

DECEPTION AND FRAUD SOON UNMASKED.

Worthless and Imitation Dyes
Never Used a Second Time
by the Ladies.

Imitations of notes of our best banks are often made and circulated, causing loss to individuals and worry to the banks. Diamond Dyes, those sterling productions for easy home dyeing, are imitated in style of package by those who would make large profits from a fraction of cost.

Some ladies have been deceived by these poor, weak dyes, and have had good materials and garments ruined. These deceived ladies are never caught twice; they ever afterward use the reliable Diamond Dyes, and always get the result they look for.

If your dealer happens to be out of the color of the Diamond Dyes that you ask for, do not allow him to sell you some other make of dye. Write to Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal, giving color you want—stating whether you want to dye wool, silk, or cotton, or mixed goods—and the dyes will be mailed to your address. All colors of Diamond Dyes sold at ten cents per package.

We specially request a payment of all accounts sent out by us, December 31, '98

Can you oblige us with the amount of your accounts. We want the money by March 1st. A prompt settlement will be appreciated.

MUSICAL AND LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.

Brookfield Literary and Debating Society is encouraging the ascendant. A very entertaining meeting was held on the night of February 25th, in the hall, which was crowded with the intelligence and elite of the surrounding community, who had before them the inspiration of the pleasant countenance of the Rev. Mr. Millar, who occupied the chair. A very interesting and well delivered programme took up the first part of the night as follows:

Quartette—Never say fail by Misses Annie and Louisa Campbell and Messrs Alick and Norman A. Campbell.
Reading—Mr Leslie McDuff.
Recitation—Miss Louisa Campbell.
Recitation—Elizabeth Coaner.
Recitation—Mary Campbell.
Recitation—N. A. Campbell.

The debate was then opened the subject being "Woman's Rights."

It was opened by Mr. Ewen Campbell with a very eloquent and elaborate speech in favor of extending the franchise to the ladies. He was supported by Messrs. D. E. Campbell and Alick Campbell who contended that, as we have lady teachers, lady doctors and ladies in the legal profession, and also that physiologists have made the fact known to the world that the female brain makes up in fineness of texture what it is deficient in weight as compared with that of man, they should have the privilege of voting.

These speakers were opposed by Messrs Robert McDuff, William Hughes and N. A. Campbell who argued that woman's place is home where she should inspire the minds of her children with good and noble ideas and thus send good men and women into the world; also that it would degrade her and expose her to the vituperation of the vulgar should she go into the legislative world.

Our next night of meeting will be Friday March 4th. We will have our monthly review of the news of the world written and read by the Rev. Mr. Millar. It will be very interesting and all strangers are welcome to our meetings.

Secy.

Case in His Practice

The excellence of Abbey's Effervescent Salt is appreciated by the physician as well as by the general public. Here is what Dr. G. P. Sylvester, Toronto, says of it: "I have been using Abbey's Effervescent Salt in my practice for some time and find it one of the most pleasant and efficient laxative I have ever used. To the weak and irritable stomach it is soothing, and overcomes any acidity that may exist. I have no doubt it will be very useful in many forms of Rheumatism and Gout, assisting to neutralize the uric acid and also help to eliminate it. I will continue to prescribe it on all occasions where it appears suitable."

Since its introduction into Canada, Abbey's Effervescent Salt has won its way here, as elsewhere, on its sterling merits. All druggists sell this wonderful health-giving preparation at 60 cents a large bottle. Trial size 25 cents.

It is pleasing to see how the need for a through railway from Edmonton to Yukon has simultaneously taken possession of the whole country. The only dissentients seem to be the people of Prince Albert, who would prefer that their route should be chosen. Even the premier of British Columbia, who might be supposed to represent those Pacific ports which would be such a route be cut off from a large traffic which now passes their way, has telegraphed to Sir Wilfrid Laurier to urge the immediate prosecution of this work. This route is the one which the Montreal Witness has set forth as the right one ever since it became evident that Yukon demanded a road. And the Witness now says: "It becomes the government deliberately to make the best of a good situation, and there is no need of urging it to precipitancy."

THE LIQUOR AND DRUG HABIT

We guarantee to every victim of the liquor or drug habit, no matter how bad the case, that when our new vegetable medicine is taken as directed, all desire for liquor or drugs is removed within three days, and a permanent cure effected in three weeks. The medicine is taken privately and without interfering with business duties. Immediate results—normal appetite, sleep and clear brain, and health improved in every way. Indisputable testimony sent sealed. We invite strict investigations. Address The Dixon Cure Co., No. 40 Park Avenue, (near Milton St.) Montreal.

MAILS WEST.

DEAR SIR.—We read in your issue of 25th that the foreign mail by the capes arrived in the city at 1.30. on that date and still there is no foreign mail for Alberton by train this evening. Can you tell why we cannot get our foreign mail till the third day after it arrives at Cape Traverse? Is the fault in Charlottetown office or at Cape Tormentine? Has the a-sorting clerk that was to be placed at the latter place forgotten his occupation and turned to watching the leads in the ice and preparing da a for the so called Minister of Marine to send another Kingston tug boat to make several more unsuccessful attempts next winter as he did in the winter of 1896-97.

Please ascertain the cause of delay in delivering the mails and publish in your next issue.

ALBERTON.

