

Your Horror-Scope:

Yes, it is that time again — the time when the always popular “Genie of the Gem” emerges from his crystal bottle of astrological science to deliver this month’s horoscopes for you, the students of U.P.E.I. These character analyses were derived from careful speculation from a number of reliable sources. Among these sources include my astral co-hosts, the degree of elevation that the moon is hovering over Blanchard Hall, and the theoretical existence of atmospheric conditions on one of Saturn’s moons. For, you see, this is all very scientific in nature ...

CAPRICORN (Goat):

December 22 — January 19
Like your zodiacal sign, the Goat, you will eat anything. However, you tend to break your rule when it comes to Suga Food. Your gluttony for food has become legendary in your home town, which has named a new greasy spoon restaurant after your nickname, the “Triple Chin after Burner”. Most Capricorns become taste testers and then die from malnutrition.

Aquarius (Water Bearer):

January 20 — February 18
You come from a quiet, rural town where men are men and sheep are nervous. In-breeding was common in this town, which accounts for the fact that everyone there looks alike. You are proud of your heritage, but then again, you don’t know any better. All of your animals ran away. You dislike strangers, so you usually give them a bad time. You are a mutant.

Pisces (Fishes):

February 19 — March 20
You are a determined individual who will stop at nothing to get what you want. This includes showing your greasy hands down cereal boxes to get the hidden surprise. You are a disgrace to your family. Your motor leaves your poison in your favorite mug. Pisces always get murdered by their “friends.”

Aries (Ram):

March 21 — April 19
Men call you “Jock”, women call you often. You are strong, but unattractive. You flatter yourself often, but deep down, you know that you are a loser. You are never satisfied with those around you. You expect more from them. No one is good enough for you, not even yourself. Most Rams Kill themselves — after talking to Psychology students.

Taurus (Bull):

April 20 — May 20
People whom you meet are stupified by your apparent lack of taste and elegance in your choice of clothing. These poor initial impressions are usually compounded by your stuttering and slurred speech. Your personality scares them, and they usually “run away” from you. Most Taurus’s become Taxi Drivers who cause many accidents when their “friends” drive away at breakneck speed to avoid them.

Gemini (Twins):

May 21 — June 20
Your friends always dig up old pictures, old stories and old nicknames of yours, and it is driving you crazy. You want to get even, but you know that you are too stupid to do anything creative. You get depressed easily, especially after having to eat your own cooking. Your sister calls you names. You’re so vain, you probably think this part was about you. Go see a shrink.

JACK SCORPIO

BY BRIAN LINKLETTER

Cancer (Crab):

June 21 — July 22
You are a righteous dude. You are a go-getter, and an upright, moral citizen. Everybody idolizes you. Groupies gather at your doorstep. In fact, you are so squeaky clean, that no one would believe of all the underhanded things that you have done in your life. For the unfortunate few who get in your way, you are ruthless and quick. You are the mogul of crime. Most Cancers are assassinated in their prime by “the one that got away.”

Leo (Lion):

July 23 — August 22
You scare people. They take you too seriously. Lighten up! On entering bars, the bouncers shy away from you. Your Mailman delivers your mail to your neighbours house so that he doesn't have to meet you every morning. Your hair style makes you look like the Bride of Frankenstein. Upon passing Great Danes, they jump into their owner's arms, giving him a hernia. So calm and relax — take a valium!

Virgo (Virgin):

August 23 — September 22
Your lustiness has given you the reputation of being anything but virginal. You make crude, sexist jokes every 7.5 minutes. In fact, you have been known to crack the crudest jokes imaginable at the most formal of occasions. However, you are clever — when you tell people that you are sterile, they believe you. Virgo's tend to break their own necks when the perfect “10” walks by.

Libra (Balance)

September 23 — October 22
The Scales of Justice do not apply to you. You are in the middle. Actually, you are in the middle of many things, because you are very wishy-washy. You have no opinions of your own. You are always among the “1.5% undecided.” You have the intellect of a kitten in heat. People always push you around. You are a follower.

Scorpio (No! Jack):

October 23 — November 21
Deep down inside, you want to be a vigilante. You hate what is going on all around you, and you would like a way to stop it. You are security-conscious, so you even look up your extra “imitation batman mask”, just in case. You see crime and corruption everywhere, even in the Girl's Washroom, where you have been caught three times now. Most Scorpio's become like the criminals that they are chasing.

Sagittarius (Archer):

November 22 — December 21
Your aim is perfect. Unfortunately, you aim in the wrong direction. You have been known to score in your own team's net. You are very athletic, but you are confused as to why you are always the last person picked for the team. Your sense of balance is such that you tend to fall out of your chair in the middle of class. Most Sagittarians become either circus clowns or corporate scapegoats.

— HAVE A NICE DAY —
... no, really, I mean it ... honest!
