G. G. Hughes Leads Large Field In Opening Round For Island Golf Crown

G. G. Hughes of Charlottetown turned in a 79 over the 72-par Summerside golf course Saturday to take the lead in the first round of the Prince Edward Island men's championship tourney. Hal Gaudet of Charlottetown defending champion, was not able to play due to business engagements. Second round of the tourney will be played at Charlottetown next Saturday.

Although slightly off his game, Charlie MacKinnon of Charlottetown carded an 82 which was good enough to give him second place in the round. A. Likely and A. V. Saunders of Charlottetown scored 85 and 86, respectively, to give them third and fourth positions.

Forty-two entries teed off in search of the title.

Sydney Again Leads League

SYDNEY, N. S., July 23—Knocking out 11 hits, including two homers and four doubles, Sydney overwhelmed Glace Bay Miners 9-1 in a Cape Breton Baseball League game Saturday.

In pitching Sydney back to the league leadership, young Phil Mooney gave up only five hits and batted one of the homers. It was the Miners' worst defeat of the season.

In another scheduled game the cellar-dwelling Sydney Mines Ramblers turned on New Waterford Dodgers for a 2-0 victory. The Dodgers' defeat was all the more bitter because it dropped them from second place.

Nova Scotia Rifle Shoot Opens Today

HALIFAX, July 23—More than 200 marksmen representing permanent and non-permanent naval, army and air units in Nova Scotia began oiling up their favorite rifles tonight in preparation for the three-day shoot of the Nova Scotia Rifle Association which opens at the Bedford Ranges tomorrow.

Besides teams from militia units, the Halifax Permanent Garrison Force, the Royal Canadian Navy and the Eastern Passage Air Force base, individuals have entered from the other Maritime Provinces to make the meet the largest in recent years.

Events will include revolver, rack rifle—using issue rifles—and open sight shoots. For the first time a sniping round will make its appearance on the program of the annual meet.

A group of cadets selected from points in Nova Scotia being brought to Halifax at the expense of the Department of National Defence to take part in the shoot.

A number of civilian shots are expected to turn up at the ranges early tomorrow morning for the opening when tyro and novice rounds get underway.

Although most of the events will be fired with .303 service calibre rifles, a special shoot with a .22 rifles is scheduled.

The Eastern Sport Front

The Southern Kings County Softball League has completed the first section of its schedule with Georgetown Holy Name and Montague Cubs tied for top position.

Since completion of the first section, however, interest in the league seems to have "petered out" with no move on foot to have the second section started or if this is not feasible to call on the playoffs as soon as possible.

So it is only fitting that representatives from Georgetown, Cardigan, Newport and Montague get together and carry on the good work which characterized the play in the first section.

The fans were treated to some fine softball in the first part and look forward with interest to a second section, so come on boys, do your stuff.

Wednesday, July 26th, will be a big day in Southern Kings for it is on that day that the Murray Harbor boat races and tea party will be in full swing.

This will be the fourth annual boat race held in that centre and promises to be bigger and better than ever owing to the fact that there was no Pictou Carnival this year and the former friendly rivalry between the Nova Scotia fishing boats and our own Island boats will be fought out at Murray Harbor Wednesday afternoon.

The "Silver Bullet", perennial winner of the free-for-all at Pictou will in all likelihood be seen in action as her owner, Walter Johnston, of Tony River, N.S., has signified his intention of coming "across the strait" in company with other Pictou boats for the big meet.

The Faye S. owned by Elmer Stewart of Murray Harbor, winner three years in succession at Pictou will be setting the pace in the 5-H.P. Single Cylinder Class.

Classes include 5-H.P., single cylinder, 10-H.P., double cylinder, Marine Engines, 4 cylinder, 6 cylinder and 8 cylinder car engine type. These are the speedy classes and besides this entertainment there will be yacht races, rowing and swimming races rounding out a wonderful afternoon's sport for the fans.