[Upon enquiry at the Post Office we are informed that the mail is invariably forwarded to Alberton on the day following its arrival in Charlottetown. Quicker despatch is not possible as there is only one train a day to Alberton. With reference to the delay on the 25th, we are told that only 23 bags were brought over from Cape Tormentine on that date, the usual Upper Province mails having been delayed by the snow blockade on the mainland, and the blockade it was added is so severe that even yet the mails are not up-to-date.]

STEAMSHIP ENTERPRISE.

A Halifax shipping man stated to The Herald that in the near future it was the intention of a well-known steamship company to place two large and fast steamers on the route between Halifax and Liverpool. He stated that the steamers would be much faster than those now on the route. These steamers will land all their freight and passengers at Halifax, and will load there for Liverpool. It is understood that Mr. S. M. Brookfield is now in England in connection with the project. The steamers in question will be fitted up with cold storage apartments, and instead of running from Montreal during the summer, will make Halifax the summer as well as the winter terminus. The Herald was told that the steamers would be chartered, and that a number of Nova Scotia's monied men are interested in the enterprise. Many of the merchants of Halifax and numerous importers and exporters outside of the city have promised their support.

The sharp decline in speculative stocks in New York since the announcement of the disaster to the warship Maine, shows how sensitive the market is to the influence of a war scare. The clamor of the press and the wild talk of the United States senate have given the "bears" a fine opportunity to hammer prices. That well known New York capitalist and after dinner speaker, Chauncey M. Depew, who appears to be one of the "bulls," when recalled from Brunswick, Georgia, by a telegraph stating that war rumors had had sent the prices of stocks downward, remarked to a Herald correspondent: "There has been too much sensational talk about the Maine and results which will follow the investigation. It has caused depression in all securities, and has a hurtful effect on every man's property. We Americans should stop talking until the official investigation is concluded. I will then talk some myself, and talk as much about it as any one else. At present agitation is useless and detrimental to our country, our interests and to ourselves individually. Conservatism at this time cannot be brought into play too strongly. I have great faith in the administration acting properly in this matter, and until the investigation now under way is concluded I would be glad to see every one have faith in the authorities at Washington."

SPAIN AND THE SPANISH REPUBLICS.

A Madrid paper, El Pais, makes the startling suggestion that all the Spanish-speaking republics of America should form an offensive and defensive alliance with Spain to resist United States aggression and insolence. It points out that the Yankees are assuming a dictatorship in America that is intolerable, and that it can only be met and successfully checked by an all-Spanish alliance like that suggested. Naturally, the idea has greatly excited our United States exchanges, which while professing to regard it as impossible still devote considerable space to it. Among others, the New York Mail and Express has this to say:

"It is difficult to conceive of anything more preposterous than this dream of an alliance between Spain and South American influence. Such a relationship would be incongruous and intolerable. It might help Spain, but it would be a blight upon South American republics. Those countries, after a more than a century of wearisome effort, are independent of the political control of Spain, and it is only by resolutely maintaining that independence that they can attain the prosperity and power to which they aspire. They are still hampered and handicapped in many ways by the survival of Spanish influence and custom in law and commerce, but these are gradually disappearing before the steady advance of modern ideas; and wherever they are weakest there will be found the farthest advance of South American progress. The European influences which legitimately concern the welfare of the Southern republics are commercial and not political; they do not radiate from Spain, but from England, Germany and other progressive nations, whose power would be vigorously asserted to prevent even the semblance of such an alliance as the Madrid dreamers propose. Spain mistakes the temper and purpose of the South American nations as grossly as she does those of the United States."

And the New York Tribune, treating the matter more good-naturedly, remarks: "A fine sample of the Castle in Spain is that constructed by the newspaper, El Pais, in the form of a dream of a reunion of South America with Spain against the United States. Such an alliance, it says, would be the second power in the world in population. That also is doubted. South America has about 44,000,000 and Spain 18,000,000; in all, say, 62,000,000. Leaving the British Empire, with its hundreds of millions, out of the calculation, Russia and the United States both considerably outnumber the proposed alliance. Moreover, some millions of the South Americans are wild Indians. If they be omitted and only the civilized people counted, the new power would be inferior in population to Germany and perhaps to Austria-Hungary so that, instead of being the second in the world, it would have to fight for sixth or seventh place. That is, however, of little consequence, for the arrangement is about as improbable as an alliance between the Earth and Mars."

PERSONAL.

Hon. Messrs. Warburton, McDonald and Richards will leave for Ottawa in the course of a few days to formally press the claims of this Province upon the Dominion Government.

We give a large portion of space of THE EXAMINER to-day to the speech of Hon. D. Ferguson; for we feel sure that everyone interested in the political situation of to-day will read it with interest. We shall try to reproduce other portions of this splendid speech in future issues.

One of the first monuments to the late Henry George is to be erected in Philadelphia. Dr. Thomas K. Morton, president of the Philadelphia Vacant Lots Cultivation Society, has purchased the house 413 South Tenth street, where the apostle of the single tax theory was born, and will turn it into a library and reading room for the dissemination of single tax ideas.

There will be a hot time in the old rink next Tuesday night. Gaudet will try hard to hold the championship. Unsworth, Howatt and Clark will try hard to win it. 2, 1 & 3 mile championships, also the Junior Hockey championship will be decided.

An ice cream table, and candy table, a pleasing entertainment and choice luncheon; all these and other attractions in Zion schoolroom Tuesday evening.

Spring humors, boils, pimples, eruptions sores, may be completely cured by purifying the blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla.
