is rather slow work. We are now seventy miles from Kimberley.

The Boer prisoners are a tough-looking lot. I would think little of putting a bullet into them in a fight. They are as rough and uneducated a crowd of men as you ever could see. Out of fifty-three prisoners that we had at Orange River, there was only one who seemed to be anyway decently educated. He was what they called a commander—a very wealthy man. I believe we are to receive a medal, bar, and the foreign service star for our work as far as we have gone; we also are to receive a bar for any engagement we may get into.

This is to farming country, so far as I can see, but it improves as we go along. There are very few trees, except in front of or around the huts—which are built either of stone or mud, but are very clean. Each hut usually has a little garden, and a corral for the goats or sheep as the case may be.

It took me three hours to clean my rifle this morning. She was very rusty and full of sand. There are so many little holes and so much mechanism about these magazine rifles that it is quite a job. I never was in better health.

—is equally well, he never grows about his food now—though sometimes we are pretty hungry, other times we are not. He has about the funniest whizzer owned by any man in the company. Just imagine what I must look like not having had a shave for three weeks. You would hardly know any of us. I only wish I could have my picture taken just as I am at present. Fancy me being unable to have a wash yet this morning! But I will have one after the work is over, and we go down to the washing troughs where I will be able to get some "nectar" that fifty or sixty men have not used before.

At home I suppose you are enjoying yourself at the rink or otherwise. Here the great trouble is to obtain time for sleep, or to get clear of fatigue duty. There are eight of us in this tent writing,—we are packed like sardines in a box.

I have seen mayflowers out here. There are plenty of beetles, lizards, and flies galore.

I hope mother is not worrying about me, for there is really very little danger—we never think of it. Of course we know that the chances of all the Canadians pulling safely through this thing are very slim, but there are so many wounded slightly and so few killed that we never give a thought to the peril. The boys have lots of Kruger's silver coins, bullets, parts of rifles and goodness knows what all.

All our Island boys are well,—those who left Charlottetown with us and those from Fredericton and Quebec. The whole contingent is well and ready to fight.

Tell Miss Florrie Earle that the Island boys often speak of the beautiful hymn she sang so well in St. James' Church before we left our home.

LORNE STEWART.

When a man does you a favor behind your back he is apt to let you know of it immediately.

Local and Other Items.

SOLD AT AUCTION.—The Burrill-Johnson works were sold at auction at Yarmouth, last week, for $35,000 to H. Bradford Cann.

CALENDAR.—Our thanks are given Messrs. McLeod & Co for a calendar for 1900 having a splendid lithograph of Lord Kitchener.

A SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE.—The taxable property in Sydney, C. B., last year was $930,315. This year it will probably be $2,500,000.

AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS.—Amateur photographers should read the advertisement in another column headed "Photographs wanted."

CONVENT CONCERT.—Bear in mind the concert in the hall of St. Joseph's Convent to-morrow night. It will be well worthy of the patronage of all.

CHEESE AND BUTTER.—The cheese and butter trade brought into Canada last year $20,500,000—an increase of $4,500,000 over the year previous.

L. O. A.—Queen's County Orange Lodge will meet in Searle Lodge room, Sealetown, Tuesday, Feb. 6th at 6.30 p. m. Public meeting at 7.30 p. m.

NOT A LEAP YEAR.—The year 1900 is not a leap year, although it is the fourth in order. There will be but 28 days in February. The incident will not recur till the end of the year 2100.

WHAT THEY COST.—It is thought that the sending of the two contingents to South Africa will cost Canada a million and a half dollars. The first contingent cost between $260,000 and $300,000.

HOCKEY AT SUMMERSIDE.—In the hockey match at Summerside last night, Abegweits vs. Stars, the Abegweits were victorious, by a score of 5-2. Pound, McQuillan and Drake did excellent work for the Abegweits. Mr. James Dempsey refereed the game. The team returned to Charlottetown about three o'clock this morning.

AN EXCELLENT IDEA.—A Soldier's Mother, writing to the London Times, makes the following very practical suggestion: During the last frontier campaign, and in this war, I always enclose a blank sheet of paper and directed envelope in my letter to my son. Often when our dear ones would wish to write the difficulty of finding paper and envelopes is great.

THE KINDERGARTEN.—The entertainment under the auspices of the Fruit Growers' Association on the evening of Wednesday the 24th inst., promises to be well worthy of patronage. The programme made ready for the occasion is one that should draw, and the audience will probably be limited only by the size of the room. There will be a nominal admission fee of ten cents.

DEVELOPMENT SOCIETY.—About twenty members were present at the meeting of the Society last evening, and an enjoyable debate took place as to whether farmer or artisan had done more to extend the British Empire. The vote showed by a small majority that the artisan had done more. Several new members were admitted. The society is now on a firm footing, and the increased attendance each night points to prosperity.

WILL RETIRE FROM THE ROAD.—Mr. H. H. Sutherland, who some time ago purchased the McDonald property in Sydney, as already announced, intends embarking in the hardware business in what promises to be the "Pittsburg of Canada" During the years that Mr. Sutherland has been coming to this province in the interests of Schofield Bros., he made many friends who, while regretting his retirement from the road, will wish him abundant success in his new venture.
