WINNIEPEG (CP) - A committee formed to combat spiraling sugar prices here has called for a two-week housewives ban on its purchase.

The Winniepeg Committee for Fair Prices, formed May 15, said the boycott began Friday to protest increased prices. Members are enlisting support for the boycott through telephone calls and publicity measures.

Mrs. Deeren Ploeman, chairman of the 12-member committee, said the predominantly female group is seeking a meeting with Manitoba Premier Duff Roblin to ask for a provincial investigation into sugar increases.

Prime Minister Pearson has been asked by telegram to launch another investigation.

Sugar prices have been advancing steadily for months. Officials blame a world shortage for the increases.