So if you wish to spend a pleasant day by the seashore and enjoy a boat race and tea party all in one be at Murray Harbor on Wed., the 26th.

Tarshis Makes Gallant Bid For Win As Canada Bows To Cuba In Cup Matches

(By The Canadian Press)
HAVANA, July 23—A gallant bid for victory by 24-year-old Ellis Tarshis of Montreal failed today and his defeat in a five-set tennis match by Ricardo Morales, Cuba's top-ranking player, eliminated Canada from this year's Davis Cup competition.

Under a broiling sun and weakened by a stomach ailment, Tarshis fought off a two-set disadvantage and squared the match, only to have the Cuban veteran outlast him and clinch the series Score was 6-2, 6-4, 3-6, 0-6, 6-4.

Morales beat Bruce Hall of Toronto 6-1, 6-2, 6-2 in the opening match Friday. He combined yesterday with Lorenzo Nodarse to vanquish the young Canadian doubles team of Phil Pearson and Bill Pedlar 9-7, 4-6, 6-4, 6-1 for Cuba's second point. His win over Tarshis settled the issue, qualifying Cuba to meet the favored Australian team in the next round.

Mere Formality

In the remaining singles match on this afternoon's schedule, Jose Aguero, Cuban champion in 1938, polished off Hall 4-6, 6-4, 6-0, 6-4. This tilt was a formality.

Tarshis, who defeated Jose Aguero, youngest member of the Cuban team, 7-5, 5-7, 6-3, 6-4, in his first singles match of the series, was uneven in his play this afternoon.

Robert Forster, Canada's non-playing captain, said Tarshis was feeling weak as a result of a stomach ailment.

He appeared badly off form in the first set, missing a number of kills at the net. His service lacked bite and only the fact that Morales himself was erratic enabled the Canadian to get two games.

Tarshis looked better in the second set. Both he and Morales played cautiously to avoid exhaustion in the torrid heat. The Canadian advanced to the net frequently but Morales lobbed to the baseline with telling effect.

In the third set, Tarshis seemed to get a grip on himself, Morales made a series of costly errors at the net and the set went to Tarshis 6-3.

In the fourth set, Morales went far off his game. He served double faults, hit wildly into the net and beyond the baseline. Only one game went to deuce and Tarshis took two games at love, running out the set 6-0.

The Cuban ace, who is 32, appeared to be resting and conserving his energies for the fifth set.

Crucial Final Set

Tarshis, with possible victory in sight, fought desperately for every point in the crucial final set. In the last game, however, he was slowed down by a cramp in his right leg. Each player won his service in the first eight games. Morales then took his own and broke through the service of Tarshis, who was limping badly.

Canada's young doubles team of Pedlar, who is 18, and Pearson, 19, put up a great battle yesterday before bowing to the superior strategy of the Cuban pair. Morales is 32 and Nodarse 29.

In the drawn-out first set of the doubles, games followed service until the score stood at 7-7. Then the Cuban's cracked Pedlar's service and held to take the set.

The Canadians came right back and took the second set 6-4, but the Cubans brought their game up to a high level to win the third by a like score.

Pedlar and Pearson showed their courage by holding on to square the match by taking the fourth set also at 6-4 with a clever display of serving and aggressive net play. But they couldn't keep up the pace and in the final set the Cubans allowed them only one game.

Byron Nelson Wins Western Open Crown

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 23—Byron Nelson, Reading, Pa. golf pro, won the Western Open championship today with a 72-hole total of 281 strokes over the Medinah Country Club's No. 2 course.

Nelson, in taking his fifth championship of the year, won the hard way. He trailed both Lloyd Mangrum of Los Angeles and Dick Metz of Chicago through 54 holes, then turned on the heat in the stretch run.

Mangrum already was finished with final rounds of 70-73 for a 282 total when the 27-year-old Nelson came in to shove the Los Angeles professional into the runner-up spot.

Metz, undisputed pace-setter through 36 holes, was out this morning in 71 and then—much as he "blew" the United States Open title last year—skyrocketed to a final round of 76 for a 285 total and fourth place.

Third position went to Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., the United States Professional Golfers Association champion, who had the last chance of the field to nip Nelson. After a morning round of 69, he slipped to a 72 this afternoon for a 284 aggregate.

Mrs. W. E. Cotton Leads Field In First Round For Provincial Ladies Title

Carding a brilliant 93, Mrs. W.E. Cotton of Charlottetown Saturday took a two-stroke lead over a large field in the first round of the provincial ladies' golf championship, played over the course of the Belvedere Golf Links. In second place, and still very much in the running was the defending champion, Mrs. E. W. MacKinnon of Charlottetown with 95, while another former champion, Mrs. Alex Horne of Summerside ended up in a deadlock for third place with Miss Morris of Charlottetown with cards of 96.

Second and final round for the title will be played at Summerside on Saturday next.

With the links in great condition 24 competitors teed off for the initial round and while the four leaders piled up big margins nevertheless the shooting among the balance of competitors was very close and the second round promises to furnish some of the closest competition this annual event has ever seen.

Following are the remainder of the scores turned in:

Brothers In Singles Final Of Tourney

Two brothers, Fraser and Don MacMillan, battled their way into the singles final of the Charlottetown Tennis Club's closed tournament Saturday afternoon via the five set route.

Fraser eliminated young Bill Moreside, promising junior player, 6-3, 4-6, 4-6, 11-9, 6-3, while Don sent Fulton Pierce to the sidelines in another gruelling match, 6-2, 4-6, 6-8, 8-6, 6-4.

Final berths in the ladies' singles went to Miss E. Bourke and Mrs. MacFarlane.

In the semi-final matches Miss Bourke defeated Gwen Rogers, 6-1, 8-6, while Mrs. MacFarlane accounted for Doris Heartz 6-3, 6-3.

Play in the doubles events will get underway this week.

P.E.I.H. Win Camp Softball Championship

The Prince Edward Island Highlangers (Black Watch) softball team won the camp championship Saturday afternoon by defeating the Cape Breton team 14-13. On Friday they eliminated the Signals teams 18-3.

The game Saturday was closely fought and went two extra innings before a winner was declared.

Lieut. Gordon Storey was on the mound for the winners, while Smith and Wilson did the firing for the losers.

Challedon Is Again Winner

CHICAGO, July 23—(AP)—When the Maryland horse, Challedon, conquered Johnstown in the muddy Preakness Stakes, the explanation was made that "Big John," winner of the Kentucky Derby, didn't like mud.

Saturday, before 40,000 spectators Challedon repeated his victory over Johnstown on a track that was dry and lightning fast, in winning the $50,000 Arlington classic.

Johnstown was a tired third, six lengths back of Sun Lover, which landed a head behind Challedon.

Going to the post a 1 to 5 favorite, Johnstown, victorious in seven of his eight races this year, was figured to be, in the minds of the bettors, a cinch. A ton of money was burnt up his defeat as $34,597 was wagered on him to win and $32,180 to place.

Practice

Junior baseball practice this evening at 6 o'clock at Victoria Park. Players listed please attend. Prowse, Brown, Larter, Purcell, Wilson, Whitlock, Biggon, Smith, Gaudet, Carver, Gallant, Blanchard, Matheson, Murphy, Steele.

"Silent" Sandy Tunes-up For Golf Tourney

MONTREAL, July 23—Any doubt that Ross (Sandy) Somerville wasn't ready for another stab at the Canadian amateur golf championship was dispelled today in convincing fashion as the quiet man from London, Ont., warmed up with a brilliant round over Mount Bruno course.

Just getting acquainted with the course, Sandy breezed around in 67, three strokes off par and one stroke better than the competitive record set in the Canadian Open 15 years ago by Willie MacFarlane, Leo Diegel and Gene Sarazen. Sandy didn't appear to be trying extra hard at any time.

Most of the 142 entrants in the amateur, which will open with a preliminary round tomorrow, got in one or two practice rounds this afternoon. Fourteen matches will be played Monday to whittle the large field, the championship proper getting under way Tuesday after Canada's top amateurs participate in the Willingdon Cup team matches and the juniors compete in their national championship.

Ontario's team of Somerville, Gordie Taylor, Jr., and Phil Farley of Toronto and Jack Nash of London was a warm favorite to retain the cup, won in a six-hole playoff against Quebec at London last year. The team went around together Saturday, Farley carding a 70 and the others 72s.

None of the other provinces' representatives was hitting the ball as well during the week-end although Allan Boes of Winnipeg slipped around the first nine in 32, three under par, after completing a full round with his teammates. The 18-hole scores were in the high 70s.

Out on the course for a long while today was Pete Kelly of Charlottetown, leader of the combined New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island forces. Pete was having trouble with his driving and putting and was far from satisfied after 36 holes. Kelly, a forward with Detroit Red Wings, is one of the two National Hockey League players in the amateur.

Royal Giants And Liverpool Split Games

LIVERPOOL, N. S., July 23—(CP)—Boston Royal Giants and Liverpool Larrupers split an exhibition baseball game here Saturday, the Giants taking the first game 4-0 and the locals winning a bitter 2-1 decision in the second.

Lefty Munroe let the Larrupers down with two singles in the opener while his mates found the veteran Ike Seaman for nine solid blows.

Burlin White's error which allowed Barneau Seaman to score after he had been trapped between third and home in the ninth inning of the nightcap gave the Larrupers the verdict. Kenny held the Giants to six hits. Green, Giants hurler, yielded a similar number.

It was the second time in three games Liverpool had topped the tourists.

Grand Circuit

(By The Associated Press)
OLD ORCHARD BEACH, Me., July 23—Equalling Greyhound's four-year-old track record in one heat, George F. Benham's bay stallion Bravo led a select field to win the 2.20 Trot which featured Grand Circuit harness racing here Saturday.

Driven by Harry Whitney, the Cedarhurst, N.Y., trotter reeled off the first heat in 2.01¼ in front of Dunbar Bostwick's bay gelding Boyne, which finished second in the summary.

Sep Palin piloted E. J. Baker's Dita home first in straight heats in 2.06 trot, the program's secondary feature.

FREE INSTRUCTION

LIFE SAVING SWIMMING

The Y. M. C. A. has arranged to have their Swimming Instructor, Tom Parker, give a Free course in the art of Life Saving and also a Free course in Swimming to those who desire to learn to swim.

Both of these courses are open to old and young alike and to any resident or visitor on the Island.

Adults and children from 4 or 5 years of age and upward should take advantage of this splendid opportunity.

All persons interested in either one of these courses must have their names recorded at the Y. M. C. A. no later than Monday noon, July 24th.

Life Saing instruction will be given daily at the Bathing Houses in Victoria Park starting Monday, July 24th, continuing until and including the following Monday, July 31st, at the following hours:—Monday and Tuesday from 7 until 8 p. m.; Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Monday, July 31st, from 7:30 until 8:30 P. M.

Swimming instruction to beginners will be given daily at the beach adjoining the Buttes approaching the Hillsboro Bridge starting Monday, July 24th, continuing until and including Friday, July 28th, at the following hours:—Monday and Tuesday from 3:30 until 5 P. M.; Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, from 4:30 until 6 P. M.

If sufficient numbers at the Buttes are interested in Life Saving this could also be arranged and worked in on part of the time.

IMPORTANT—It is important that all persons interested in taking either one of these Free courses realize that they must attend the class each and every day or they will not benefit to any great extent as the course progresses from day to day.

Your name must be recorded at the Y. M. C. A. before noon on Monday, July 24th.
